ROSTER BREAKDOWN

- The Vols' 2022-23 roster features 16 players (13 scholarship student-athletes) representing 13 states as well as and Uruguay.
- There are two Vols who hail from the state of New York, two from North Carolina and one each from Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Maine, Minnesota, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia.
- UT has three fifth-year players, one senior, four juniors, three sophomores, two redshirt freshmen and three true freshmen.
- Nine Vols stand 6-5 or shorter and seven players are 6-6 or taller.

UT GARNERS TOP-10 PRESEASON RANKING

- Tennessee earned top-10 status in the preseason AP poll, landing at No. 9, and came in at No. 10 in the USA Today Coaches poll.
- This marks the fifth time in program history Tennessee is in the top 10 of both preseason polls, joining 2018-19 (No. 6/6), 2007-08 (No. 7/7), 2000-01 (No. 9/8) and 1998-99 (No. 9/9).
- It is the fourth straight season Tennessee has started in the AP top 20, setting a program record.
- Since the start of the 2017-18 season, the Vols have been ranked for 92 weeks, including 39 weeks in the top 10 and four weeks at No. 1.
- For the third time under head coach Rick Barnes, Tennessee appeared in every AP poll last season, rising to a high of No. 2. In fact, the Vols have appeared in every release of the AP poll spanning the last two full seasons.
- During his stellar career as a head coach, Barnes' teams have spent 308 total weeks in the Associated Press Top 25 rankings.

VOLUNTEERS COMING OFF FIFTH CONSECUTIVE NCAA TOURNAMENT APPEARANCE

- Tennessee has appeared in every NCAA Tournament dating to 2018. Those five consecutive berths tie for the second longest-streak in program history. The Vols appeared in six straight NCAA Tournaments from 2006-11 and made five straight trips from 1979-83.
- The Volunteers' current streak includes a pair of Sweet Sixteen appearances in 2018 and 2023.
- The Vols have earned a top-five seed in each of their last five NCAA Tournament trips—No. 3 in 2018, No. 2 in 2019, No. 5 in 2021, No. 3 in 2022 and No. 4 in 2023.

VOLS AIM TO CONTINUE RECENT TOP-FIVE ATTENDANCE TRADITION

- For each of the last four full-capacity seasons, Tennessee finished in the top-five nationally in average home attendance. The Vols drew an average of 18,781 fans to 16 games at Thompson-Boling Arena at Food City Center last season—fifth-most in the country.
- The Vols have ranked among the top 20 in average home attendance for 18 consecutive years (no attendance rankings were compiled in 2020-21), including 11 seasons ranked in the top five nationally.
- Tennessee's total number of season tickets sold last year (14,387) exceeded the average home attendance of all but 11 Division I programs. In other words, before selling any single-game tickets, the Vols were already assured of finishing at least 12th in average home attendance for 2022-23 (they finished fifth).

IN MULTIPLE METRICS, TENNESSEE IS SEC's WINNINGEST PROGRAM OVER LAST SIX YEARS

- Over the last six seasons, Tennessee leads all SEC programs in total victories (144), winning percentage (.716) and postseason wins (15). During that span, the Vols have captured a pair of SEC championships, winning the regular-season title in 2018 and the tournament crown in 2022.
- The Volunteers during that six-year span are one of only two SEC programs to boast an overall winning percentage better than 70 percent, joining Auburn (.715).
- In regular-season SEC play over the same six-year period, the Vols own a league-best .706 winning percentage and stand alongside Kentucky as the only programs to log at least 70 league wins.
- As proof that Tennessee is showing no signs of slowing down, the Vols are 52-19 (.732) over the last two seasons. No SEC team has more wins—or a higher winning percentage—during that span.

TENNESSEE LEADS ALL SEC PROGRAMS WITH 15 RANKED WINS OVER LAST THREE YEARS

- Tennessee has racked up 15 wins over opponents ranked in the AP Top 25 over the previous three seasons. That includes six ranked wins a season ago.
- That impressive collection of victories includes seven top-10 triumphs over No. 1 Alabama (2/15/23), No. 3 Kansas (11/25/22), No. 3 Auburn (2/26/22), No. 4 Kentucky (2/15/22), No. 5 Kentucky (3/12/22), No. 6 Arizona (12/22/21) and No. 10 Texas (1/28/23).
- Over the last three years, Tennessee has played a league-most 26 games against AP Top 25 opponents, going 15-11 (.577) in those contests. The Vols are one of only two SEC programs to own a winning record against ranked foes during that span, joining Alabama (13-12, .520).
- Tennessee (26), Alabama (25), Arkansas (25) and Kentucky (22) are the only SEC teams to play more than 20 ranked opponents dating to the start of the 2020-21 campaign.

RELENTLESS DEFENSE ALSO A TENNESSEE TRADEMARK

- Last season, Tennessee spent 15 weeks with the nation's best defensive efficiency according to KenPom.com. After a dominant win over Kansas in the Battle 4 Atlantis championship game, the Vols posted the best defensive efficiency rating in the history of Pomeroy's database, which began in 1999-2000.
- Four times in the last six years, Tennessee has finished among the top 10 nationally in KenPom's year-end defensive efficiency ratings: sixth in 2018, fourth in 2021, third in 2022 and first in 2023.
- The Vols are coming off a 25-win campaign during which they finished the year ranked first in Division I in 3-point defense (.265), third in scoring defense (57.9 ppg) and third in field-goal defense (.373).
- Associate head coach Justin Gainey enters his second season serving as Tennessee's defensive coordinator in 2023-24.

SEVEN VOLS DRAFTED SINCE 2019

- Over the last five NBA Drafts, seven Tennessee Vols have been selected. That includes three first-round selections.
- It marks the most picks over a five-year span in program history, and Tennessee's seven picks over that span are tied for fourth-most among all schools nationwide.
- This past June, forward Julian Phillips was selected with the 35th pick and landed with the Chicago Bulls.
- Three Vols (Grant Williams, Admiral Schofield and Jordan Bone) were drafted in 2019. Two one-and-done phenoms were then selected in 2021 (Keon Johnson and Jaden Springer). And in 2022, one-and-done point guard Kennedy Chandler was selected.
- To add context to the "Rick Barnes effect" on Tennessee's talent influx, only six Vols were drafted in the 20 years preceding Barnes' arrival on Rocky Top.

WINNING IS A HABIT FOR VOLS AT FOOD CITY CENTER

- Tennessee's Food City Center has proven to be one of the most difficult venues for opposing teams to win at in recent years. Over the last three seasons, the Vols are 43-5 (.896) at home.
- Fifth-year Vol Josiah-Jordan James owns a 54-11 (.831) career mark at Food City Center, along with a 48-9 (.842) home record alongside Santiago Vescovi—who enrolled after the 2019-20 season began—entering the 2023-24 campaign. More than half of James' home setbacks (six) came during his freshman year in 2019-20.
- During eight seasons under head coach Rick Barnes, the Vols are 108-22 (.831) at Thompson-Boling Arena. Twice during the Barnes era, UT has posted a perfect record at home, going 18-0 in 2018-19 and 16-0 in 2021-22.

BARNES STEADILY APPROACHING 800-WIN MARK

- Tennessee head coach Rick Barnes enters his 37th season as a Division I head coach just 21 wins shy of reaching 800 victories in his Hall of Fame career. He enters the year with 779.
- The exclusive 800-win club currently includes just 10 names, with Barnes contemporaries John Calipari (790) and Bill Self (763) also poised to join that group.
- Barnes currently ranks tied for No. 15 on the all-time Division I wins list—two shy of tying the late Lute Olson (781) for 14th place.

TENNESSEE'S TWO TRANSFER PORTAL ADDITIONS BROUGHT NEARLY 2,000 DIVISION I POINTS WITH THEM

- Tennessee added two players via the NCAA Transfer Portal during the offseason in guards Jordan Gainey (USC Upstate) and Dalton Knecht (Northern Colorado). That duo has scored a combined 1,848 Division I points in 128 games—14.4 ppg.
- Each of those first-year Vols has a very real shot at scoring their 1,000th Division I point this season. Knecht enters the year with 959 points, while Gainey has 889.
- Returning fifth-year Vol Santiago Vescovi hit the 1,000-point milestone last season and now has 1,318 points. And fellow fifth-year returner Josiah-Jordan James enters the season with 968 points to his credit.

SHOOTERS PREVALENT ON THIS VOL ROSTER

- Four different players on this season's Tennessee squad made at least 50 3-pointers last season. Santiago Vescovi and Zakai Zeigler made 91 and 51 as Vols, respectively. Dalton Knecht drained 74 3-pointers at Northern Colorado, while Jordan Gainey hit 64 at USC Upstate.
- That quartet of explosive guards combines for a career 3-point shooting percentage of .376 (640/1,704).
- Josiah-Jordan James made 56 3-pointers as a junior in 2021-22, but injury limited him to just 24 games played last season, when he made 40 triples.

AWAKA DOMINATED PAINT AT FIBA U19 WORLD CUP

- Sophomore forward Tobe Awaka was a top contributor—and a rebounding juggernaut—for Team USA during its fourth-place showing at the 2023 FIBA Men's U19 World Cup in Debrecen, Hungary, in late June and early July.
- Awaka started six of seven games for Team USA and was the squad's second-leading scorer, averaging 11.6 points while shooting .600 from the field. His 10.6 rebounds per game led Team USA and were the second-most among all players in the tournament. Awaka's 20.4 rebounds per 40 minutes far and away led all players who logged significant minutes during the tournament.
- Awaka—who averaged just 20.7 minutes per game—was the only player in the field to record four double-doubles. And he was one of only three to average a double-double.
- His 18.1 FIBA efficiency rating for the tournament was the best on Team USA and fifth-best among all players at the elite global event.

ZEIGLER WORKING TO RETURN FROM INJURY

- Junior point guard Zakai Zeigler suffered a season-ending left knee injury three minutes into Tennessee's Feb. 28 home game against Arkansas last season. He underwent surgery on March 13 and spent the entire offseason rehabbing under the collaborative direction of athletic trainer Chad Newman, director of sports performance Garrett Medenwald and director of rehabilitation John Dean. Rick Barnes and his staff will be conservative with Zeigler's return to full-speed basketball work.
- Zeigler, who led the SEC in assists last season (5.4 apg), has earned SEC All-Defensive Team honors in each of his first two years as a Vol.
- With two years of eligibility remaining, Zeigler already has more than 250 career assists and owns a 1.98 assist/turnover ratio.

at WISCONSIN (NOV. 10)

- The Volunteers hosted the Badgers in Knoxville on Dec. 28, 2019, as the first game of a home-and-home series. But the onset of the COVID pandemic postponed the return trip to Wisconsin, initially set for November of 2020. This year's clash concludes the two-game contract.
- Tennessee trails the all-time series with Wisconsin, 3-2, dating to 1981. The Badgers have won each of the last three meetings.
- Vols' head coach Rick Barnes is 1-5 as a head coach against Wisconsin.
- The Badgers finished 20-15 (9-11 Big Ten) last season and advanced to the semifinals of the NIT.
- Rising junior guard Chucky Hepburn led the team in both scoring (12.2 ppg) and assists (2.9 apg) this past year. Other key returners include 2023 Big Ten All-Freshman Team selection Connor Essegian (11.7 ppg, .359 3FG%), 7-foot forward Steven Crowl (12.1 ppg, 6.9 rpg) and guard Max Klesmit (8.4 ppg, .383 3FG%).
- This is head coach Greg Gard's ninth year leading the Wisconsin program. Gard guided the Badgers to the 2022 Big Ten regular-season championship and earned Big Ten Coach of the Year honors in both 2020 and 2022.
- Opened in 1998, Wisconsin's Kohl Center seats 17,071. The Badgers regularly rank among the national leaders in average attendance and finished fifth nationally as recently as 2018-19—one spot behind Tennessee.

MAUI INVITATIONAL (NOV. 20-22)

- Tennessee is making its fourth all-time appearance at the Maui Invitational. The Vols will be joined at the 40th annual tournament by Gonzaga, Kansas, Marquette, Purdue, Syracuse (UT's opening opponent), UCLA and host Chaminade at the Stan Sheriff Center in Honolulu, Hawai'i, during Thanksgiving week.
- Tennessee is a combined 14-20 all-time against the other seven teams in the 2023 Maui Invitational field. During the Rick Barnes era, the Vols have played Gonzaga (1-2), Kansas (2-2), Purdue (1-1) and Chaminade (1-0).
- Tennessee last appeared in the Maui Invitational in 2016, Barnes' second season in Knoxville. The Vols dropped close games to Wisconsin and Oregon before defeating Chaminade and claiming a seventh-place finish.
- The Vols also finished seventh in 2011, losing close games to Duke and Memphis, then defeated Chaminade. In 2004, Tennessee finished fourth, defeating Stanford in its first game before falling to North Carolina and Texas (coached by Barnes).

at NORTH CAROLINA (NOV. 29 | ACC/SEC CHALLENGE)

- Highlighting the inaugural ACC/SEC Challenge, Tennessee and North Carolina will tipoff from the Dean E. Smith Center in Chapel Hill, N.C., on Nov. 29.
- The new ACC/SEC Challenge replaces the now defunct SEC/Big 12 Challenge, which was contested from 2014-23.
- The Tar Heels went 20-13 (11-9 ACC) last year in their second season under head coach Hubert Davis. UNC returns two of its top three scorers in guard R.J. Davis (16.1 ppg, .362 3FG%) and forward Armando Bacot (15.9 ppg, 10.4 rpg). Carolina also welcomes five-star freshman point guard Elliot Cadeau into the mix after the 6-1 American-Swedish phenom reclassified from the Class of 2024.
- Tennessee has won twice in 12 all-time games against North Carolina. The Vols triumphed in the most recent meeting, riding an 18-point performance from then-freshman point guard Zakai Zeigler to a 17-point win over the 18th-ranked Tar Heels at the 2021 Basketball Hall of Fame Tip-Off in Uncasville, Conn.
- In its most recent trip to Chapel Hill, UT led for nearly 31 minutes before a late North Carolina surge lifted seventh-ranked UNC to a 73-71 victory on Dec. 11, 2016. Tennessee's only other visits to Chapel Hill came in 1947 and 1911.
- Tennessee is 114-100 all-time against current members of the ACC. Vols head coach Rick Barnes—a native of Hickory, N.C.—owns a 75-75 head coaching record against ACC opposition, including a 7-12 mark vs. UNC.
- A pair of current Vols also hail from the state of North Carolina. Junior forward Jonas Aidoo is from Durham, and freshman guard Freddie Dilione V is from Fayetteville.

ILLINOIS (DEC. 9)

- Tennessee hosts the first clash of a home-and-home series with Illinois on Dec. 9 at Food City Center. The Vols make a return trip to Champaign, Ill., during the 2024-25 season on Dec. 14, 2024.
- The Volunteers own a 2-1 all-time record against Illinois, but the programs have not met since Jan. 17, 1988—a 103-79 win by the Fighting Illini in Champaign. Tennessee won the first two meetings—a 54-51 triumph over 10th-ranked Illinois on Dec. 10, 1985, in Knoxville and a 66-42 victory on Dec. 15, 1967, in Knoxville at the Volunteer Classic.
- Tennessee head coach Rick Barnes also owns a 2-1 career record vs. Illinois.
- Illinois is the Big Ten's winningest team in conference play over the last four years with a 55-25 record. Under seventh-year head coach Brad Underwood, the Illini have made three straight NCAA Tournament appearances, own four straight 20-win regular seasons and have recorded four straight top-five Big Ten finishes—highlighted by a league-best 16 wins in 2021 and 15 wins en route to the Big Ten title in 2022.
- Illinois features one of the oldest and most experienced rosters in the nation, highlighted by the return of First Team All-Big Ten guard Terrence Shannon Jr. (17.2 ppg, .321 3FG%) and versatile power forward Coleman Hawkins (9.9 ppg, 6.3 rpg), both of whom withdrew from the 2023 NBA Draft to return to Champaign.
- While Tennessee and Illinois have never met in football, the Vols and Lady Vols are a combined 43-15 (.741) against Illinois in head-to-head team sports—7-0 in women's basketball, 4-0 in softball, 1-0 in soccer, 16-1 in women's tennis, 11-4 in men's tennis, 2-1 in men's basketball, 2-6 in volleyball and 0-3 in baseball.

GEORGE MASON (DEC. 5)

- Tennessee hosts one of the nation's most consistent mid-major programs when it welcomes Atlantic 10 stalwart George Mason to Rocky Top Dec. 5.
- Veteran Vols coach Rick Barnes earned his first-ever head coaching opportunity at George Mason in 1987 and guided the Patriots to a 20-win season before accepting the head coaching job at Providence in the spring of 1988.
- For the previous two seasons, George Mason's head coach was Kim English. English accepted that job following two years as an assistant on Barnes' staff at Tennessee (2019-21). This past March, English left GMU to take the head coaching reins at Providence, following the same career progression as Barnes 35 years prior.
- Tony Skinn is now in his first season leading the Patriots program.
- Despite owning only six all-time appearances in the NCAA Tournament, George Mason made a memorable run to the Final Four in 2006.

vs. NC STATE (DEC. 19 | HALL OF FAME SAN ANTONIO)

- Tennessee continues its recent run of participating in invite-only events administered by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.
- The Volunteers are 4-7 against NC State all-time, with UT winning the most recent matchup, 67-58, at the 2017 Battle 4 Atlantis.
- This clash marks the fifth neutral-site affair between the programs, with the Vols holding a 3-1 edge vs. NC State in such matchups.
- The meeting with the Wolfpack marks just the second time Tennessee has played in San Antonio, with the first trip to the Alamo City coming in the 2007 NCAA Tournament, a narrow 85-84 loss to top-ranked Ohio State in the Sweet Sixteen.
- NC State head coach Kevin Keatts enters year seven with the Wolfpack, coming off a 23-11 campaign and an NCAA Tournament berth in 2022-23.
- Vol fans will find a familiar name on the NC State roster, as the team's top returning scorer—6-9 forward D.J. Burns (12.5 ppg, .561 FG%)—began his collegiate career as a Vol, redshirting the 2018-19 season on Rocky Top.
- Other connections in this matchup center on the Tennessee coaching staff. Associate Head Coach Justin Gainey is a two-time NC State graduate who starred as a point guard for the Wolfpack from 1996-2000. Vols head coach Rick Barnes, meanwhile, grew up in Hickory, N.C., which is less than a three-hour drive west of Raleigh.

RICK BARNES

HEAD COACH

Ninth Season at Tennessee

Hickory, North Carolina

Lenoir-Rhyne University, 1977

Tennessee's fortunes on the hardwood have never looked brighter, as Rick Barnes, the most decorated and accomplished head coach in school history, has led the Volunteers to new heights in his eight seasons on Rocky Top. The 2023-24 campaign will be his ninth at Tennessee and his 37th as a head coach.

During the Barnes era, Tennessee has made five consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances (2018-23), won at least 25 games four times and earned and top-four NCAA Tournament seed four times. The Vols also have made 38 appearances in the top 10 of the Associated Press national rankings and have spent four weeks ranked No. 1 in the country.

Dating to the start of the 2017-18 season, Tennessee leads all SEC programs in total wins with 144.

Barnes was the 2019 Naismith College Coach of the Year after guiding Tennessee to a school-record-tying 31 wins and a Sweet Sixteen appearance. The Vols also authored a program-record 19-game win streak, logged three wins over top-five opponents and spent a month ranked atop both major top-25 polls.

Tennessee spent the entire 2018-19 season ranked in the top 10 and earned a year-end ranking of No. 5 in the coaches' poll. That team set single-season school records for assists and blocks and was the first UT team to score more than 3,000 points.

The Vols have spent the entirety of the last two seasons ranked in the top 25. In 2021-22, UT earned a No. 5 national ranking in the final poll after Barnes guided that squad to the program's first SEC Tournament championship in 43 years.

"Rick has built an incredible culture within our men's basketball program that has spread throughout Vol Nation," Director of Athletics Danny White said after announcing a contract extension for Barnes in March of 2022. "I've had a blast watching the best fanbase in the country embrace this team and create the most electric environment in college basketball. Coach Barnes' leadership is steady, and his players exude high character. They take pride in representing our university and the state of Tennessee with class and an unrivaled competitive drive.

"I can't overstate how fortunate we are to have Rick Barnes leading our program. I am unbelievably excited about our bright future as we chase future championships on the hardwood."

Over the past six seasons, Barnes—who is under contract through 2026-27—has directed the Big Orange to a 144-57 record, and the Vols have made five straight NCAA Tournament appearances. Four times during that span, Tennessee has finished among the top 10 nationally in KenPom's defensive efficiency ratings (sixth in 2018, fourth in 2021, third in 2022 and first in 2023).

The Vols authored a school-record streak of 35 straight appearances in the AP Top 25 poll from 2018 through 2019.

Through Barnes' first eight seasons in Knoxville, Tennessee has spent 92 total weeks in the AP Top 25, including 38 weeks in the top 10.

Additionally, a McDonald's All-American has signed with Tennessee for four straight years—Josiah-Jordan James in 2019, Jaden Springer in 2020, Kennedy Chandler in 2021 and Julian Phillips in 2022—bringing Barnes' career total to 19.

The marriage of Barnes' Hall of Fame-worthy résumé—highlighted by more than 775 career Division I head coaching wins, the fourth-most among active coaches—and Tennessee's world-class facilities, fervent fan base and outstanding athletic and academic resources, clearly has the Vols poised to consistently compete for championships.

Tennessee was picked to finish 13th in the 14-team SEC prior to the 2017-18 campaign, but Barnes and his staff not only guided the Big Orange to the 2018 regular-season SEC Championship, but also to the title game of the SEC Tournament, a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament and a 26-9 record.

Barnes was named the 2018 SEC Coach of the Year and was runner-up for Naismith National Coach of the Year after Tennessee became one of only eight "Power Five" teams to increase its overall wins total by 10 or more games from 2016-17. The Vols also were one of only eight "Power Five" programs to win at least 13 games away from home in 2017-18, leading to a year-end RPI of No. 10 while playing the 11th-toughest schedule in the country.

Several of Barnes' players have collected hardware in recent years. First-round NBA Draft Pick Grant Williams earned unanimous consensus first-team All-America status in 2019 and became the first player since 1995 to be named SEC Player of the Year in back-to-back seasons.

Admiral Schofield claimed All-SEC honors each of his last two seasons, including first-team acclaim in 2019. Point guard Jordan Bone dished out 215 assists on his way to second-team All-SEC honors in 2019, and fellow guard Lamonté Turner was named the SEC Co-Sixth Man of the Year in 2018. Yves Pons in 2020 became the first Vol ever named SEC Defensive Player of the Year. And in 2022, All-SEC freshman point guard Chandler became just the second Vol ever to be named SEC Tournament MVP.

Schofield and Bone joined Williams as 2019 NBA Draft picks. And Pons, in 2021, became just the second Vol in school history to earn back-to-back SEC All-Defensive Team honors.

Keon Johnson and Springer were each selected in the first round of the 2021 NBA Draft, and Chandler and Phillips were drafted in 2022 and 2023, respectively, to bring Barnes' total number of one-and-done draft picks to nine.

Phillips' selection in 2023 gave Tennessee seven NBA Draft picks over a five-year span— the most over a five-year span in program history.

The 2018 Volunteers spent 14 straight weeks in national top-25 polls and finished the season ranked 13th in the Associated Press poll and 16th in the coaches' poll. The team finished the season rated sixth nationally in defensive efficiency while leading the SEC in scoring defense (65.7 ppg) and assists per game (15.7).

In 2015-16, Barnes personally worked with guard Kevin Punter Jr. on a complete mechanical overhaul of his jump shot, and that endeavor paid huge dividends for the senior, as Punter more than doubled his scoring average from his junior year and finished the season as the nation's 13th-leading scorer with 22.2 points per game. Punter's field-goal percentage also rose from .419 to .460 as he earned 2016 All-SEC honors.

In fitting with UT's mantra of "comprehensive excellence," Barnes' commitment to his players' academic achievement cannot be overstated. His teams have posted a perfect 1,000 score in five of the last six multi-year APR reports as well as perfect single-year APR scores every year from 2005-06 through 2014-15.

Immediately prior to Barnes' arrival on Rocky Top, he oversaw a prolific, 17-year run at Texas that included 16 trips to the NCAA Tournament.

In 36 overall seasons as a Division I head coach, Barnes has led his teams to 27 total NCAA Tournament berths, eight Sweet Sixteens, three Elite Eights and one Final Four in 2003.

In 2019, he became just the third head coach ever to lead three different Division I programs to the Sweet Sixteen (Clemson, Texas and Tennessee).

He boasts coaching experience in the Southeastern Conference (Alabama assistant, 1985-86), Big 10 (Ohio State assistant, 1986-87), Colonial Athletic Association (George Mason head coach, 1987-88), Big East (Providence head coach, 1988-1994), Atlantic Coast Conference (Clemson head coach, 1994-98) and Big 12 (Texas head coach, 1998-2015).

His success on the sidelines is simply staggering. He coached Providence to three NCAA Tournament berths in six seasons. He then guided Clemson to the Big Dance three times in four years. And his 17-season stint at Texas featured 16 NCAA appearances.

Not only do his players find themselves perennially positioned to play for national championships, but they also carry themselves with a top-25 swagger. Barnes' teams have spent 308 total weeks in the Associated Press Top 25, including 136 weeks in the Top 10. Tennessee spent four weeks at No. 1 in 2019—the longest stint atop the polls in program history. His Texas squad earned the program's first-ever No. 1 national ranking on Jan. 11, 2010. And he had previously coached Clemson to a No. 2 national ranking—the highest in that school's history—during the 1996-97 campaign.

On the flipside, Barnes has collected 126 career wins over top-25 opponents. And his squads have toppled top-10 teams a total of 48 times. He has coached Tennessee to two wins over the nation's top-ranked team, beating No. 1 Gonzaga in 2018 and No. 1 Alabama in 2023.

In his eight years at Tennessee, the Vols own a winning record vs. rival Kentucky, going 5-3 against the Wildcats in Knoxville and posting three wins at Rupp Arena.

Nationally respected in player development, Barnes is one of only two coaches in the nation that can claim two different National Players of the Year in the last 20 seasons (T.J. Ford in 2003 and Kevin Durant in 2007). Barnes also has produced five consensus first-team All-Americans and three National Freshman of the Year honorees.

Barnes has coached 31 total NBA Draft picks, including 17 first-round selections. And he has coached nine NBA champions who have combined to win 11 rings.

Barnes' 31 NBA Draft picks boast combined basketball earnings in excess of $1 billion (not including endorsements).

coach," but also a "father figure"—was the No. 2 overall pick in the 2007 NBA Draft. Durant has won an NBA Most Valuable Player Award, four NBA scoring titles, the NBA Rookie of the Year Award, and is a two-time Olympic gold medalist and NBA Finals MVP.

Barnes was handed the reins to the Tennessee program on March 31, 2015.

In May of 2022, Barnes was selected as chair of the NCAA Men's Basketball Rules Committee after serving on the committee for multiple years.

A native of Hickory, N.C., Barnes was born on July 17, 1954. He was a standout player at Hickory High, from which he graduated in 1973. Barnes moved on to Lenoir-Rhyne College (Hickory, N.C.), where he lettered for three seasons and won the Captain's Award for Leadership as both a junior and senior.

He was selected for induction into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame in 2023.

He earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical education from Lenoir-Rhyne in 1977 and was named the college's Distinguished Alumnus in 1997. Barnes was inducted into the Lenoir-Rhyne College Hall of Fame on Oct. 5, 2002, and received an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree from Lenoir-Rhyne on May 7, 2005.

Barnes has a history of generous charitable giving and service not only in his hometown, but also in every community in which he's resided as a collegiate head coach. In East Tennessee, he plays an active role in supporting the Emerald Youth Foundation and sits on the Board of Trustees.

He and his wife, Candy—who is also a Hickory native—have a son, Nick, and a daughter, Carley. Carley and her husband, Josh Lickteig, have four children: Avery, Caleb, Emma and Isla. Nick and his wife, Rachel, have a son, Everett.

Associate head coach Justin Gainey enters his third year on the Tennessee staff in 2023-24.

One of Rick Barnes' most critical recruiting wins following the 2020-21 season was securing the services of Gainey, a proven veteran with previous coaching experience in the ACC, Pac-12, Big East and beyond.

Gainey boasts 17 years of Division I coaching and administrative experience.

Through his first two seasons at Tennessee, the Vols have appeared in every AP Top 25 poll, including 13 appearances in the top 10. The Vols also have three NCAA Tournament wins during that span, including a Sweet Sixteen appearance in 2023.

"I coached against Justin when he was the point guard at NC State," Barnes said. "He was an incredibly tough competitor then, and he has that same tenacity now as a coach. Justin has a passion for on-court player development that fits well with our staff. Our players are going to love working with him to grow their game.

"He's proven that he can recruit effectively nationwide, and we're particularly excited about his ability to maintain our strong ties throughout the state of North Carolina."

Barnes tasked Gainey with "defensive coordinator" duties prior to the 2022-23 season, and the results were historic. The Vols, while winning 25 games, owned the nation's best defensive efficiency, allowing just 87.5 points per 100 possessions. Tennessee's scoring defense (57.9 ppg) was the best by an SEC team since 2014-15, and its

3-point defense (.265) was the second-lowest among all Division I programs since at least 2007-08.

That defensive prowess hasn't come at the expense of playmaking. Tennessee finished sixth (63.0%) and second (66.2%) nationally in assist percentage during Gainey's first two seasons on Rocky Top.

With Gainey imparting the nuance of point-guard play, Vols point man Zakai Zeigler led the SEC in assists as a sophomore (5.4 apg), has twice earned SEC All-Defensive team honors and also garnered All-SEC second-team acclaim from the league's head coaches in 2023.

Gainey also leveraged his point guard playing experience to assist in the development of All-SEC point guard and SEC Tournament MVP Kennedy Chandler during the freshman's outstanding debut season with the Vols in 2021-22. Chandler led UT in scoring (13.9 ppg), assists (4.7 apg) and steals (2.18 spg) while shooting 38 percent from 3-point range.

Tennessee in 2021-22 ascended to a season-high of No. 5 in the final AP poll. Those Vols logged four wins over teams ranked in the top 10 and boasted the nation's third-best defensive efficiency. Additionally, Gainey handled lead scouting duties for UT's victories over No. 6-ranked Arizona and No. 14-ranked Arkansas.

In the 2023 NCAA Tournament, Gainey led the scout for Tennessee's second-round triumph over 12th-ranked Duke, during which the Vols held the Blue Devils to a season-low 52 points (tying for Duke's lowest-ever scoring output in an NCAA Tournament game).

Immediately prior to coming to Tennessee, Gainey spent the 2020-21 season as the associate head coach at Marquette. It was his second stint on Steve Wojciechowski's staff, as he also worked with the Golden Eagles from 2014-17.

In between his stints in Milwaukee, Gainey was an assistant coach at Santa Clara in 2017-18 and Arizona from 2018-20. During his time at Arizona, he assisted in the recruitment and development of 2020 NBA Draft picks Josh Green, Zeke Nnaji and Nico Mannion.

The Wildcats led the Pac 12 in scoring in 2019-20 and owned the league's third-best scoring defense. Nnaji and Mannion earned first- and second-team All-Pac-12 honors, respectively, that season, while Nnaji also earned Pac-12 Freshman of the Year acclaim.

At Santa Clara—where Gainey joined the staff of his head coach in college, Herb Sendek—Gainey worked closely with the Broncos' perimeter players, including first-team All-West Coast Conference performer K.J. Feagin. Gainey also was instrumental in assembling a 2018 signing class rated among the 10 best mid-major classes in the country.

From 2010-14, Gainey spent four years on Jason Capel's staff at Appalachian State, immediately preceded by one season at Elon—his first in an on-court coaching role—in 2009-10.

It was at NC State, his alma, mater, that Gainey began his career in coaching. He spent two seasons as an administrative coordinator before head coach Sidney Lowe elevated him to director of basketball operations for the 2008-09 campaign.

A standout college point guard, Gainey played four seasons at NC State from 1996-2000. The Wolfpack's record steadily improved throughout his career, and the program earned postseason appearances all four years. Gainey was elected team captain as a senior in 1999-2000 and led that squad to the NIT semifinals.

At the conclusion of his playing career at NC State, Gainey ranked second in program history in starts (103), fourth in steals (190), tied for fifth in games played (128) and ninth in assists (344).

He earned ACC All-Tournament Team honors as a freshman in 1997. And in the quarterfinals of his last ACC Tournament, Gainey recorded nine steals during a win over Virginia (March 10, 2000)—the mark still stands as the second-most steals in a game by a Wolfpack player.

In 1998, Greensboro (N.C.) Day School, where Gainey earned NCISAA Player of the Year honors in 1995 and 1996, retired Gainey's jersey.

Gainey received his degree in Business Administration, with a concentration in Marketing, in 2000 and earned a master's degree in Sport Management in 2006—both from NC State.

He and his wife, Courtney, have three sons, Jordan, Jayson and Jaxson.

Jordan played two years at the University of South Carolina Upstate, earning All-Big South honors, before transferring to Tennessee in May of 2023.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

2017-19	Sunrise Christian Acad.	Assistant Coach
2019-20	Illinois-Chicago	Assistant Coach
2020-21	Austin Peay	Assistant Coach
2021-	Tennessee	Assistant Coach

Rod Clark was handpicked by Rick Barnes to join the Tennessee basketball staff as an assistant coach in April of 2021. A young and energetic rising star in the profession, Clark, 30, helped the Volunteers capture the 2022 SEC Tournament championship and advance to the NCAA Tournament in each of his first two seasons on Rocky Top.

"We had an opportunity to be very selective in making this hire, and I couldn't be more excited about adding Rod to our staff," Barnes said when Clark was hired. "We weren't the only high-major program who wanted him, but thankfully he wanted to be at Tennessee. He fits everything we prioritize in our program culture, and I know he is going to connect with our players in a special way."

Among the players Clark already helped to develop are current NBA standouts Tyrese Maxey (Philadelphia 76ers), Shaq Harrison (Portland Trail Blazers), Kennedy Chandler (Memphis Grizzlies) and Julian Phillips (Chicago Bulls).

"Rod understands how to develop college players and make them better," former Tennessee associate head coach Mike Schwartz said. "Before transitioning to the college game, he proved himself at the highest levels of high school and grassroots basketball. In doing so, he developed a powerful recruiting network built on genuine relationships."

Tennessee has appeared in every AP Top 25 poll, through Clark's first two years on staff.

Clark helped steer the Vols to a Sweet Sixteen appearance in 2023, during a season that saw Tennessee showcase a statistically historic defense. The Big Orange captured that season's Battle 4 Atlantis championship and logged memorable wins over No. 12 Duke, No. 10 Texas, No. 3 Kansas, and No. 1 Alabama.

During Clark's first year at Tennessee, the Volunteers finished 2021-22 ranked No. 5 in final AP poll. The Vols logged four wins over teams ranked in the top 10, boasted the nation's third-best defensive efficiency and saw Chandler and fellow guard Santiago Vescovi each earn All-SEC honors.

Chandler, a one-and-done talent, was named SEC Tournament MVP before being selected in the 2022 NBA Draft. Freshman wing Julian Phillips followed suit the next year as the 35th pick in the 2023 NBA Draft.

A native of Kansas City, Missouri, Clark spent the 2020-21 season as an assistant coach at Austin Peay State University in Clarksville, Tennessee. The Governors posted a winning record and led the Ohio Valley Conference in offensive rebounding while ranking second in rebounding defense, third in turnover margin and fourth in scoring.

In Clark's lone season at Austin Peay, senior forward Terry Taylor was named OVC Player of the Year after finishing the season as the only player to rank among the Division I top 10 in both scoring (eighth, 21.6 ppg) and rebounding (seventh, 11.1 rpg).

Clark's first stop as a collegiate coach came in the Horizon League as an assistant coach at the University of Illinois at Chicago in 2019-20. The Flames posted impressive defensive statistics, leading the league in field-goal percentage defense, 3-point defense (14th nationally) and blocks per game. UIC finished the season with an impressive run to the 2020 Horizon League Tournament championship game.

For a two-year span from 2017-19, Clark honed his skills in player development, video breakdown and scouting as the top assistant coach at Sunrise Christian Academy in Kansas—a national prep basketball powerhouse.

In 2018, Sunrise Christian went 24-2 and finished the season ranked No. 2 nationally according to USA Today and MaxPreps. The 2019 squad followed with a 22-5 record, finished the year ranked 10th nationally and earned the program's first-ever appearance at the Geico National Tournament.

Clark also spent time as a coach with the prestigious MoKan Elite program on the Nike EYBL circuit. MoKan Elite posted a 30-7 record in 2018 and reached the semifinals at the Nike Peach Jam. He built on that experience to guide MoKan Elite to the Peach Jam championship in 2019 (with a roster that included Chandler).

Clark played his first two seasons of college basketball at Neosho Community College in Kansas and Redlands Community College in Oklahoma, respectively, before concluding his career at NAIA Lindsey Wilson College in Kentucky. He received his degree in Communications from LWC in 2015.

Clark and his wife, Alexis, reside in Knoxville. They welcomed their first child—daughter, Zara—in July of 2021.

GREGG POLINSKY

ASSISTANT COACH

Third Season at Tennessee

St. Louis, Missouri

Northern Arizona, 1981

IG: @GreggPolinsky

In March of 2022, Tennessee basketball coach Rick Barnes promoted Gregg Polinsky to an assistant coach role after Polinsky served one year on the UT staff as a volunteer analyst. The 2023-24 season will be third with the Volunteers.

A native of St. Louis, Missouri, Polinsky was a Division I head coach at Georgia Southern from 1995-99 before transitioning to a successful scouting and front office career in the NBA.

"GP added so much to our program this season," Barnes said. "Elevating him into this role was an easy decision after observing the way he's impacted our players and staff. His knowledge of the game is so extensive, and he's spent a large chunk of his career in the NBA, which is the goal destination for most of today's players. He understands what it takes to make it there—and, more importantly—have longevity there. GP is a world-class talent evaluator and an outstanding relationship builder. He fits the culture of our program perfectly."

With Polinsky serving as a full-time assistant during the 2022-23 season, the Vols won 25 games, spent the entire year ranked in the AP Top 25 and advanced to the Sweet Sixteen in the NCAA Tournament. Tennessee posted a 5-1 record against top-15 opponents, including a memorable win over top-ranked Alabama, for which Polinsky led the scout.

Guards Santiago Vescovi and Zakai Zeigler earned All-SEC honors from the league's head coaches in 2023, and Julian Phillips earned SEC All-Freshman Team honors.

After serving in various scouting roles with the NBA's Brooklyn Nets for 19 years—including tenures as chief scout and director of college scouting—Polinsky was hired by the Detroit Pistons as their director of player personnel in 2018 and held that position for three years.

Polinsky's first foray into college coaching came as an assistant at Howard Junior College in Big Spring, Texas in the early 1980s. He then ascended to the Division I ranks—initially as a part-time coach and later as a full-time assistant—at Texas under Bob Weltlich.

Prior to the 1986-87 season, Polinsky accepted an assistant coaching position at Alabama—a job that opened when Barnes left Tuscaloosa for an assistant job at Ohio State. Polinsky spent nine years on staff at Alabama during the head coaching tenures of Wimp Sanderson and David Hobbs, eventually serving as associate head coach in his final year with the Crimson Tide in 1994-95.

Polinsky was a standout high school point guard at LaDue High School in St. Louis before beginning his collegiate playing career at New Mexico. He later transferred to Northern Arizona, where he completed his degree in Secondary School Education in 1981.

Polinsky and his wife, Cindy, have adult twin daughters, Abby and Brooke.

2012-14	Texas	Graduate Manager
2014-15	Texas	Strength & Conditioning Intern
2015-	Tennessee	Director of Sports Performance

Garrett Medenwald (pronounced: MAY-dihn-wald) is in his ninth year as Tennessee's Director of Men's Basketball Sports Performance in 2023-24.

His basketball-specific training methods and emphasis on injury prevention began to bear fruit for the Vols upon his arrival on Rocky Top. Seven players who trained under Medenwald's supervision for their entire collegiate careers have heard their names called over the last four NBA Drafts, including first-rounders Grant Williams, Keon Johnson and Jaden Springer.

For each of the last three years, a Tennessee Vol has posted the best max vertical leap at the NBA Draft Combine: Johnson in 2021 (48 inches; the all-time combine record), Kennedy Chandler in 2022 (41.5 inches) and Julian Phillips in 2023 (43 inches).

At the 2019 combine, point guard Jordan Bone posted the No. 1 result in four separate performance tests: no-step vertical leap (36 inches), lane agility drill (9.97), shuttle run (2.78) and three-quarter court sprint (3.03).

And at the 2021 combine, Johnson shattered the event's all-time record in the max vertical jump with an unprecedented leap of 48-inches—surpassing the 20-year-old previous record by 2.5 inches. The next year, another Tennessee one-and-done guard—Chandler—posted the top max vertical among NBA Draft Combine participants (41.5 inches).

"G is a very direct and consistent coach," said Admiral Schofield, who worked closely with Medenwald to dramatically reshape his physique before getting drafted 42nd overall in 2019. "I loved getting a new challenge from him every day. His energy and passion are what motivated me when it was time to 'get jacked.'"

In Medenwald's eight years at Tennessee, the program has captured a pair of SEC championships while making five straight NCAA Tournament appearances from 2018-23.

The 2022-23 campaign was UT's fourth season with 25 or more wins during Medenwald's tenure.

During 2018-19, the Big Orange spent a month ranked No. 1 in the country en route to a school-record-tying 31 wins and a berth in the Sweet Sixteen.

In 2017-18, Tennessee navigated a 35-game campaign without any serious injuries, won 26 games (fourth-most in program history), captured the 2018 SEC Championship and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

"Garrett's methods and approach to elite performance training are on another level," UT head coach Rick Barnes said. "He's a star in his profession, and our students enjoy not just how he trains them, but also the personal relationship he develops with each of them."

In the summer and fall of 2016, Medenwald played an instrumental in the design and planning of a $98,000 renovation to the expanded, 4,350 square-foot Tennessee basketball performance training area in Pratt Pavilion.

The Green Bay, Wisconsin, native arrived in Knoxville with three years of experience working alongside Barnes, as Medenwald served the Texas basketball program as both a graduate manager and a graduate strength and conditioning intern from 2012-15.

Medenwald worked with both the men's and women's basketball programs at Texas, focusing in on-court development and sports performance. During his tenure with the Longhorns, Medenwald honed his philosophy as an elite performance coach while working closely with nationally known industry innovator Todd Wright—assistant coach/vice president of player performance with the NBA's Los Angeles Clippers—and learning the philosophies of Shaun McPherson.

Medenwald simultaneously spent two years as the Director of Athletic 3D Performance Training Systems at the "Train 4 the Game" facility in Austin, Texas, where he programmed for numerous NFL and NBA athletes.

Medenwald, 33, graduated from Wisconsin-Whitewater in 2013, earning a bachelor's degree in Health, Human Performance and Recreation while minoring in Athletic Coaching Education. He then received his master's degree in Kinesiology from Texas in 2016. He is currently pursuing doctorate in Kinesiology.

He married the former Brittny Henderson of Burlington, Wisconsin, in May 2016. They have a son, Case, and twin daughters, Cleo and Ari.

CHAD NEWMAN

ATHLETIC TRAINER

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Born:	Oct. 8, 1971, in Chattanooga, Tenn.
Hometown:	Chattanooga, Tenn.
College:	Tennessee, 1994
Wife:	Stacey
Children:	Katherine and Natalie

Chattanooga native Chad Newman is a senior associate director with UT's sports medicine department. The longest-tenured member of Tennessee's athletic training staff, Newman provides around-the-clock, world-class care exclusively for men's basketball student-athletes.

Newman was selected by his SEC peers as the 2019 recipient of the Chris Patrick Award, presented at the annual SEC Sports Medicine Committee meetings. And in January 2010, the Tennessee Athletic Trainer's Society (TATS) named Newman the Collegiate Athletic Trainer of the Year.

"Chad's the best," former Vol and NBA champion Jordan McRae said. "He genuinely cares about all of us and always looks out for what's best for us. He spends a lot of time making sure minor bumps and bruises don't turn into bigger injuries. Whenever we need him, Chad is always there."

The 2023-24 academic year will be Newman's 29th with the UT sports medicine staff and his 28th with the men's basketball program. During his tenure with the basketball team, the Vols have advanced to postseason play 20 times—including 16 NCAA Tournaments and four NIT berths. Newman has been a part of seven NCAA Sweet Sixteen teams, one Elite Eight team and four SEC Championship squads.

A total of 13 Vols who have performed under his care have been selected in the NBA Draft.

A longtime officer on the SEC Sports Medicine Committee, he currently serves as secretary/treasurer after previously serving as vice president.

Newman has helped numerous Vols overcome adversity and challenges over the years. He oversaw the management of All-American Chris Lofton's successful battle with testicular cancer following Lofton's junior season. Lofton went on to become the SEC's all-time 3-point king.

In September 2009, Newman was instrumental in reviving Tennessee sophomore Emmanuel Negedu after Negedu collapsed following a sudden cardiac arrest. Newman successfully administered the use of an AED and CPR until emergency medical services arrived on-site. For his efforts, he received a "Certificate of Heroism" from the Sudden Cardiac Arrest Association and also was named the 2010 Most Distinguished Award recipient by the "Hoops for Heart Health" organization, which was founded by NBA player Ryan Gomes.

When Newman first joined the Tennessee training staff in a full-time role in 1997, he was no stranger to the UT training room, having served as a volunteer student trainer and a graduate assistant before his full-time appointment. During that time, he worked with UT's football, men's and women's tennis, men's golf and men's track & field teams, as well as both spirit squads.

He earned his B.S. in Exercise Science from UT in 1994 and completed his master's in Kinesiology in May 1997. Newman is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA).

Newman currently holds Performance Exercise Specialist (PES) and Corrective Exercise Specialist (CES) certifications through the NASM.

In the fall of 2009, Newman authored an article about Lofton's successful return from cancer entitled "The Toughest Opponent," that was published in Training & Conditioning Magazine. And in 2010, he gave sudden cardiac arrest case study presentations at the Southeastern Conference Sports Medicine Seminar and the Collegiate Athletic Trainers' Society Spring Symposium.

Newman is married to the former Stacey Perry. The couple has two daughters, Katherine and Natalie.

ADMINISTRATIVE HISTORY

2015-	Tennessee	Director of Operations

Mary-Carter Eggert is in her eighth year as Tennessee's director of basketball operations in 2022-23. She is a native of Richmond, Virginia, and is a two-time Tennessee graduate.

One of very few women holding the role of director of basketball operations with a men's program at a major-conference school, Eggert oversees all logistical aspects of the program's day-to-day operations, including budget, travel and meals. She also manages head coach Rick Barnes' calendar.

Her around-the-clock efforts to manage health and safety protocols amidst the COVID-19 pandemic enabled the Volunteers to operate smoothly and efficiently despite myriad logistical challenges.

"MC is really the mastermind behind it all," Vols guard Josiah-Jordan James said. "She's our coach off the court. She plays a big role in all of the players' lives by checking on us daily, making sure we have everything we need, and she always keep our spirits up. She brightens every room she's in, and Tennessee basketball wouldn't be as great as it is without her."

With Eggert on staff, the Vols have won a pair of SEC championships and have made four straight NCAA Tournament appearances, including a run to the Sweet Sixteen in 2019.

Seven Vols also have been selected in the NBA Draft, including three first-round selections, during Eggert's tenure with the program.

Prior to accepting her current position, she spent three years as an assistant director on UT's media relations staff.

In that role, she handled all administrative duties for the athletic communications staff, served as the media relations contact for the Tennessee rowing program and planned and executed the annual Big Orange Caravan summer outreach tour.

Eggert worked closely with the Tennessee football program for three seasons from 2012 to 2014, managing Tom Elam Press Box on game days and overseeing the credential application, approval and distribution process for all home games.

She also handled credentialing for the Tennessee women's basketball program from 2012-15.

During the 2014 and 2015 NCAA Women's Basketball Championships, Eggert was appointed as the media coordinator for the Knoxville Regionals held at Thompson-Boling Arena.

Eggert, 33, was a graduate assistant in UT's athletic communications office in 2011-12 prior to her hiring as a full-time staff member in July 2012.

She received her bachelor's degree in Sport Management from Tennessee in 2011, and also earned a master's degree in Sport Management in 2013.

Her tenure in the UT athletic department dates to her undergraduate career, during which she worked in both the men's and women's media relations offices.

She also served as president of Tennessee's Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

The former Mary-Carter Kniffen married Chris Eggert of Knoxville, Tennessee, in May of 2017. They reside in Knoxville with their dog, Maggie.

2010-14	Texas	Special Assistant/Video Coordinator
2014-18	Appalachian State	Assistant Coach
2018-	Tennessee	Director of Player Development

Director of Player Development Bryan Lentz joined Rick Barnes' Tennessee basketball staff in May of 2018, and the 2023-24 season will be his sixth on Rocky Top.

Lentz had prior history working alongside Barnes for four years in Austin, Texas.

"I've known Bryan for a long time," Barnes said. "He was with us at Texas, and he did an outstanding job. Then he took an opportunity at Appalachian State and was great there as well. When this position opened up, I immediately knew Bryan would be an ideal fit."

With Lentz on staff, Tennessee owns a 118-48 (.711) record, has produced seven NBA Draft picks and captured the 2022 SEC Tournament championship. The Vols also have made five consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances and two runs to the Sweet Sixteen.

Lentz came to Tennessee following four seasons as an assistant coach at Appalachian State. Prior to that, the Hickory, North Carolina, native spent four years as a special assistant on Barnes' staff at Texas, where he was involved in all aspects of internal operations within the Longhorns program. During his time at Texas, the Longhorns compiled an 87-48 record and made three NCAA Tournament appearances (2011, 2012, 2014).

Lentz began his coaching career working for nine years alongside his father, legendary Lenoir-Rhyne head coach John Lentz. During that stretch, the Bears won five South Atlantic Conference regular-season titles, one SAC Tournament title and made to five NCAA Division II Tournament appearances. In his final two seasons at L-R, Bryan served as the Bears' associate head coach.

A four-year letterwinner at Lenoir-Rhyne—which is also Barnes' alma mater—Lentz finished his collegiate playing career with 1,374 points and ranked fifth in school history in assists (388), steals (159) and free-throw percentage (.824). He was named South Atlantic Conference Freshman of the Year in 1996-97 and earned second-team All-SAC honors as a sophomore in 1997-98.

Lentz earned his bachelor's degree in sports management from Lenoir-Rhyne in 2000. He and his wife, Christy, have two sons, Luke and Owen.

DR. DONDE PLOWMAN

UT KNOXVILLE CHANCELLOR

Fifth Year as Chancellor at Tennessee
Southern Methodist University, 1974

Donde Plowman has served since 2019 as chancellor of the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, the state's flagship land-grant research university. The campus includes the UT Institute for Agriculture and the UT Space Institute.

Plowman oversees a campus budget of $1.3 billion as well as 31,701 students, 1,626 faculty members and 5,732 staff members. The campus includes 11 colleges offering more than 900 degree programs and a physical plant consisting of 910 acres and 294 buildings.

Plowman is recognized as a transformational leader in higher education and is known for building effective high-energy teams that deliver meaningful results. Before returning to UT as chancellor, she held leadership roles at UT and at the University of Nebraska–Lincoln, guiding the development of innovative programs that expanded enrollment, budget, reputation, and philanthropy. She is recognized for building collaborative cultures that drive strategic change and outstanding performance.

The COVID-19 pandemic hit just seven months after Plowman became chancellor, and her focus shifted to leading the campus through a major disruption. UT opened for the return of students in fall 2020 and successfully delivered programs that kept students safe and on track for graduation. The campus was recognized by Campus Magazine as one of the top-10 universities in the country for its COVID-19 response, and Plowman was named among the Knoxville News Sentinel's Healthcare Heroes for leading through the pandemic with clear and innovative communication.

In her first two years as chancellor, she has led the university in increasing first-year enrollment by more than five percent each year—at a time when the national average is a decline of 16 percent—as well as the development of a new strategic vision, a new branding campaign, the launch of the UT–Oak Ridge Innovation Institute and a new partnership with Oak Ridge National Laboratory for growing research collaborations.

Her role as chancellor includes oversight of Tennessee Athletics, a $130 million operation where she has provided decisive and timely leadership. In 2020, she was selected by her peers in the Southeastern Conference to represent the SEC as a member of the NCAA Presidential Forum.

DR. MATT HARRIS

FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

11th Year at Tennessee
Virginia, 2000

Dr. Matt Harris is the Boyd Distinguished Associate Professor of Health Economics at Tennessee and the university's Faculty Athletics Representative (FAR) to the Southeastern Conference. He came to UT in 2013 and has served as co-FAR since 2020. The role of the FAR is to build bridges between faculty and athletics, supporting a campus environment in which intercollegiate athletics is a vital component of the educational program, and serving as ombudsperson for student-athletes.

Dr. Harris holds a dual appointment in the Department of Economics and the Boyd Center for Business and Economic Research in the Haslam College of Business. The Boyd Center a nonpartisan research hub within the Haslam College of Business. The center conducts research on national and state economic trends for UT, state agencies and public and private organizations. It also analyzes and disseminates data on the demography and economy of Tennessee in conjunction with the Tennessee State Data Center.

Dr. Harris' academic research focuses primarily on health and labor economics, with a particular interest in the effects of the opioid epidemic on labor market and family outcomes. He is a co-editor of the Southern Economic Journal and on the editorial board at Health Economics.

In his work with the Boyd Center, Harris produces the population forecast for the State of Tennessee and conducts research on programs for workforce development, emerging trends in Tennessee's labor market, the economics of public health insurance, long term care options for older Tennesseans and economic impact of child maltreatment in Tennessee.

Harris is the Michael Stahl PEMBA Faculty Research Fellow. He teaches in both the Physicians Executive MBA program and the EMBA for Healthcare Leadership and has served on the UT Faculty Senate since 2018. Harris has also taught economics classes to executive education students internationally in Shanghai and Nur-Sultan, Kazakhstan.

Matt and his wife, Katherine, have three children: Michael, Christopher, and Virginia.

DR. DANNY WHITE

VICE CHANCELLOR/DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Fourth Year at Tennessee
Notre Dame, 2002

Danny White's innovative and forward-thinking approach to the rapidly evolving landscape of intercollegiate athletics primed University of Tennessee Chancellor Donde Plowman to name him Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics on Jan. 21, 2021.

Boasting a literal lifetime of experience in the industry, White, 43, oversaw a period of unprecedented competitive, academic and service excellence at the University of Central Florida from 2015-21. Prior to that, White served as the AD at Buffalo from 2012-15.

"Danny White is an innovative leader in college athletics with a strong track record in recruiting and developing leaders," Plowman said. "He brings the combination of winning attitude, competitive drive and dedication to integrity and academics that we are looking for."

White's departmental successes have earned him numerous awards—a Sports Business Journal 40 Under 40 honoree in multiple years, a spot on the Orlando Business Journal 40 Under 40 list, multiple selections as one of the 50 Most Powerful People in Orlando by Orlando Magazine and he was a finalist for the 2018 and 2023 SBJ Athletics Director of the Year award.

A native of New Orleans, Louisiana, White was named a NACDA Athletics Director of the Year in the spring of 2019. In 2018, SBJ named him one of the six most influential people in sports business, while Orlando Magazine tabbed him as the area's most powerful person in sports. In 2020, Stadium rated White No. 4 nationally on its list of athletics directors based on the combined success of his coaching hires in football and men's basketball.

IMMEDIATE IMPACT AT TENNESSEE

"Danny's leadership, vision and record of sustained achievement will no doubt effectively guide the future of the University of Tennessee athletics program," Southeastern Conference Commissioner Greg Sankey said when White was hired at Tennessee.

Six days after he was named AD at Tennessee, White announced the hiring of Josh Heupel as the Volunteers' 27th head football coach. Heupel had spent the previous three years working alongside White as head coach at UCF, where he compiled an impressive 28-8 (20-5 AAC) record.

In just his second year leading the Tennessee football program, Heupel guided the Volunteers to an 8-0 start, 11 total wins and an NY6 triumph over Clemson at the Capital One Orange Bowl. Heupel's record-setting offense propelled Tennessee to No. 1 status in the first edition of the 2023 CFP rankings, and it yielded a Biletnikoff Award winner (receiver Jalin Hyatt) as well as a fifth-place finisher in the Heisman Trophy race (quarterback Hendon Hooker).

The Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame in the summer of 2023 recognized Plowman, White and Heupel collectively as "Tennesseans of the Year."

The football program's emphatic resurgence in 2022 ignited a wick of team success that wove through Tennessee's entire athletic department, as a dozen other UT teams followed suit with national top-16 finishes during 2022-23. That comprehensive success led to the Big Orange earning their second consecutive SEC All-Sports Trophy while becoming only the second school ever to sweep both the men's and women's all-sports standings.

Equally as impressive, Tennessee followed up a 13th-place finish in the 2021-22 LEARFIELD Directors' Cup standings with an all-time best finish of No. 6 in the 2022-23 Directors' Cup race.

After the baseball program swept the SEC regular-season and tournament titles in 2021, softball did the same in 2023. UT also became the only school to win a New Year's Six bowl game, advance both its men's and women's basketball teams to the Sweet Sixteen and send both its softball and baseball teams to the College World Series in the same academic year.

Tennessee is the only school ever to have hosted ESPN College GameDay for football, men's basketball and women's basketball all-time—and it hosted all three versions of the show in the same athletic year in 2022-23. Similarly, Tennessee also made history in 2023 as the only school ever to have both a softball and women's basketball game aired on ABC in the same year.

White's winning culture has extended proportionately across genders, as Tennessee has captured four men's and four women's SEC team championships during White's AD tenure. Vols have claimed 20 individual/relay SEC titles during that span, with Lady Vols racking up 15.

Tennessee student-athletes also have brought home five individual/relay NCAA titles under White's watch.

Academically, the Spring 2023 semester saw Tennessee's more than 550 student-athletes achieve a cumulative grade-point average of 3.38—its highest ever recorded. For the first time ever, all 16 sport programs earned a team GPA of at least 3.0.

And after a school-record 10 Vols and Lady Vols earned Academic All-America acclaim in 2021-22, Tennessee produced an incredible 15 Academic All-America honorees in 2022-23.

In addition to football, White has led national searches and made head coaching hires for Tennessee women's golf (Diana Cantú), soccer (Joe Kirt), track & field (Duane Ross), cross country/distance (Sean Carlson) and rowing (Kim Cupini).

RISING TO THE AD CHAIR

White earned a reputation as one of the nation's most talented, young athletic directors while serving in that role at Buffalo from May 2012 through December 2015. It was there, as a first-time AD, that he began crafting a strong record of success in competition and in the classroom.

A former college basketball student-athlete at Towson and Notre Dame, White quickly ascended in the ranks of college athletics leadership. Prior to his first athletics director opportunity at Buffalo, he was senior associate athletics director at Ole Miss from 2009-12. He previously served two years as associate athletics director for development at Fresno State (2007-09) and one as assistant athletics director for development at Northern Illinois (2006-07).

Before pivoting to athletics administration, White spent year as the director of basketball operations and another year as an assistant coach with the Ohio University men's basketball program.

White graduated from Notre Dame in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He earned master's degrees in both business administration and sports administration from Ohio University and completed a doctorate degree in higher education from Ole Miss in 2016.

Danny and his wife, Shawn, have four children: Aidan, Molly, Caitlin and James.

• The Volunteers made it happen on both ends of the floor and Tyreke Key shined in his Rocky Top debut, leading the team in scoring with 17 points and shooting 4-of-8 from beyond the arc.
• UT chucked up the second-most 3-point tries in program history, attempting 44 on the night. Fourteen of those shots found the net after the Vols had 13 games with double-digit made 3-pointers a year ago.
• The lockdown defense was a team effort, as the Vols logged 17 steals in the game, tying a Barnes-era high. Nine different Vols had a steal in the game, and the staunch defense was led by Key, Santiago Vescovi and Jahmai Mashack, who each recorded three. For Mashack, it set a new career high.

• Tennessee limited Florida Gulf Coast to 14-of-46 shooting (30.4 percent).
• FGCU entered the game off a program-record 17 made 3-pointers on three days prior against NAIA Ave Maria, but the Volunteers defense refused to let the Eagles beat them from deep. The Eagles made just 5-of-24 shots from beyond the arc (20.8 percent).
• Tennessee held the Eagles to just 20 points in the first half, the fourth time in the last two seasons a Vols' opponent has had 20 points or fewer in a first half. The Vols led 37-20 at the break.
• The Vols finished with four players in double-digit scoring. Complementing James and Nkamhoua's nights were freshman Julian Phillips, who sank 9-of-12 free throws, and Jahmai Mashack, who posted a career-high 10 points on 4-of-7 shooting while draining a pair of free tosses.

• With Tennessee trailing 62-60 with just over a minute to play in regulation, Julian Phillips (game-high 25 points) found Olivier Nkamhoua on the block for a contested layup that tied the game.
• On the subsequent possession, the Vols forced a missed USC 3-pointer and Phillips gathered the rebound with 34 seconds remaining. Tennessee had a shot to win the game in the closing seconds, but Santiago Vescovi's 3-point attempt was off the mark.
• Tennessee and USC played back and forth for the first three minutes of the overtime period, as Trojan guard Boogie Ellis' baseline jumper knotted the score at 66 with 2:09 remaining in OT.
• On the ensuing trip down the court, Vescovi drained a 3-pointer from the wing as the shot clock wound down to give the Vols a 69-66 lead.
• From there, Tennessee forced three straight USC turnovers and Zakai Zeigler was 4-for-4 at the line to seal the win.
• Ellis finished with 21 points to lead the Trojans, who committed 20 turnovers in the game. The Vols converted those miscues into 25 points.

• Defense highlighted the game for the Big Orange, while the offensive side of the floor showcased balance and the ability to capitalize on opportunities. The Vols forced McNeese into 24 turnovers on the night, 10 coming by way of the steal, and also swatted away 10 shots. Then, on the other end of the floor, UT outscored the Cowboys 30-4 in points-off-turnovers.

• Four different Vols scored in double-figures, and an unselfish offensive attack saw Tennessee record an assist on 21-of-23 made baskets in the game, with the two non-assisted buckets being put-backs.

• Tennessee turned up the heat after halftime. The Vols opened the second half on a 10-0 run and steadily increased that margin, topping out at a 37-point lead.

• The Volunteers outscored Alcorn State, 50-16, in the paint on the evening, throwing down a season-high seven dunks and almost doubling the Braves in rebounds, 44-23. That domination down low led to a 54-point margin of victory, tying for the eighth-best in program history.

• The Vols opened the second half on a 14-2 run and added to its advantage the entire half. Tennessee utterly dominated in the paint in the final 20 minutes, outscoring Alcorn, 26-4, down low.

• For the first time since March 7, 2015, Tennessee wore orange uniforms at home, as Alcorn's dark (road) uniforms were unavailable.

• The Vols dominated in the second half and owned the glass throughout the game, out-rebounding EKU, 56-40, marking Tennessee's highest rebound total of the Barnes era and UT's highest tally since Nov. 8, 2008, when it logged 58 against UT Martin. Most impressively, 20 came on the offensive side, which the Big Orange turned into 25 second-chance points.

• In the first half, Tennessee crashed the glass on both ends, but specifically the offensive side. The Vols keyed in on their height advantage to pull down 13 offensive boards and turned that into 14 second-chance points, compared to EKU's one. Each of UT's eight players to take the floor scored in the period, led by Phillips, who contributed eight points in the half. Tennessee led 32-21 at the break.

• The Volunteers fell behind by as many as 10 points in the first half and trailed for nearly 22 minutes of game time but were able to secure their first true road win of the season and begin conference play in the win column.
• It marked the second straight season in which Tennessee has erased a double-figure deficit to come from behind and defeat the Rebels. Last season in Knoxville, the Vols came back from down 12 to defeat Ole Miss in overtime, 66-60.
• After the Vols trailed by six points at halftime and had played from behind for almost the entirety of the first half, Tennessee's defense put on the clamps coming out of the break—forcing Ole Miss to misfire on seven of its first eight field goal attempts of the period.
• As a team, Ole Miss shot just 28 percent in the second half, compared to 46 percent in the first half.

- UK capitalized on strong rebounding, besting the Vols, 43-23, on the boards. Despite being out-rebounded, Tennessee found its offensive stride in the paint, doubling up the Wildcats, 36-18, in that category.
- Tennessee senior Uros Plavsic answered the bell in the post, dropping a career-high 19 points on 9-of-11 shooting. He did so largely battling Kentucky big Oscar Tshiebwe, a physical matchup on both ends of the floor that lasted the duration of the game.
- During a halftime ceremony, Tennessee legend Chris Lofton (2004-08) became the fifth Vol ever to have his jersey retired.

- The loss snapped Tennessee's 11-game win streak in the series, which was tied for the longest in the history of the matchup.
- With Vanderbilt trailing by two points with 4.8 seconds remaining, the Commodores inbounded the ball near midcourt. Ezra Manjon drove toward the basket and kicked out to an open Tyrin Lawrence in the corner, who hit a 3-pointer as time expired to give Vanderbilt the one-point win.
- Vanderbilt was 10-for-25 (.400) from 3-point range in the victory—the most made threes and highest 3-point percentage by a Tennessee opponent to that point in the season.

• For the second time in four days, a buzzer-beating 3-pointer defeated sixth-ranked Tennessee, as Missouri edged the Vols, 86-85.
• Tennessee trailed by 17 points, 49-32, at the 17:09 mark in the second half but rallied to take a six-point lead, 74-68, with just under five minutes left to play.
• After a two-shot trip to the foul line with a chance to extend a two-point lead came up empty for the Vols, Missouri's DeAndre Gholston chucked up a 3-point shot from just inside the halfcourt line that found the bottom of the net with 0.0 remaining on the clock, giving the Tigers a one-point victory.
• Tennessee graduate student Tyreke Key scored 21 of his season-high 23 points in the second half.
• Vols sophomore point guard Zakai Zeigler finished with 11 points and 10 assists for his fourth points/assists double-double of the season.
• The victory marked Tennessee's second top-five win of the year after defeating No. 3 Kansas at the Battle 4 Atlantis in November. The win also gave UT victories in each of its last five games against opponents ranked in the AP top five.
• Jonas Aidoo logged his first career-double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds.
• In addition to being held to a season-low point total, Alabama finished with additional season-low marks in field goals made (17) and attempted (48), points off turnovers (2) and second-chance points (4, tied).

• Senior guard Santiago Vescovi made five 3-pointers en route to a team-high 21 points.
• After a closely-contested first half, Tennessee quickly created some distance early in the second half—pulling in front by 11, 44-33, less than one minute into the period after five points from Josiah-Jordan James to start the half. Including his buzzer-beating 3-pointer to end the first half, James rattled off an 8-0 run by himself to seize control of the game for Tennessee.
• After its hot start from beyond the arc in which it made five of its first seven 3-pointers, Ole Miss made just two of its final 13 attempts from beyond the arc.
• Tennessee improved to a perfect 4-0 in 2022-23when wearing its new "Tennessee Classic" off-white uniform.
• James finished with game-high honors for both scoring (20) and rebounding (7).

• With the win, Tennessee advanced to the NCAA Tournament's Sweet Sixteen for the ninth time in program history and the first time since 2019.
• Olivier Nkamhoua's career-high-tying 27 points—23 of which came in the second half—tied his career-high set on Jan. 28 against Texas and came on 10-of-13 shooting from the field, including 3-of-4 from 3-point range. From the 8:43 mark to the 4:16 mark of the second half, Nkamhoua scored 13 straight points for the Vols. In total, he scored 17 of Tennessee's final 19 points.
• Tennessee's smothering defensive performance was evident on the scoreboard, as Duke's 52 points were not only a season low for the Blue Devils, but tied for the fewest in an NCAA Tournament game in the program's storied history. The Vols forced Duke to commit 15 turnovers.
• Tennessee's defensive intensity also set the tone for the entirety of the first half, as the Vols took a 27-21 lead into the halftime break. Duke's 21 first-half points were tied for its fewest in any half this season.

1-NIT Season Tip-Off
2-SEC/Big East Invitational

^-SEC Commissioner Mike Slive suspended head coach Bruce Pearl for the first eight SEC games of the 2010-11 season, so associate head coach Tony Jones served as "acting head coach" for those contests. The Vols went 5-3 during that span. However, those wins and losses were officially credited to Pearl's career record in the NCAA, SEC and UT records books (institutional decision made in advance of the affected games).

ALL-TIME LISTING IN THE AP POLL

The Associated Press began its basketball rankings on January 20, 1949, with a Top-20 poll. Starting in the 1961-62 season, the AP provided a preseason poll. From 1960-61 to 1967-68, the AP used a Top-10 poll. The AP rankings became a Top-20 poll again in 1968-69, before changing to its current Top-25 format in 1989-90. The AP also ran post-NCAA Tournament polls in 1953, 1954, 1974 and 1975.

ALTERNATE UNIFORM HISTORY

Dating to 1979-80, Tennessee has traditionally worn white jerseys at home and orange jerseys on the road. In the late 1970s, the SEC played a Saturday-Monday conference schedule during which half the league's teams hosted two games and the other half traveled. Tennessee during that period commonly wore white for one of those games and orange for the other, meaning that each jersey color was worn both at home and on the road.

For portions of the program's first 40 seasons, black and grey were staples of the Tennessee basketball program's uniform color palette.

Below is a listing of the program's alternate uniform history.

■ TENNESSEE'S RETIRED JERSEYS

Name	No.	Honored on
Dale Ellis	14	March 1, 2014
Chris Lofton	5	Jan. 14, 2022

The following are the criteria by which former student-athletes will be eligible for the honor of jersey retirement at the University of Tennessee:

· The student-athlete must have demonstrated outstanding character, integrity, and commitment to UT during his/her athletic career.
· Any student-athlete under consideration must have graduated or have left UT in good academic standing, which would have made them eligible to return and compete.
· Former student-athletes are eligible for this honor five years after exhausting their eligibility. If they left school early without exhausting their eligibility, they are eligible eight years after leaving UT.
· Extenuating circumstances may be considered by the committee, and modifications of the policy may be considered under such circumstances by mutual agreement of the Faculty Athletics Representative and the Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics.

A student-athlete will be eligible for consideration if they achieve three of the five criteria listed below:

· SEC Player of the Year
· National Award (Player of the Year, Wooden Award, or similar honor)
· First-Team All-American
· Career record holder in a significant category (as determined by the committee) at the UT, SEC, or national level upon completion of career
· National championship during tenure

There is a nominating committee that will determine when an individual will be honored with a retired jersey, and any member of the committee can bring a nomination. The composition of that committee includes the Faculty Athletics Representative, Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics, the sport administrator of the selected sport, the media relations contact for selected sport or the associate athletics director/communications (or designee), and the senior woman administrator.

1967 NCAA Mideast Region — Regional Semifinal

Tennessee (21-6) 52
Dayton (23-5) 53

March 17, 1967 • McGaw Hall • Evanston, Ill.

A cold-shooting first half was too much for Tennessee to overcome as the Volunteers fell, 53-52, to Dayton in their first NCAA Tournament appearance.

Tennessee trailed 36-25 at the break as Dayton hit 58 percent from the field compared to the Vols' 23 percent. Tennessee hit only seven buckets in 31 attempts. Tennessee fought back, though, and whittled the lead down to 50-48 with 8:01 left on the clock when both teams started holding the ball.

The Vols had possession of the ball and were looking for the perfect shot to tie the game, but Tom Boerwinkle was called for walking, and Dayton took over possession.

Tennessee regained possession when Billy Hann came up with a steal with 3:10 remaining. Bill Justus then knotted the score at 50 when he hit a jumper with just over two minutes left in the game.

Dayton then held the ball looking for a game winning shot. The Vols forced the issue with 24 seconds remaining and fouled Bobby Joe Hooper. Hooper was good on one of his free throw attempts giving the Vols a chance for the final shot and the win.

The man picked to take the shot was Ron Widby, who had hit the game-winning shot against Mississippi State in the Vols' regular season finale to clinch the SEC championship

But Widby's jumper from 20-feet was off the mark, and Dayton eventually regained possession. Two free throws later, the Flyers led 53-50. Widby hit an uncontested lay-up at the buzzer to finish the scoring.

"Somebody has to take the last shot," Widby said. "I never mind the pressure. I thought the ball was going in."

The Vols held All-America Don May, who came into the game averaging 22 points, to nine points on 2-of-10 shooting, but the guard duo of Hooper and Gene Klaus led the Flyers with 14 and 12, respectively. They shot a combined 11-of-14 from the field.

"We did a fine defensive job on May, but got beat by the outside shooting of their guards," UT head coach Ray Mears said. "They surprised us. We just didn't think they could shoot so well from long range."

Widby finished with a game-high 20 points to pace four Vols in double figures.

NOTES: Dayton advanced to the national championship game before falling 79-64 to UCLA ... The Vols won the SEC championship with a 15-3 record.

1967 NCAA Mideast Region — Regional Consolation

Indiana (18-8) 51

March 18, 1967 • McGaw Hall • Evanston, Ill.

Tennessee struggled from the field in a 51-44 defeat at the hands of Indiana in an NCAA Tournament regional consolation game.

The Vols stayed close throughout the game and had as much as a three-point lead in the second half, but eventually faltered down the stretch. Tennessee connected on 14-of-46 shots from the field for 30.7 percent. Indiana did not fair much better at 37.2 percent, but dominated the boards 43 to 27.

A short jumper from Ron Widby gave the Vols an 18-16 lead with just over five minutes left in the first half. Indiana then went into a stall in attempt to take the last shot of the half. They eventually got a bucket from Bill Joyner to tie the score. Tennessee failed to score on its next possession, and Vernon Payne gave the Hoosiers a 20-18 lead. Bill Justus hit a jumper at the halftime buzzer to pull the Vols even.

Justus hit two free throws in the opening minutes of the second half to give the Vols a 27-24 advantage, but Indiana outscored the Vols 21-11 to open up a 45-38 lead.

Justus and Widby hit back-to-back buckets for the Vols to cut the lead to three, but Russell and Jack Johnson hit two free throws each to put the game out of reach.

The game was physical from the start which did not suit the playing style of Tennessee.

"We played as hard as we could under the conditions," Tennessee coach Ray Mears said. "They are taking the finesse out of the game when they depend on brute strength. We were not real sharp, but there were a lot of bumps and bruises out there."

NOTES: Indiana coach Lou Watson signed a scholarship with Tennessee coach John Mauer in 1946, but eventually played at Indiana ... Widby was named to the All-Tournament Team ... Widby scored 619 points during the 1966-67 season which was the most ever by a Vol ... Widby surpassed the mark of 522 points set by Carl Widseth during the 1955-56 season ... Widby averaged 22.1 points per game, which was tops in the SEC ... Indiana was the Big Ten champion.

1976 NCAA East Region — First Round

Tennessee (21-6) 75
VMI (21-9) 81

March 13, 1976 • Charlotte Coliseum • Charlotte, N.C.

VMI placed five players in double figures and shot a sizzling 66 percent from the field to upset the Volunteers, 81-75, in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

The "Bernie" was missing from "The Ernie and Bernie Show" in this game, as Bernard King was out of action with an injured left thumb. Ernie Grunfeld held up his end of the show as he poured in 36 points and grabbed eight rebounds.

"I'm not embarrassed that we lost to VMI," Grunfeld said. "I'm never embarrassed if we try, and we tried hard. We just didn't get enough done. We can't let them shoot like that and expect to win."

Grunfeld scored 12 straight points for Tennessee to close the first half, and the Vols had as much as a six-point lead during that stretch.

The scored stood tied at 60 with 5:42 left in the game when the Keydets reeled off eight unanswered points. Tennessee had three shots blocked during that stretch, and Dave Montgomery scored six of the eight points for VMI. Two free throws from Austin Clarke pulled the Vols to within 70-67 with 2:08 remaining, but the Vols could get no closer.

Tennessee coach Ray Mears made a move at halftime in hopes to give the Vols an emotional lift as King dressed out.

"We let him dress out to see if it would give us a mental lift," Mears said. "I wasn't about to play him. We were not going to risk his future. Most of you don't realize how much he means to us. We were just hoping to get through this first game."

Will Bynum led the Keydets with 20 points, followed by 19 from Ron Carter. John Krovic added 17, Curt Reppart tossed in 11, and Montgomery finished with 10.

Mike Jackson was the only other Vol in double figures with 14 points.

NOTES: VMI lost 91-75 to Rutgers in the Regional Semifinals.

1977 NCAA Mideast Region — First Round

Tennessee (22-6) 88
Syracuse (26-3) OT 93

March 13, 1977 • Assembly Center • Baton Rouge, La.

Syracuse posted a 93-88 overtime victory to put an end to the famed "Ernie and Bernie Show" at Tennessee.

Things looked good early for Tennessee as the Vols raced out to a 20-10 lead against a pressing Syracuse defense. But the Orangemen regained their composure and eventually tied the score at 32 with just under five minutes left in the first half.

Tennessee held strong, though, and an Ernie Grunfeld jumper put the Vols up eight at 47-39 with 17:51 left in the second half. Syracuse then staged a 14-2 run over the next five minutes to take a 53-49 advantage.

Syracuse held a 78-74 lead with 1:31 left in the second half, but Reggie Johnson hit a short jumper and converted two free throws to tie the game. Larry Kelley's shot at the end of regulation could have won the game for the Orangemen, but it was off the mark.

A Ross Kindel steal and layup gave Syracuse an 86-80 lead with 2:03 left in overtime. Syracuse then hit 7-of-9 free throws in the final minute of overtime to seal the victory.

"We didn't score when we needed to score," Tennessee coach Ray Mears said. "The break worked well early then went dry. Our game is based on King, Grunfeld and Jackson playing 40 minutes each. Maybe that is a fallacy. If you live by that idea, you die by it."

It certainly hurt the Vols as Grunfeld, Bernard King and Mike Jackson all watched the end of the game from the bench. Not helping matters were the 26 turnovers the Vols committed.

Grunfeld led the Vols with 26 points and 12 rebounds, King tossed in 23 and also grabbed 12 rebounds. Reggie Johnson added 17 points and 10 boards.

"I hope what happened against Syracuse won't wash out the things we've done all year," King said. "It was a great year for me and the team."

NOTES: The 22 wins by the Vols set a school record at that time ... Tennessee won a share of the SEC championship along with Kentucky ... Syracuse was led by first-year head coach Jim Boeheim ... Syracuse lost 81-59 to UNC Charlotte in the Regional Semifinals to finish its season 26-4.

1979 NCAA Mideast Region — First Round

#9 Eastern Kentucky (21-8) 81
#8 Tennessee (21-11) 97

March 9, 1979 • Murphy Athletic Center • Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Tennessee turned an early 10-point deficit into a 44-38 halftime lead and eventually logged a 97-81 victory over the Colonels. This was Tennessee's first-ever win in the NCAA Tournament.

The Vols fell behind 15-5 in the first five minutes of the game before finally getting things on track. Gary Carter made three consecutive field goals to spark a Tennessee rally and pull the Vols within 16-13. Johnny Darden then hit a long jumper, and the Vols had the Colonel lead to one.

Eastern Kentucky regained its composure and had the lead back out to 30-26 with 4:44 left in the first half.

Terry Crosby then reeled off three consecutive buckets for the Vols, and Tennessee held a 32-30 advantage with just under four minutes left in the half.

"This game was won in the final eight minutes of the first half," Tennessee coach Don DeVoe said. "By getting the ball to Terry Crosby, we were able to turn it around. We played poorly in the first 10 minutes but our kids snapped out of it."

The game was still close five minutes into the second half, but Tennessee went on an 18-6 run to turn a 54-50 lead into a 72-56 advantage with 8:21 left in the game.

"We were too psyched up at the beginning," Reggie Johnson said. "That was a terrible start. We had to come down from our high before we could play."

Johnson led the Vols with 20 points and nine rebounds. Carter added 18 points with a game-high 11 rebounds. Crosby finished the game with 19 points.

James Tillman led Eastern Kentucky with 21 points. He was one of five Colonels in double figures as Dave Tierney netted 13, Bruce Jones had 12, and Vic Merchant and Kenney added 11 each.

NOTES: Eastern Kentucky was the Ohio Valley Conference champion.

1979 NCAA Mideast Region — Second Round

#1 Notre Dame (23-5) 73
#8 Tennessee (21-12) 67

March 11, 1979 • Murphy Athletic Center • Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Notre Dame outscored the Vols 14-4 to open the second half to turn a 32-32 halftime tie into a 46-36 lead. Tennessee got no closer than five points the rest of the game and fell, 73-67, to the Irish.

"It was one of our poorest games in terms of poise and concentration," Tennessee coach Don DeVoe said. "We hustled and worked the boards hard in the first half, but Notre Dame made us play as if we were scared in the first two minutes of the second half."

Notre Dame opened the second half with a full-court press, forcing four Tennessee turnovers in the first 2:05 of the half.

"We noted that Tennessee made 21 turnovers against Eastern Kentucky, so our staff decided to go right after them with the press," Notre Dame coach Digger Phelps said. "We played it loosely at the start then went to a closer press with a quick-trap. That forced some turnovers and gave us some breathing room."

Both Terry Crosby and Reggie Johnson had poor games shooting the ball for the Vols. They combined to hit 7-of-21 field goal attempts. Johnson also missed five of his 10 free-throw attempts.

"Neither Terry Crosby and Reggie Johnson had a good offensive game," DeVoe said. "When that happens, we have problems."

Johnson finished with 13 points, eight below his season average. Gary Carter led the Vols with 16 points. Chuck Threeths added 10 points and eight rebounds.

"I was taking normal shots, but there was a lid on the basket," Crosby said. "Almost any night we play, Reggie and I have to have good games offensively for us to win. Neither of us scored as we must to win."

NOTES: Tennessee had won nine consecutive games before losing to the Irish, including two games in the SEC Tournament on its way to the tournament title ... Notre Dame lost 80-68 to Michigan State in the Regional Finals ... 1979 was the first year tournament seeding was used.

#10 Furman (23-7) 69

#7 Tennessee (18-10) 80

March 6, 1980 • Greensboro Coliseum • Greensboro, N.C.

A change in the starting lineup proved fruitful for the Vols as they posted an 80-69 victory over the Palladins.

The Vols inserted Steve Ray and Chuck Threeths in the starting lineup for Dale Ellis and Kevin Nash, respectively. The change was made so the Vols could use their quickness against Furman's man-to-man defense. The strategy worked.

Tennessee was able to get the fastbreak going early with the lineup change and jumped out to a quick 8-2 lead. Furman rallied, though, with a 13-4 scoring spree to hold a 15-12 advantage with 13:08 remaining in the first half.

But two baskets by Howard Wood, a layup from Nash and two free throws from Reggie Johnson gave the Vols a 20-15 lead with just under 10 minutes left in the half. It was all Tennessee from there on out.

"The way we came out and clicked and got our open shots to drop made all the difference in the world," Nash said. "It gave us the feeling we weren't going to lose."

Adding to Furman's woes was a poor performance from the free-throw line. Furman's starters entered the game shooting better than 70 percent from the line. Furman hit only 17-of-32 free throws for 53 percent.

"We missed a potential 13 points at the line in the first half, and that was the difference in the game," Furman coach Eddie Holbrook said. "Almost everything that went wrong in this game goes back to the free throws. Once we got behind, we got out of what we wanted to do."

Tennessee held a 40-29 lead at the halftime break, and Furman trimmed it down to 49-41. But three straight baskets by Wood capped a 9-2 run that broke the game open. Tennessee led by as many as 21 points in the second half.

Wood was one of three Vols in double figures with 19 points. Reggie Johnson had a game-high 28 points along with 14 rebounds. Jonathan Moore led Furman with 22 points and 17 rebounds.

NOTES: Future Vol assistant coach Michael Hunt (1994-97) was on the Furman team ... Furman's berth in the NCAA Tournament came via its Southern Conference championship.

#7 Tennessee (18-11) 75

#2 Maryland (24-6) 86

March 8, 1980 • Greensboro Coliseum • Greensboro, N.C.

Foul trouble for Reggie Johnson spelled doom for Tennessee, as Maryland posted an 86-75 victory over Tennessee.

"When you have a team that relies on one man to score and he gets in foul trouble, your team is in serious trouble," Tennessee coach Don DeVoe said. "When Reggie doesn't play, you don't win."

Tennessee was rolling in the first half, and Johnson was nearly unstoppable. He scored 17 points in the game's first 14 minutes to help Tennessee to a 29-18 lead. Johnson picked up his second foul of the game with just under three minutes left in the first half, but Tennessee still held a 40-32 advantage at the break.

Johnson scored two buckets in the opening minutes of the second half, and the Vols led 46-39 with 16:23 left in the game. Then, in a matter of 10 seconds, Johnson got whistled for his third and fourth fouls and went to the bench with 15:06 left in the game. He didn't score again.

"I guarantee we got the short end of the officiating in the second half," DeVoe said. "You don't win in the tournament play when you get the short end. The two fouls on Johnson were the turning point."

Greg Manning pulled the Terrapins even at 50 with a rebound basket at the 13:26 mark in the second half. Maryland eventually pulled out to a 70-62 lead, but the Vols rallied back and pulled within 78-75 on a short jumper from Howard Wood with 45 seconds remaining. Manning then had back-to-back three-point plays for Maryland to squelch any Vol hopes for a victory.

Gary Carter also had 21 points for the Vols along with eight rebounds. Bert Bertelkamp dished out a career-high 16 assists against only two turnovers in 39 minutes of action.

Manning led Maryland with 28 points to pace four Terrapins in double figures. Albert King added 20, Buck Williams 19 and Ernest Graham 14. Maryland also shot a hot 63.2 percent from the field compared to 47 percent for Tennessee.

NOTES: Maryland's Albert King is the brother of former Vol All-America Bernard King ... Maryland lost in the Regional Semifinals 74-68 to Georgetown.

1981 NCAA East Region — Second Round

#5 VCU (24-5) 56

#4 Tennessee (21-7) OT 58

March 15, 1981 • Charlotte Coliseum • Charlotte, N.C.

Dale Ellis drilled a 15-foot jumper at the buzzer to lift Tennessee to a 58-56 overtime victory over Virginia Commonwealth.

"I just stood there after I shot that ball," Ellis said. "That was the greatest feeling to make that shot."

Ellis' shot was the only shot taken in the five-minute extra period. Virginia Commonwealth got the opening tip in overtime and stalled away the first half of the period. The Rams lost their chance at attempting a shot when Steve Ray forced Danny Kottak out-of-bounds.

Tennessee then held the ball the second half of overtime and called a timeout with 19 seconds remaining. Michael Brooks passed the ball over to Ellis with five seconds left, and the sophomore from Marietta, Ga., hit the game-winner. Ellis was not the Vols' first option to take the shot, though.

"The ball was supposed to come to me, and I was supposed to pass it to Howard (Wood) in the corner," Ellis said. "It was Howard that kept us in the game, and it's usually (him) who takes the final shot."

The play was the same play the Vols ran at the end of regulation in attempt to make the game-winner. But Ellis threw an ill-advised pass to Steve Ray, and the Vols lost their opportunity to win at the end of regulation.

Tennessee coach Don DeVoe told Ellis to go with the shot if the opportunity arose again. It did, and Ellis made good.

"I don't think there's been a bigger shot in Tennessee basketball in a long time than the one Dale Ellis made," DeVoe said. "We were able to make the play at the end because they gave us the opportunity by making a turnover."

Overtime initially looked unlikely, as Tennessee built a 14-point first-half lead and led 38-25 at the start of the second half on a dunk by Ellis. The Rams erased the last two points of the deficit with a bucket from Kottak with 2:24 left in regulation to put the score at 56-56, which eventually forced the overtime.

Ellis finished with 22 points, and Wood scored 18. Greg McRay led the Rams with 23 points on 10-of-14 shooting.

NOTES: Tennessee received a first-round bye ... Tennessee's victory ended Virginia Commonwealth's 16-game winning streak, which was the longest in the nation.

1981 NCAA East Region — Regional Semifinal

#4 Tennessee (21-8) 48

#1 Virginia (27-3) 62

March 19, 1981 • Charlotte Coliseum • Charlotte, N.C.

Virginia outscored Tennessee 27-4 over a 12-minute span in the second half en route to a 62-48 regional semifinal victory.

Tennessee stayed close in the first half but could never take the lead against the Ralph Sampson-led Cavaliers. The Cavaliers shot 61.5 percent from the field during the first 20 minutes, but could only manage a 27-26 lead at the break.

The Vols got things rolling early in the second half. Virginia made the first bucket of the half with a putback by Jeff Lamp. The Vols then outscored Virginia 10-2 over the next six minutes to take a 36-31 lead.

Lamp then scored six of the game's next eight points, with the other two coming from a jumper by Virginia's Othell Wilson. The Cavaliers led 39-36 with 11:14 left in the game and never looked back.

"We knew Lamp was their money player, but we didn't realize it on the floor today," Tennessee guard Michael Brooks said. "They had a great player who took control, made the great plays and got back and played defense. If he hadn't taken control at that point, they wouldn't have won."

Lamp scored a game-high 18 points. Jeff Jones and Lee Raker added 10 apiece for Virginia. Tennessee did slow down the All-America Sampson by holding him to a season-low nine points and five rebounds. He had only one point and one rebound in the second half.

The sagging defense to stop Sampson may have proved costly for the Vols. Sampson hit on only 4-of-13 shots, but the rest of the Cavaliers combined to hit 20-of-30 for 66.6 percent.

"You may take Ralph out of the offense, but you leave yourself vulnerable somewhere else," Virginia forward Terry Gates said. "Raker and Lamp have thrived off that."

NOTES: Virginia advanced to the Final Four before losing to North Carolina 78-65.

1982 NCAA East Region — First Round

#9 Tennessee (20-9) 61
#8 Southwestern Louisiana (24-8) 57

March 12, 1982 • Market Square Arena • Indianapolis, Ind.

Michael Brooks hit six free throws for Tennessee in the game's final minute to secure a 61-57 victory over Southwestern Louisiana.

"We did some things right that assured the win," Tennessee coach Don DeVoe said. "The key was having the lead going into the final five minutes. We had our best foul shooters in the game, and we kept the ball in the best man's hands."

The Vols trailed 35-33 with 16:58 to play. Back-to-back buckets by Tyrone Beaman gave the Vols a 37-35 advantage, but a lay-up from Dion Brown for the Ragin' Cajuns tied the game at 37.

The Vols then outscored Southwestern Louisiana 14-6 over the game's next nine minutes to hold a 51-43 lead with 6:39 left to play. Two free throws from Dan Gay and a lay-up each from Alford Turner and Johnny Collins off of Vol turnovers cut the margin to 51-49.

Two free throws and a jumper from Dale Ellis opened the margin back up to 55-49 with just under four minutes to go.

"We got the ball to Dale Ellis in the second half," DeVoe said. "Those two turnovers were the turning point that allowed Southwestern Louisiana to come back. They got themselves back in the game because of their ability to persevere."

Ellis finished with a game-high 23 points, and Brooks finished with 16. Turner had 14 points to lead Southwestern Louisiana.

"We expected Ellis to be outstanding, and he certainly was," Southwestern Louisiana coach Bobby Paschal said. "We knew if they had the lead as the clock ran down, it would be difficult. They are an excellent free-throw shooting team. Near the end, we knew it was a calculated risk to foul, but there was no other way."

NOTES: Dale Ellis was named the SEC's Player of the Year, and Don DeVoe was named the league's Coach of the Year following the 1982 season.

1982 NCAA East Region — Second Round

#9 Tennessee (20-10) 51
#1 Virginia (30-3) 54

March 14, 1982 • Market Square Arena • Indianapolis, Ind.

Tennessee missed 4-of-5 free throws in the final 3:12, and Virginia's Ricky Stokes hit two with 15 seconds remaining to lift Virginia to a 54-51 victory in a rematch of a 1981 NCAA Tournament game.

Tennessee had made 10 consecutive free throws during the second half, but those shots didn't fall during crunch time. Tyrone Beaman missed the front end of a one-and-one and then missed the back end of a one-and-one. Michael Brooks, who hit six straight in the final minute of the first-round Vol victory two days prior, then missed the front end of a one-and-one. Dan Federmann followed that with a miss.

"When it got down to it, we choked at the foul line," Tennessee coach Don DeVoe said. "We just did not do what it takes internally to win. Stokes just did what we could not do."

The one free throw the Vols did make in the game's closing minutes gave them a 51-47 lead, but Ralph Sampson hit back-to-back buckets to pull the Cavaliers even at 51. Tennessee had a chance to regain the lead, but Federmann missed the front end of his one-and-one. Stokes then made his two to give Virginia a 53-51 lead.

"We had the game under control," Tennessee forward Dale Ellis said. "All we had to do was hit the free throws. That has been a problem."

Tennessee had a chance to tie the game at 53, but the play never developed, and a long jumper by Brooks was off the mark. Jones then hit a free throw for the final margin of victory.

"We had the right person taking the shot," DeVoe said. "Michael was a little anxious. I didn't think the shot was that poor, but we never got into our play."

The Vols got off to a fast start and opened up a 10-point lead at 24-14 in the first half behind 14 points from Brooks. Jones finished the first half by scoring five points in the final 21 seconds to pull Virginia to within 32-25 at the break.

Virginia continued to rally in the second half, as Jones and Sampson sparked a 15-2 rally to give the Cavaliers a 43-40 lead with 10:41 to go.

Brooks then scored eight straight points for Tennessee to give the Vols a 48-45 lead with 6:11 left in the game.

NOTES: Virginia was upset by UAB 68-66 in the regional semifinals.

1983 NCAA Mideast Region — First Round

#9 Marquette (19-11) 56
#8 Tennessee (20-11) 57

March 18, 1982 • Roberts Municipal Stadium • Evansville, Ind.

Michael Brooks hit two free throws with five seconds left in the game to secure a 57-56 NCAA Tournament victory over Marquette.

Brooks only had 11 points in the game, but four came via the charity stripe in the game's final 61 seconds. Brooks' two free throws with 1:01 remaining gave the Vols a 55-53 lead. Dale Ellis and Jerald Hyatt had just missed opportunities at the foul line before Brooks gave the Vols their two-point lead.

Kevin Woods then came up with a steal on Marquette's ensuing possession and was fouled. He came up empty on the front end of a one-and-one. Doc Rivers countered by making one of his two free attempts on the next possession to cut the UT lead to 55-54 with 20 seconds left.

Brooks then brought the ball up court and was tied up in front of the Tennessee bench. It looked as though Brooks was going to be called for a five-second violation, but instead was fouled by Rivers. Brooks then sank the two free throws. Marquette's Kerry Trotter hit a lay-up at the buzzer to provide the final score.

"I wanted the ball," Brooks said. "I knew they would have to foul me because time was running out. I felt I could ice the game."

Brooks' free throws were his most obvious contribution to the Vol victory, but he also turned in a stellar performance on the defensive end. He held Rivers to 10 points and ran the Volunteer offense for 40 minutes. Rivers only hit 4-of-13 shots as Brooks guarded him most of the game.

"Michael sank those two free throws, but defense won this game," Tennessee guard Tyrone Beaman said. "He played probably his best defensive game. He came through for us in the clutch."

Tennessee trailed 43-38 with 11:38 remaining in the game, but a three-point play by Willie Burton, a bucket from Dale Ellis and two more free throws by Burton gave the Vols a 45-43 lead with 9:15 left. Tennessee then hit 10-of-15 free-throw attempts the rest of way including the two from Brooks. The only field goal the Vols scored in the last 10 minutes was a long jumper from Brooks.

NOTES: The victory over Marquette was the 100th for Don DeVoe at Tennessee ... Tennessee was only one of six teams to appear in the past five NCAA Tournaments, with the other teams being Arkansas, Georgetown, Iowa, Louisville and North Carolina.

1983 NCAA Mideast Region — Second Round

#8 Tennessee (20-12) 57
#1 Louisville (30-3) 70

March 20, 1982 • Roberts Municipal Stadium • Evansville, Ind.

Louisville used an 11-2 run midway through the second half to halt a Tennessee rally and post a 70-57 victory over the Vols.

The Cardinals used their pressure defense in the first half to force 10 Tennessee turnovers, which enabled Louisville to open up a 34-27 halftime lead. A 15-foot jumper from Lancaster Gordon and a layup from Charles Jones pushed the lead to 42-30 with 15:26 left in the game.

The Vols then mounted a rally. Two buckets apiece from Dale Ellis and Willie Burton keyed a 13-3 scoring run for the Vols as they pulled to within 45-43 with 10:26 on the clock.

Louisville then called timeout to regroup. The Cardinals responded with an 11-2 rally to open the lead back out to 56-45 with just under six minutes left in the game. Tennessee could get no closer than eight points the rest of the way.

"We had worked so hard to get that close," Tennessee point guard Tyrone Beaman said. "They get a couple of quick, easy baskets and it took a little bit out of everybody."

Ellis was held to 13 points, nine below his season average, on 6-of-13 shooting. Louisville's man-to-man defense made him work hard to get the ball, and the Cardinals' fast-break offense continually put pressure on the Vols to get back on defense.

"This is as tired as I've ever been on the court all year," Ellis said. "This is one of the worst shooting games ever. I missed a lot of easy shots."

Michael Brooks led the Vols with 18 points, and Beaman added 10. Louisville was led by Milt Wagner's 15 points and Scooter McRay's 10.

NOTES: The Mideast Regional Semifinals were held at Stokely Athletic Center ... Louisville advanced to the Final Four before losing 94-81 to Houston ... Ellis finished his career as the third all-time leading scorer at Tennessee behind Ernie Grunfeld and Reggie Johnson.

1989 NCAA East Region — First Round

#10 Tennessee (19-11) 68
#7 West Virginia (26-4) 84

March 16, 1989 • Greensboro Coliseum • Greensboro, N.C.

Tennessee fell behind by 10 points less than five minutes into the game and never recovered as West Virginia cruised to an 84-68 victory.

It was the Vols' first NCAA Tournament appearance in six years, but the Mountaineers made UT's visit a short one. West Virginia scored on its first nine possessions, and its defense frustrated the Vols throughout the game.

"West Virginia got the upper hand about as quickly as you can in an NCAA Tournament game," Tennessee coach Don DeVoe said. "It was obviously a game where we didn't do many things right. West Virginia did a lot of things right, and the scoreboard bore that out."

Tennessee shot 29 percent from the floor in the first half and fell behind as many as 15 points. The Vols battled back to go into the break trailing 35-23, but the opening minutes of the second half once again put the Vols in a deep hole.

The Mountaineers scored the first six points of the second half, which keyed a 12-4 run that opened the lead to 47-27 with 16:51 left in the game. Tennessee got back to within 57-45 on a 3-pointer from Doug Roth, but West Virginia answered with two buckets. Tennessee never got closer than 12 points the rest of the game.

West Virginia shot a blistering 77 percent from the field in the second half on 17-of-22 shooting and finished the game at 62 percent. Tennessee finished the game shooting 38 percent from the field.

"It looked like to me the guys were playing a little tight at both ends of the floor," DeVoe said. "I know it's the NCAA (Tournament), but that's when you should bring your game up to another level."

Dyron Nix led the Vols with 22 points, and West Virginia native Greg Bell added 14. Starting guard Clarence Swearengen, who was averaging 12 points a game, played only 14 minutes and did not score.

NOTES: Tennessee had won five consecutive first round NCAA Tournament games before losing to West Virginia ... West Virginia lost to Duke 70-63 in the second round.

1998 NCAA West Region — First Round

#9 Illinois State (25-5) OT 82
#8 Tennessee (20-9) 81

March 12, 1998 • Arco Arena • Sacramento, Calif.

The Vols had taken an 81-80 lead on C.J. Black's layup off a pass from Tony Harris with 15.4 seconds left before the game-winning bucket by Muller.

The Vols struggled in the second half with foul trouble and poor shooting. They finished the game shooting 36.7 percent from the field and had nearly a five-minute stretch in the second half without scoring. A free throw by Harris at the 7:13 mark finally broke the scoring drought, but the Vols found themselves down 66-58.

The Vols battled back to tie the score at 70 on Black's rebound and basket with 2:53 left. Tennessee took a 72-70 lead on Black's slam dunk off a pass from Brandon Wharton, but Illinois State tied the score on Steve Hansell's layup with 53 seconds left.

That gave the Vols the ball back with a chance to win. They worked the shot clock down to 17 seconds and the game clock down to 34.6 before calling a timeout.

Wharton took a 3-pointer from the top of the key with 22 seconds left, but missed and Illinois State rebounded.

The Redbirds had their own chance at a game-winning shot, but Hill missed a 14-foot jumper. The Vols rebounded and threw a desperation pass, but it was on to overtime.

Tennessee had opened up a nine-point lead in the first half but could not put the Redbirds away. Back-to-back 3-pointers from Rico Hill and Steve Hansell at the end of the half enabled the Redbirds to pull within 41-38 at the break.

NOTES: Illinois State's starting backcourt during the season did not play due to injury ... Skipp Schaefbauer broke his leg in the MVC tournament; Jamar Smiley didn't start because of back problems ... Smiley got into the game, but immediately came out writhing in pain and was taken for treatment ... This was Tennessee's first appearance in the NCAA Tournament in nine years ... The Redbirds lost 82-49 to Arizona in the second round.

#13 Delaware (24-6) 52

#4 Tennessee (21-8) 62

March 12, 1999 • Charlotte Coliseum • Charlotte, N.C.

Tennessee's offense was sputtering, but the Vols turned up their defensive pressure to post a 62-52 victory over Delaware. It was the Vols' first NCAA Tournament win in 16 years.

The Vols shot only 33 percent from the field but held Delaware to 30 percent shooting. Forward Mike Pegues did score 23 points for Delaware, but it came on 7-of-23 shooting. Tennessee's perimeter defense held the Blue Hens starting perimeter players to 2-of-13 shooting from 3-point range.

"As long as we play defense like we did today, we have a chance to win, no matter how bad we shoot the ball," Tennessee guard Brandon Wharton said.

Wharton scored all 16 of his points in the second half after missing seven shots in the first half, including an uncontested layup after a steal.

"I just kept telling the players 'Continue to play good defense, and the shots are going to fall. Believe me. Trust me. They're going to fall,'" Tennessee coach Jerry Green said.

Two free throws from Pegues gave Delaware a 20-14 lead with 3:45 left in the first half. Tennessee then reeled off 11 unanswered points to open a 25-20 lead with 35 seconds left in the half. Pegues hit a jumper at the first half buzzer to pull the Blue Hens to within three at the break and then opened the second half with a 3-pointer to tie the game at 25.

Tennessee then got the offense rolling with a layup from Wharton, a 3-pointer from Tony Harris and a C.J. Black dunk. The Vols led 32-25 and never trailed again.

"We were almost too ready to play," Green said. "Survive and advance. That's what it's all about."

NOTES: Tennessee's win snapped Delaware's 13-game winning streak ... Delaware's point total and field-goal percentage were its lowest of the season ... Delaware won the America East Conference Tournament to earn its bid to the NCAA Tournament.

1999 NCAA East Region — Second Round

#12 SW Missouri State (22-10) 81

#4 Tennessee (21-9) 51

March 14, 1999 • Charlotte Coliseum • Charlotte, N.C.

Poor shooting proved costly for the Vols as Southwest Missouri State gave Tennessee its worst loss ever in NCAA Tournament action with an 81-51 final.

Tennessee shot 29.5 percent from field and hit only 6-of-29 3-point attempts for 20.7 percent.

"Their defense didn't give us many open looks," forward Isiah Victor said. "And when they did, we weren't making those shots either, so it really didn't matter."

Southwest Missouri State, on the other hand, shot 51.9 percent from the field and hit 9-of-22 3-pointers. It was a 3-pointer at the end of the first half that seemed to douse all hopes of a Vol victory. Ken Stringer banked in a 25-footer at the buzzer to give the Bears a 36-26 halftime lead.

Southwest Missouri then opened the second half by scoring on nine of its first 10 possessions. The lead expanded to 58-33 with 12:38 to play.

"I'd say they played a perfect ball game," Tennessee coach Jerry Green said. "The more shots they hit, the more confident they got and the less we got. It seemed all the basketball gods were on their side and not on ours."

Tennessee never led in the game, as the Bears jumped out to a 9-2 lead 3:10 into the game. The Bears got two easy buckets off of Tennessee turnovers caused by a full-court press. It was all uphill from there.

NOTES: Southwest Missouri State lost to Duke in the Regional Semifinals ... Southwest Missouri State won the Missouri Valley Conference to earn its trip to the NCAA Tournament ... A Missouri Valley Conference team (Illinois State) also eliminated the Vols from the 1998 NCAA Tournament.

2000 NCAA South Region — First Round

#13 Louisiana-Lafayette (25-9) 58

#4 Tennessee (25-6) 63

March 17, 2000 • Birmingham-Jefferson Civic Center • Birmingham, Ala.

Tony Harris made two free throws with 10.8 seconds to play to help Tennessee seal a 63-58 victory over Louisiana-Lafayette.

Louisiana-Lafayette cut UT's lead to two at 60-58 on Brett Smith's jumper with 45 seconds to play. With the shot clock running down, Harris made a move to the basket and appeared to turn the ball over to Smith. But Smith was called for a reach-in foul that sent Harris to the line with 15 seconds to play. He missed the front end of the one-and-one, Ron Slay got the rebound and was flagrantly fouled by Smith with 13 seconds to go, allowing Tennessee to keep the ball after the free throws.

Slay missed both free throws, and UT in-bounded the ball to Harris, who was quickly fouled. Harris hit both shots to seal the victory.

Tennessee trailed most of the game. The Vols were down 48-42 with just under 10 minutes left to play. Slay, a freshman from Nashville, then got the Vols' offense rolling. Slay scored 11 of his 15 points in the final 8:15, including a coast-to-coast drive that he converted into a three-point play. Slay's drive cut what had been a six-point Louisiana-Lafayette lead to 48-45 with 8:15 remaining.

"When Ron took it all the way, I felt we had 'Mo' (momentum) back on our side and had it going the right direction," UT coach Jerry Green said.

Slay's 8-footer inside the Cajuns' variation of a 2-3 zone defense broke a 54-54 tie at the 4:07 mark. He hit a similar shot to make it 60-56, Vols, with 1:48 to play.

"We struggled offensively, but our defense kept us in the game," Green said. "We did just exactly what we had to do down the stretch to win the game."

Harris and Slay led Tennessee with 15 points each. C.J. Black added 14 while shooting 10-of-10 from the foul line, and Vincent Yarbrough scored 11. Lonnie Thomas led the Cajuns with 19 points.

NOTES: Louisiana-Lafayette earned its bid to the NCAA Tournament by winning the Sun Belt Conference.

2000 NCAA South Region — Second Round

#5 Connecticut (25-10) 51

#4 Tennessee (26-6) 65

March 19, 2000 • Birmingham-Jefferson Civic Center • Birmingham, Ala.

Tennessee capitalized on an ankle injury that limited Connecticut point guard Khalid El-Amin to one basket in 13 minutes and posted a 65-51 victory. The Vols made school history by winning two games in the NCAA Tournament for the first time.

The Vols trailed only once, at 4-2, and had the upper hand, 32-22 by halftime. The Huskies cut a 12-point deficit to 38-34 when El-Amin hit his only basket, a 3-pointer, with 13:36 to play.

Vol freshman Jon Higgins answered with his own 3-pointer 14 seconds later, igniting a 16-4 run that put the game away.

Connecticut went 6:15 without scoring during the major portion of that stretch, missing six consecutive shots and turning the ball over twice.

One was a Higgins steal and break-away that ended up being juggled and dished to Vincent Yarbrough for a dunk and subsequent free throw. The three-point play restored the margin to 44-34.

Tony Harris led the Vols with 18 points and shot 9-of-12 from the foul stripe. Yarbrough got 11 of his 14 in the first half, helping shoot the Huskies out of a zone defense with three 3-pointers. C.J. Black added 13 points, 10 in the second half, as UT penetrated UConn's defense for dunks and free throws.

The Vol defense also stood tall by converting seven steals into 14 points and holding the Huskies to 38.6 percent shooting. UT shot 44.7 percent from field which was up from 33.3 percent in the first round victory.

"We played awfully good," Tennessee coach Jerry Green said. "That could have been as good as we played all year. Time and again, making the extra pass—or passes—produced good looks against the UConn defense."

Albert Mouring scored 17 points to lead the Huskies, and El-Amin was limited to three points, 13 below his season average.

NOTES: The 51 points was a season-low for the Huskies ... Connecticut was the defending NCAA champion, having won the 1999 NCAA Tournament with a 77-74 title-game victory over Duke.

2000 NCAA South Region — Regional Semifinal

#8 North Carolina (21-13) 74
#4 Tennessee (26-7) 69

March 24, 2000 • Frank Erwin Center • Austin, Texas

Ed Cota spurred a late second-half comeback, then he and freshmen Joseph Forte and Julius Peppers hit six straight free throws in the final 34.9 seconds, giving North Carolina a 74-69 victory over Tennessee in the South Regional semifinals.

The Tar Heels' winning rally kicked into top gear when Forte drilled a 3-pointer and Jason Capel hit a layup to get the Tar Heels within 64-63. Cota made a running jumper in the lane and then hit another floater to make it 66-64 with 2:00 left. Tennessee's scoring drought, which left the Vols without a field goal since 7:15, ended with 13.6 seconds left when Tony Harris made his first basket of the night, a 3-pointer.

"I thought for about 35 minutes, we played awfully well," Tennessee coach Jerry Green said. "Then we started trying to make hard plays, and it wasn't just one person, it was about four or five different people. And while we were making hard plays, they were making baskets."

Tennessee got off to a slow start as North Carolina led by seven early. Then, the Vols' speed and athleticism carried them to a 22-7 run and a nine-point lead. Capel kept the Tar Heels close by scoring the last five points of the first half, pulling North Carolina to within 39-36.

"I can't really put it into words," Vincent Yarbrough said of the loss. "I thought we had the game won, but they just out-played us in the last four minutes. We came out of the last timeout and still thought we had the game, but they made some shots and that was the game."

C.J. Black led the Volunteers with 17 points, Yarbrough had 13 and Ron Slay added 12. Isiah Victor had 11. Forte scored a game-high 22 for the Tar Heels, while Brendan Haywood and Cota each scored 11, followed by Kris Lang with 10.

NOTES: North Carolina defeated Tulsa 74-69 in the Regional Finals to advance to the Final Four ... The Tar Heels then lost to Florida, 59-71, in the national semifinals in Indianapolis.

2001 NCAA Midwest Region — First Round

#9 Charlotte (22-10) 70
#8 Tennessee (22-11) 63

March 16, 2001 • University of Dayton Arena • Dayton, Ohio

Poor shooting in the second half was too much for Tennessee to overcome, as the Vols fell 70-63 to Charlotte in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

The Vols finished the game shooting 42 percent from the field but shot only 31 percent in the second half. The Vols also hit only 1-of-7 free-throw attempts and 1-of-11 3-point attempts in the second half. Free-throw shooting plagued the Vols the entire game as they made only 7-of-18. The Vols missed four free throws late in the second half, including the front-end of two one-and-ones.

"We just couldn't make a shot," UT head coach Jerry Green said. "From a coach's perspective, it's frustrating and you feel like you missed an opportunity. But again, those same guys are the ones over the last several years who have made those free throws."

Tennessee opened the game by hitting 10 of its first 17 shots to take a 26-18 lead. Foul trouble proved costly though, and Charlotte was able to come back and tie the game at 43 at the half.

The opening of the second half was the mirror opposite of the first half. The Vols scored only four points in the first 10:30 of the second half and were down 52-50 after a 3-point shot by Jon Higgins with 9:20 to play.

By that point, Tennessee had hit only two of 12 shots in the half while committing nine turnovers.

Charlotte eventually opened up a 59-50 lead with 6:59 to play. The Vols battled back and had the ball down 66-63 with just under 40 seconds left in the game. Tony Harris' 3-point attempt was off the mark, and the 49ers got the rebound. Jobey Thomas made four free throws in the final 24 seconds to seal the victory for Charlotte.

NOTES: Tennessee was seeded eighth and Charlotte was the No. 9 seed ... Charlotte lost to No. 1 seeded Illinois in the second round ... UT fell to 8-14 all-time in the NCAA Tournament ... The Vols made their first appearance in the Midwest Region ... UT's 191 blocked shots on the season ranked second all-time in school history.

2006 Washington D.C. Region — First Round

#15 Winthrop (23-8) 61
#2 Tennessee (22-7) 63

March 16, 2006 • Greensboro Coliseum • Greensboro, N.C.

Dane Bradshaw found a streaking Chris Lofton with an inbound pass with 2.9 seconds left, and Lofton buried a jumper over Winthrop's Torrell Martin to give Tennessee a 63-61 victory to advance to the second round of the Washington D.C. Regional.

"It was a good look, but he was all up on me," Lofton said. "It still felt good."

The frantic finish capped a heart-pounding game that featured nine ties and eight lead changes, the final one coming on Lofton's shot. His were the only points in the final 2:42, as both teams squandered chances to advance to the second round.

"It was a real gut check for both teams," UT head coach Bruce Pearl said. "Both teams were physically exhausted at the end of that game."

The Vols had a couple of opportunities in the final seconds. Point guard C.J. Watson missed a 3-pointer, but Tennessee retained possession when Bradshaw chased down a long rebound on the other end of the court. Pearl called a timeout to set up the play, with Bradshaw throwing it in.

The first option was for a lob pass to 6-foot-7 Andre Patterson, but when he was covered, Bradshaw looked for Lofton.

"I thought they were going to come to me the whole time, unless we got an easy shot, of course," Lofton said.

His was anything but, and after it went in with four-tenths of a second on the clock, the Tennessee players mobbed Watson. Winthrop coach Gregg Marshall used his final timeout, and James Shuler's long pass bounced off the backboard to Craig Bradshaw. Bradshaw's shot clanged off the rim, allowing the Volunteers to hang on.

The Volunteers survived despite its All-SEC backcourt of Watson and Lofton shooting a combined 8-of-24 from the field and 3-of-15 from 3-point range. It was Tennessee's frontcourt of Major Wingate and Patterson that carried the Vols. Wingate had a team-high 15 points, and Patterson had a double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds.

"You can definitely make the case that this was good for us, the way it turned out," Dane Bradshaw said. "Coach says the teams we play obviously will continue to get better, but the situation we were in won't get any tougher."

2006 Washington D.C. Region — Second Round

#7 Wichita State (26-8) 80
#2 Tennessee (22-8) 73

March 18, 2006 • Greensboro Coliseum • Greensboro, N.C.

Wichita State went on a 7-0 run to break a 65-all tie and the Shockers never looked back, defeating Tennessee 80-73 to advance to the Sweet Sixteen in Washington D.C.

Karon Bradley hit a short jumper to break the tie, and on the next possession, with the shot clock winding down, P.J. Couisnard stepped back and launched a straightaway 3-pointer that swished through the net giving the Shockers a lead they wouldn't relinquish. Wichita State advanced to the NCAA Tournament's round of 16 for the first time in 25 years.

Chris Lofton - who hit a last-second shot to beat Winthrop 63-61 in the first round - and eventual NBA point guard C.J. Watson each scored 20 points to lead the Volunteers. Major Wingate finished with 15 points, seven rebounds and five blocks.

"We'll be back," Pearl said. "I'm very, very proud of these young men. I can't tell you how many people have written or called and said how much they enjoyed this basketball team. This Tennessee basketball team will go down as one of the all-time best, and this was the group that got it started."

Tennessee led 63-58 on a pair of free throws from Watson with 5:42 left, but the Shockers rallied to tie it at 63 on a 3-pointer from Sean Ogirri.

After the teams traded baskets, Bradley drained a jumper from just outside the lane for a 67-65 lead with 2:12 left. Couisnard followed with the stepback 3-pointer over Dane Bradshaw for a 70-65 lead with 1:05 left.

Ogirri closed the spurt with two free throws for a 72-65 lead with 50.5 seconds left. Tennessee twice cut the deficit to three points in the final seconds. But the Vols got no closer, as Wichita State went 8-for-10 at the foul line in the final minute to seal it.

"I think we were in a position where we had them where we wanted them," said Bradshaw, who had two points and three steals. "I guess we just didn't execute. I'm not sure really what happened."

NOTES: Wichita State lost to eventual Final Four participant George Mason 63-55 in the Sweet Sixteen.

2007 South Region — First Round

#12 Long Beach State (24-8) 86
#5 Tennessee (23-10) 121
March 16, 2007 • Nationwide Arena • Columbus, Ohio

Tennessee scored early, often and then scored some more as the Vols matched the most points ever scored by a team in a first-round NCAA Tournament game in its 121-86 dismantling of Long Beach State.

Chris Lofton led the way with 25 points. JaJuan Smith added 24 points, Ramar Smith 22, Duke Crews 12 and Wayne Chism 10 points, while Dane Bradshaw dished out a career-best 11 assists.

"It really was (fun)," Lofton said. "We're used to playing like that. When a team plays (uptempo) like that, we get excited. It was just a fast-paced game, and we put the 'fast' back in 'fast break.'"

Both teams came in averaging 80 points—putting them among the top 11 in the nation—so it wasn't a shocker that baskets came in bunches.

"I like an identity for a program. This is our identity," UT coach Bruce Pearl said. "We've never finished second in (any league in) scoring in 14 or 15 years I've been a head coach. I enjoy being uptempo and being aggressive in transition. We'll put four or five guys on the floor that can score, and they've got a lot of freedom."

Lofton led the way, as the Volunteers shot 59 percent from the field and made 14 of 27 3-pointers. He hit half of his eight shots behind the arc and JaJuan Smith hit 4-of-6.

Each team hit seven 3-pointers in a wild opening half that featured the Volunteers racing to a 29-12 lead in the opening seven and a half minutes. They did it with precision shooting, their full-court press and trapping pressure.

Lofton keyed the defense, with two steals leading to a pair of layups in a 5-second span.

Ahead 57-45 at the break, the Volunteers ran off 12 of the first 14 points in the second half—seven by Lofton—to build the lead to 69-47.

From then on, the points mounted. The Volunteers reached 90 with 10 minutes left.

"We knew we had to score," Ramar Smith said. "We knew it was going to be a high-scoring game, and we came out and scored."

2007 South Region — Second Round

#5 Tennessee (24-10) 77
#4 Virginia (21-11) 74
March 18, 2007 • Nationwide Arena • Columbus, Ohio

JaJuan Smith scored 13 of his 16 points in the second half, Ryan Childress scored all 10 of his points in the second half and Chris Lofton made six consecutive free throws in the final seconds as the Volunteers held off Virginia 77-74 in the second round of the NCAA Tournament to propel fifth-seeded Tennessee (24-10) to the round of 16 for the first time since 2000.

"When you reach the Sweet Sixteen at the University of Tennessee with the way we've had to rebuild, you've made a special place in history for yourself," Vols veteran Dane Bradshaw said.

The Vols had to hold on for dear life to advance past the second round. After taking a 10-point lead midway through the second half, Virginia came roaring back, cutting the lead to two after an Adrian Joseph basket.

But in the end, the Volunteers advanced by having their best player make the easiest shot of all. Lofton, the Southeastern Conference's Player of the Year, hit all six of his free throws in the last 27.7 seconds, keeping Tennessee ahead. He finished with 20 points.

"I started forcing shots," said Lofton, who was an uncharacteristic 4-of-16 from the field but 9-of-10 on free throws. "Coach (Pearl) kept telling me to be patient. Luckily, I got to the foul line and came through."

Virginia still had a chance as they got the ball back after Lofton's last made free throw, but point guard Sean Singletary missed an open 3-pointer with one second left.

In the opening minute, Reynolds and Lofton turned it into a game of H-O-R-S-E. Reynolds hit a 3-pointer from the top of the key on Virginia's first possession, and Lofton responded with a longer trey a minute later.

The challenge was on, and Reynolds was on his game. He was at his best during an 18-3 spurt that gave Virginia a 36-25 lead.

Then, it was Tennessee's turn.

JaJuan Smith had a three-point play and a steal-and-layup during a 15-2 spurt early in the second half that put Tennessee ahead for good 54-44. At that point, Singletary brought Virginia back, cutting the lead to 61-59.

Smith ended the comeback by hitting a 3-pointer, then taking a charge from Singletary.

2007 South Region — Regional Semifinal

#5 Tennessee (24-11) 84
#1 Ohio State (33-3) 85

March 22, 2007 • Alamodome • San Antonio, Texas

With talented freshman center Greg Oden mired in foul trouble, the top-seeded Buckeyes fell behind by 20 points before halftime. But senior Ron Lewis and fellow freshman Mike Conley bailed out Oden and lifted Ohio State past Tennessee, 85-84, in the semifinals of the NCAA South Regional.

"We played about as well in the first half, I think, as we can play," Tennessee coach Bruce Pearl said. "We're terribly disappointed. We've proven we can beat some of the best teams in the country. We've also proven we can come close to beating some of the best teams in the country."

Conley had nine of his 17 from the foul line - including the winner with 6.5 seconds left.

But Conley missed a second shot, giving Tennessee one last chance. Ramar Smith grabbed the rebound and went all the way to the rim with Conley defending him. Smith's shot went up just before time expired.

Then it was Oden to the rescue, swatting the ball into the Volunteers' cheerleaders, while Smith landed hard in front of the Tennessee bench.

After trailing 49-29 in the final minute of the first half, the Buckeyes got a little back with a three-point play in the final second before intermission. Then came a 16-5 spurt, keyed by six Conley free throws. Fittingly, his pair of foul shots tied it at 64.

Things went back and forth from there, with 6-9 Ryan Childress hitting two 3-pointers for Tennessee and Conley making a three-point play but also missing a pair of free throws.

Ohio State tied it at 79 with 2:44 left on David Lighty's eighth 3-pointer of the season. It was a biggie because the Buckeyes never trailed again.

SEC Player of the Year Chris Lofton scored 24 points to lead Tennessee. He was 6-of-13 on 3-pointers, including one that tied it at 82 only seconds after Lewis had put Ohio State ahead with a trey of his own.

Smith scored 15 points and JaJuan Smith added 14 points and eight rebounds. Childress had 12, hitting 4-of-5 behind the arc.

Tennessee avoided Oden from the start by shooting 3-pointers over him, taking a slim lead. Then, he got his second foul with 10:48 to go in the half, and the Vols began attacking inside and out. .

NOTES: Ohio State advanced all the way to the national championship game, where it fell to No. 1-seeded Florida 84-75.

2008 East Region — First Round

#15 American (21-12) 57
#2 Tennessee (30-4) 72

March 21, 2008 • BJCC Arena • Birmingham, Ala.

Tennessee avoided a massive first-round upset in the NCAA Tournament, breaking away from American 72-57 in the first round of the East Regional.

Believing the Volunteers deserved better than the No. 2 seed given them, guard JaJuan Smith wrote "No. 1 seed" on his orange-and-white sneakers. Facing a team making its NCAA Tournament debut, it was hardly a walkover.

Sluggish at the start and outhustled nearly the whole way, the second-seeded Vols turned it on late to avoid the upset.

Ahead 53-51 with 5:45 left, Tennessee held the 15th-seeded Eagles to only one basket the rest of the way.

"We just weren't playing our game," Smith said. "We were a little sloppy, but we turned it on at the end."

Smith finished with 19 points. Wayne Chism added 16 and helped Tennessee wear down the Eagles.

Tied at 40 with 11 minutes left, Tennessee finally put together a 10-0 run with Smith hitting a big 3-pointer. A pair of treys by Brian Gilmore gave American its late chance.

"I thought they came in confident. I thought they came in knowing that they could play with us," UT coach Bruce Pearl said.

Garrison Carr, the MVP of the Patriot League Tournament, poured in 24 points. The sharpshooter tried to keep American close all by himself, taking on the whole Tennessee team in a game of H-O-R-S-E. The Vols threw five different defenders at him, hoping to weave through a staggered series of hard picks.

"One person can't guard him. He comes off eight or nine screens," All-American Tennessee guard Chris Lofton said. "I had to take a break in the first half. I was dead."

Tennessee relies on a controlled brand of chaos, but they struggled at the start, and Lofton was a non-factor. Starting UT point guard Ramar Smith sat out the first half.

The Eagles threw their bodies around more than the Vols and held a 39-27 rebounding edge, including 18-6 on the offensive end.

2008 East Region — Second Round

#7 Butler (30-4) 71
#2 Tennessee (31-4) OT 76

March 23, 2008 • BJCC Arena • Birmingham, Ala.

Tennessee scrapped, pounded, grabbed and survived.

The second-seeded Vols mostly ditched the glamorous 3-pointer and got physical in the second-round, moving on with a 76-71 overtime victory over Butler.

Vols senior JaJuan Smith hit four straight free throws in the final 13.6 seconds of overtime, and the Vols advanced to their second consecutive Sweet Sixteen.

Tennessee scored 38 points in the paint, had five players with multiple fouls by halftime and made only two 3-pointers in the final 40 minutes against the Bulldogs.

"Fatigue was a factor for them at some point, because of the way we guarded them," UT coach Bruce Pearl said. "We really played great defense tonight and did what we needed to do on the boards."

The Vols scored six straight points inside after the Bulldogs took their first lead in the final two minutes of overtime, including point guard Ramar Smith's basket with 27 seconds left to make it 72-68.

Butler's Pete Campbell followed a missed shot to make it 72-70 with 16 seconds left. JaJaun Smith then made both free throws.

Wayne Chism led foul-plagued Tennessee with 16 points, while Tyler Smith added 15 and eight rebounds and JaJuan Smith had 11. J.P. Prince had nine points, seven rebounds, five assists—and six of the Vols' 20 turnovers.

The Bulldogs, who couldn't catch up to UT for the first 37-plus minutes, took their first lead on A.J. Graves' short jumper in the paint to make it 68-66 with 1:46 left in overtime. Ramar Smith and Chism both scored inside as UT reclaimed the lead inside the final minute.

Tyler Smith then blocked Graves from behind, and Chism won the scramble for the loose ball and called timeout with 33 seconds left.

Ramar Smith then scored, coming up with a big play after losing his starting job to J.P. Prince, an Arizona transfer who made his first start for Tennessee.

Graves led Butler with 21 points. Campbell, who made eight 3-pointers in the first round, added 12 points and Willie Veasley had 11.

The Vols tried to set the tone early, sinking three 3-pointers and forcing five turnovers in the first five minutes en route to a 21-8 lead.

2008 East Region — Regional Semifinal

#3 Louisville (26-8) 79
#2 Tennessee (31-5) 60

March 27, 2008 • Charlotte Bobcats Arena • Charlotte, N.C.

One of the most successful seasons in Tennessee basketball history came to a close as third-seeded Louisville downed the second-seeded Volunteers 79-60 in in the East Regional final.

Earl Clark scored 17 points and had 12 rebounds, and UL head coach Rick Pitino's mix of defenses made life miserable for SEC Champion Tennessee.

After Louisville's two blowout wins earlier in the tournament, Pitino's signature zone and pressure limited the high-scoring Volunteers to 34-percent shooting.

"I've been coaching a long time and never has the tempo of the game been dictated so much by an opponent," UT coach Bruce Pearl said. "We usually dictate tempo. We attacked the pressure and we had an opportunity to hurt the press, but we just didn't finish."

Louisville nearly blew all of a 16-point first-half lead, only to take control midway through the second half.

All-American guard Chris Lofton scored 15 points for Tennessee, but was 3-for-15 in his final game as a Vol.

"They wouldn't leave me," Lofton said. "It was tough to get my shot off. They're a great defensive team."

After a slow start, Tennessee got within 37-36 early in the second half thanks to its own defensive pressure, which forced 20 turnovers.

But then the springy Clark, who had come on in the NCAA Tournament, had a driving layup, hit a baseline jumper and converted a three-point play during a 13-5 run.

Louisville's defense didn't allow Tennessee to get back in it again, and the Cardinals hit all nine free throws over the final five minutes to keep Tennessee at bay.

JaJuan Smith added 12 points for UT, and Tyler Smith had 11.

"This doesn't take much away from the finest season in the history of Tennessee basketball," Pearl said. "No team has accomplished the things these guys accomplished this year, and I'm awfully proud of them."

NOTES: Louisville lost to No. 1-seeded North Carolina 83-73 in the Elite Eight.

2009 East Region — First Round

#9 Tennessee (21-13) 75
#8 Oklahoma State (23-11) 77

March 20, 2009 • University of Dayton Arena • Dayton, Ohio

After 40 hard-fought minutes of basketball, Oklahoma State outlasted Tennessee to earn a 77-75 decision in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at University of Dayton Arena in Dayton, Ohio.

"We played a lot of good basketball out there today, and we played against a really good team, one of the better teams we played in a few weeks, and we're right there," UT head coach Bruce Pearl said.

Cowboys point guard Byron Eaton put his team ahead for good after a three-point play with 7.2 seconds showing on the clock. Eaton drove to the basket for a layup and made the ensuing free throw after being fouled by Vols forward Tyler Smith.

With one final shot for the Vols, Smith came off a ball screen and launched a 3-pointer, only to see it rim out at the buzzer.

"It's a shot that he takes and makes a lot at the end of practice," Pearl said. "I didn't want anybody else taking that last shot."

Smith led the Big Orange with 21 points, including a perfect 10-for-10 performance at the foul line. Redshirt freshman guard Cameron Tatum followed with 12 points, and junior Wayne Chism added 11 points.

Paced by Eaton's 20 points, Oklahoma State also received a lift from Marshall Moses' double-double performance of 16 points and 11 rebounds.

The game concluded Tennessee's fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament bid under Pearl.

NOTES: Oklahoma State lost to No. 1-seeded Pittsburgh 84-76 in the second round.

2010 Midwest Region — First Round

#11 San Diego State (25-9) 59
#6 Tennessee (26-8) 62

March 18, 2010 • Dunkin' Donuts Center • Providence, R.I.

Melvin Goins made his fourth 3-pointer with 19 seconds left after San Diego State cut the deficit to one point, and Tennessee held off the Aztecs 62-59 at the Dunkin' Donuts Center in Providence, R.I., to advance to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Goins and J.P. Prince scored 15 points apiece for the sixth-seeded Volunteers on coach Bruce Pearl's 50th birthday.

"That was a very defensive-minded game," Pearl said. "Both teams can really defend. The way we won the game was the way the kids have been winning all year long—really resilient. We didn't play very well. San Diego State had a lot to do with that."

D.J. Gay had 16 points for No. 11 seed San Diego State, which won the Mountain West Conference. Future NBA standout Kawhi Leonard scored 12 with 10 rebounds for SDSU, but he missed a well-guarded 3-pointer at the buzzer that would have tied it.

Making their fifth straight tournament appearance, the Vols did their best to erase the memory of last year's first-round loss to Oklahoma State—the only time they've failed to win a game in the tournament under Pearl (a native of nearby Sharon, Mass.).

Up six before Gay's 3-pointer made it 53-50 with 4:15 left, the Vols made it a five-point lead on Bobby Maze's free throws. Kelvin Davis hit a pair of free throws and Billy White made a jumper for San Diego State to make it 55-54 with just under two minutes left.

Brian Williams and Gay exchanged free throws, then J.P. Prince missed a pair of foul shots with 47 seconds left and the Vols still nursing a one-point lead. But Wayne Chism grabbed the rebound, and Tennessee ran another 28 seconds off the clock before Goins hit a 3-pointer to make it 60-56.

"I think the shot clock was at about seven seconds," said Goins, who was right in front of the Tennessee bench when he got the ball. "Even before I got the ball, I heard coach yelling, 'Stick, stick, stick.' That gave me confidence to shoot."

Goins then fouled Gay during a 3-point attempt, and the San Diego State guard made all three foul shots. But Chism made two free throws at the other end with 7.4 seconds left and then hustled to contest Leonard on the final shot, Goins was 4 for 5 from 3-point range, and the Vols went 8 for 17 from beyond the arc.

2010 Midwest Region — Second Round

#14	Ohio (22-15)	68
#6	Tennessee (27-8)	83

March 20, 2010 • Dunkin' Donuts Center • Providence, R.I.

J.P. Prince scored 18 points and Scotty Hopson had 17 to lead sixth-seeded Tennessee to an 83-68 victory over Ohio at the Dunkin' Donuts Center in Providence, R.I., helping the Volunteers reach their third Sweet Sixteen in four years.

"J.P. Prince was the best player in this regional," UT head coach Bruce Pearl said. "He played as well as any player in the tournament this weekend."

Tennessee earned a matchup with No. 2-seed Ohio State in St. Louis. The Volunteers have never gotten past the third round, including losses to Ohio State and Louisville under Pearl in 2007 and 2008.

"I've been there twice already and came up short twice," said Wayne Chism, who had nine points and 12 rebounds. "I'm happy to be back on that stage again, I can't wait to get there."

Chism joined former Tennessee All-Americans Chris Lofton and Dale Ellis as the only Vols ever to score 100 career points in the NCAA Tournament, as his nine-game total stands at 101.

Tommy Freeman scored 23 points for Ohio, which was the lowest-seeded team to get out of the first round. But he didn't get enough help from Armon Bassett and D.J. Cooper, the guards who starred in a first-round victory over third-seeded Georgetown before combining for 23 points on seven-for-23 shooting against Tennessee.

"The plan from the jump was to stop those guards," UT junior center Brian Williams said, "and then dominate underneath and on the boards."

The Vols did just that, outscoring the Mid-American Conference champions, 58-12, in the paint and winning the battle of the boards 41-33.

The Bobcats trailed by six points midway through the second half before the Volunteers went on a 10-1 run to put it away.

The Volunteers took the lead with an 18-2 run that started with 12 minutes left in the first half, turning a two-point deficit into a 14-point lead. Ohio kept firing 3-point shots—they attempted 26 in the game, making 10—but never got any closer than 50-45.

"Our top five guys aren't necessarily going to win in this tournament, but our 10 can," said Pearl, whose bench held a 28-0 advantage over the Bobcats. "This is a team with many dimensions, and when we defend and rebound we've got a chance to win."

2010 Midwest Region — Regional Semifinal

#2	Ohio State (29-8)	73
#6	Tennessee (28-8)	76

March 26, 2010 • Edward Jones Dome • St. Louis, Mo.

Brian Williams scored the go-ahead basket on a tip-in with 32 seconds left, Bobby Maze converted a pair of late free throws and J.P. Prince blocked a desperation 3-pointer at the buzzer, leading Tennessee past Ohio State 76-73 in the Midwest Region semifinal and into the NCAA Tournament's round of eight for the first time in UT's 101-year hardwood history.

Wayne Chism finished with 22 points—all but four in the second half—and 11 rebounds for the sixth-seeded Vols, who pulled out a back-and-forth tussle after going 0-5 in its previous regional semifinal chances.

As the final buzzer sounded, Tennessee players let out screams of joy and sprinted onto the court.

Ohio State's Evan Turner—the National Player of the Year—finished with 31 points, 21 in the second half, but the rest of the Buckeyes were just 3-of-16 from the field in the second half. Jon Diebler, so big for Ohio State in the first two rounds, shot 1-of-7 from 3-point range.

William Buford scored 15 points, and David Lighty added nine for OSU, which had won four of its previous five meetings against UT, including a matchup in the 2007 regional semifinals.

After making only three baskets in the first half, Turner surpassed that output in the first 5:12 of the second half. Lighty finally gave him some help, scoring on a layup to put Ohio State in front 59-56 with 7:37 to play.

But Tennessee responded with a 12-4 run, getting contributions from four different players.

Chism gave the Vols a 72-70 lead with 1:39 to play. Turner came up with yet another big play, swishing a 3-pointer from just beyond the arc with less than 42 seconds to go. But Williams, a big, bruising center, tipped in Prince's miss on a layup.

Turner missed at the other end and Kyle Madsen lost the ball under the basket. With less than 13 seconds left, Turner fouled Maze, who after a timeout, coolly blew a kiss to someone in the Tennessee fan section. He made both free throws, giving Tennessee a 76-73 lead.

Turner had two more opportunities—and he had knocked down last-second shots before. But this time, he missed from deep in the left corner, then got the ball back. His last shot from near the top of the key didn't even get to the rim, as Prince managed to elevate, extend his arm and make an athletic block.

"Turner got a little bit of a look, but it wasn't very good," Pearl said. "Now we're going to go see if we can live every kid's dream."

2010 Midwest Region — Regional Final

#5 Michigan State (28-8) 70
#6 Tennessee (28-9) 69

March 28, 2010 • Edward Jones Dome • St. Louis, Mo.

Tennessee outshot Michigan State, equaled the Spartans—statistically, the nation's best rebounders—on the boards and had one fewer turnover.

"The numbers look pretty good," Volunteers coach Bruce Pearl conceded, glancing at the box score.

But defensive lapses at the end of both halves during the Midwest Regional Final at the Edward Jones Dome doomed the Vols, as MSU advanced by a score of 70-69.

"This one won't go away... forever," Pearl said.

Tennessee led 41-37 as the last seconds ticked off before intermission. After a couple of missed shots, MSU retained possession with one second left when the ball went out of bounds under its basket.

Forward Draymond Green cut through the lane, took a pass from guard Durrell Summers and laid in a shot at the buzzer, halving the Vols' halftime edge.

After surviving a 14-1 Spartans run and charging back from an eight-point deficit in the second half, UT forged a 69-69 tie when Scotty Hopson made the first of two free throws with 11 seconds left. Hopson missed the second, setting up the final, decisive sequence.

Spartans guard Korie Lucious corralled the rebound, hustled into the frontcourt then dished to Green near the top of the circle. Green wheeled to his right and spied forward Raymar Morgan under the basket, waving his arms frantically.

Green whipped a pass to Morgan, who was fouled by UT senior guard J.P. Prince with 1.8 seconds remaining.

Morgan made the first free throw, then purposely clanked the next. The Vols called a timeout with 1.6 seconds left, but Prince's half-court heave at the buzzer fell short.

"We didn't get back defensively," Pearl said. "They got the ball way too close to the basket, got way too good a look."

Despite the wrenching defeat, Pearl declared that Tennessee took a "major step" by reaching its first-ever Elite Eight and posting the second-highest win total in school history (28).

"We came to this regional to win it and get to the Final Four," Pearl said. "But I'm proud of my seniors and proud of our basketball program."

NOTES: Michigan State lost to Butler 52-50 in the Final Four.

2011 West Region — Second Round

#8 Michigan (21-13) 75
#9 Tennessee (19-15) 45

March 18, 2011 • Time Warner Cable Arena • Charlotte, N.C.

Tennessee's NCAA Tournament run ended early as the Volunteers were dealt a 75-45 loss to eighth-seeded Michigan at Time-Warner Cable Arena in the second round of West Region action.

It was a tale of two halves for the Volunteers. During the first 20 minutes of play, UT shot 45 percent from the floor on 9-of-20 shooting and went 10-of-12 from the free-throw line. Trailing 33-29 at halftime, the game remained close until a stretch of Tennessee turnovers fueled a 16-0 Michigan run.

The Vols shot a humble 26 percent from the floor in the second half and only managed to get to the stripe four times. Michigan pulled away, outscoring UT 42-16 after shooting 18-of-28 in the second half.

To Michigan's credit, the undersized Wolverines out-rebounded Tennessee 36-26 and outscored UT in the paint 46-22. Both marks were nails the Vols had hung their hat on all year.

After a perfect 6-of-6 shooting performance in the first half, Tennessee Freshman All-American Tobias Harris went a scoreless 0-of-5 shooting in the second half. Still, the Dix Hills, N.Y., native led the Vols with 19 points.

"We just didn't play with heart out there," Harris said. "Michigan came out and made shots and we just did a terrible job of trying to cover them. On the offensive end, we rushed too many shots."

The loss marked the first time UT finished with fewer than 20 wins during head coach Bruce Pearl's tenure.

NOTES: The game marked the end of Bruce Pearl's six-year tenure as head coach, as he was relieved of his duties March 21, 2010 ... The game also was the first in NCAA Tournament history in which a team won a game despite failing to make a free throw; UM attempted just one ... Michigan lost to No. 1-seeded Duke 73-71 in the third round.

#11 Tennessee (22-12) OT 78

March 19, 2014 • UD Arena • Dayton, Ohio

Tennessee advanced to the NCAA Tournament Second Round with a thrilling 78-65 comeback overtime victory over Iowa in the First Four at UD Arena.

Josh Richardson was tremendous after a slow start as he was 0-of-5 in the first half. The junior finished with 17 points -- all after halftime. Jordan McRae led the team with a team-high 20 points.

Jarnell Stokes posted his 20th double-double of the season with 18 points and 13 rebounds.

The Hawkeyes were led by a pair of reserves that entered the game averaging a combined 9.6 points. Iowa's leading scorer Roy Devyn Marble (17.3 ppg) was limited to just seven points on 3-of-15 shooting from the floor.

After Marble sent the game to overtime, the Vols took over.

Stokes opened the scoring with a 3-point play to put Tennessee up 67-64. McRae's bucket put the Vols up by five with 3:55 left.

Tennessee took its first lead of the game on a 3-pointer by Antonio Barton with 3:07 left in the game. That put the Vols up 59-57. Iowa quickly answered as Marble converted a 3-point play nine seconds later. That put Iowa up 60-59.

Stokes gave the Vols back the lead at 61-60 on two free throws with 2:40 left in the game. Iowa came right back as Adam Woodbury laid one home with 2:24 on the clock.

Maymon powered up and scored with 54 seconds left to put Tennessee up 63-62. He was fouled and missed the free throw, but the rebound went off Iowa and the Vols retained possession.

Stokes was fouled with 25.5 left in the game and proceeded to make the first of two free throws.

Marble sent the game to overtime with a jumper in the paint with 17.5 on the clock. That tied the game at 64 all.

Down by as many as 12 in the first half and three at the half, the Vols saw Richardson tie the game at 37 on a 3-pointer with 14:37 left.

Iowa broke out of the gates scoring the game's first eight points as Tennessee missed its first seven shots from the floor. The Vols finally got on the scoreboard with 6:02 elapsed in the game on an Armani Moore runner.

2014 Midwest Region — Second Round

#11 Tennessee (23-12) 86
#6 Massachusetts (24-9) 67

March 21, 2014 • PNC Arena • Raleigh, N.C.

Tennessee won its second NCAA Tournament game in less than 48 hours as the Vols dominated UMass, 86-67, in the NCAA Tournament Second Round.

UMass was making its first NCAA appearance in 16 years.

Jarnell Stokes (career-high 26 points and 14 rebounds) and Jeronne Maymon (11 points and 11 rebounds) each posted double-doubles in the game. For Stokes, it was his 21st double-double of the year, one shy of Bernard King's school record of 22 in 1976-77.

With two double-doubles, the Vols had multiple double-doubles in an NCAA Tournament game for the second time in history. The only other came in 1977 when Ernie Grunfeld (26 points, 12 rebounds), Bernard King (23 points, 12 rebounds) and Reggie Johnson (17 points, 10 rebounds) achieved the feat in an overtime loss to Syracuse.

Stokes' 14 rebounds tied the Tennessee NCAA Tournament record for rebounds in a game. The record of 14 was previously reached by Isiah Victor (1999) and set by Reggie Johnson (1980).

Senior Jordan McRae finished with 21 points. Josh Richardson tallied 15 points.

UMass was led by senior Chaz Williams, who scored 12 and handed out five assists. Maxie Esho had 12 points and Derrick Gordon scored 10.

Tennessee shot 53.6 percent in the game, including 58.3 in the first half while the Vols' defense forced UMass into 42.4 percent shooting for the game.

After UMass scored the game's opening basket, Tennessee scored the next eight and the Vols led for the entire afternoon.

The Vols went up by as many as 23 points on a pair of Stokes' free throws with 8:36 left, making it 67-44.

The Vols dominated throughout the first half, taking a 41-22 lead at halftime behind 14 points from McRae. Tennessee held UMass to a season low in points for any half (22), as the Minutemen had 10 turnovers and shot just 33.3 percent from the floor.

2014 Midwest Region — Third Round

#11 Tennessee (24-12) 83
#14 Mercer (27-9) 63

March 23, 2014 • PNC Arena • Raleigh, N.C.

The Tennessee Volunteers advanced to the Sweet Sixteen for the fourth time in eight years. The 11th-seeded Vols topped 14-seed Mercer, 83-63, Sunday night at PNC Arena to reach to the Sweet Sixteen for the seventh time in school history.

Tennessee previously played in the Sweet Sixteen in 1967, 1981, 2000, 2007, 2008 and 2010.

Junior Jarnell Stokes posted his Tennessee-record-tying 22nd double-double this season with 17 points and 18 rebounds. Stokes' equalled the mark set by Basketball Hall of Famer Bernard King in 1976-77. Stokes also set the Vols' NCAA Tournament for rebounds in a game with 18. He had tied the record in the second-round win over UMass with 14.

Stokes almost had as many rebounds (18) as the entire Mercer team (19), as the Bears were out-rebounded as a team, 41-19. The Vols dominated the offensive glass, 18-7.

Vols junior Josh Richardson tallied a career-high 26 points, 16 of which came in the first half.

UT senior Antonio Barton netted 18 points as he made 4-of-9 from 3-point range. Senior Jordan McRae added 14 points.

Mercer was led by Langston Hall, who scored 15 points.

Mercer scored its first points 3:09 into the game on an Ike Nwamu 3-pointer. The Bears tied the game at 8 and 10, but Tennessee regained the lead seconds later on a pair of Barton free throws and a baseline jam from McRae.

Stokes' tip-in with 5:06 left in the half gave the Vols their first double-figure lead at 31-20.

Tennessee took firm control of the game as the Vols made seven of eight shot attempts to grab a 13-point lead on Stokes' layup with three minutes left in the half, 38-25.

The Vols finished the half with a defensive stance that forced the Bears into their second shot-clock violation.

The Vols led 42-27 at intermission thanks to 16 first-half points from Richardson and a dominating performance on the glass, 24-4. In the second half Tennessee continued to maintain a lead of at least 11 points. Barton nailed three 3-pointers in the half as Mercer was unable to close the gap.

2014 Midwest Region — Semifinal

#11 Tennessee (24-13) 71
#2 Michigan (28-8) 73

March 28, 2014 • Lucas Oil Stadium • Indianapolis, Ind.

After a magical run of three consecutive NCAA Tournament victories, Tennessee saw its season end in the Sweet Sixteen at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis, Ind. The 11th-seeded Vols suffered a 73-71 defeat at the hands of No. 2-seeded Michigan before the largest crowd to ever watch a Tennessee basketball game (41,072).

The Vols won three NCAA Tournament games for just the second time in history and reached the Sweet Sixteen for the seventh time.

Michigan advanced by virtue of red-hot shooting. The Wolverines shot .550 from the floor in the game, including .615 in the first half as they built an 11-point halftime lead.

Tennessee senior Jordan McRae scored a game-high 24 points in his final college game. Junior Josh Richardson, who had been torrid throughout the postseason, added 19 points. Junior forward Jarnell Stokes finished with 11 points and six rebounds.

The Wolverines were led by senior forward Jordan Morgan, who scored 15. He was joined by three other Michigan players in double-figures: Nik Stauskas (14), Glenn Robinson III (13) and Caris LeVert (10).

Down by as many as 13 in the first half, the Vols fell behind by 15 midway through the second half before battling to within one point with 10.8 seconds left in regulation.

Tennessee used an 8-0 run to get within seven at 60-53 on a Jeronne Maymon layup with 7:53 left in the game.

A Stauskas 3-pointer with 3:37 left in the game regained a double-figure lead for the Wolverines. After Stokes and McRae scored to cut the margin to six again, Morgan dunked one home for an eight-point Michigan lead, 72-64 with 2:22 left.

McRae's 3-point play brought the Vols within five, 72-67—the closest the Vols were since trailing 27-22 with 6:43 left in the first half.

The Vols forced a shot-clock violation after McRae blocked Robinson with 42 seconds left in the game.

Tennessee cut the game to a one possession contest in the final seconds. Richardson's runner made it 72-69 with 24.6 left.

McRae's layup with 10.8 seconds left off a Michigan turnover, made it one point, 72-71.

A controversial offensive foul call was whistled on Stokes with six seconds left as the Vols had a chance to take the lead. Stauskas then made one of two free throws in the final seconds for the final of 73-71.

NOTES: Michigan lost to No. 8-seeded Kentucky 75-72 in the Elite Eight.

2018 South Region — First Round

#14 Wright State (25-9) 47
#3 Tennessee (25-8) 73

March 15, 2018 • American Airlines Center • Dallas, Texas

A trio of double-digit scorers fueled No. 3-seeded Tennessee to a dominant 73-47 win over #13 seed Wright State Thursday at American Airlines Center in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

All-SEC wing Admiral Schofield posted his second double-double in as many games Thursday, with 15 points and 12 rebounds to go along with a pair of blocks in 32 minutes of action. Vols sophomore Lamonté Turner led all players with 19 points and a career-high nine assists off the bench.

SEC Player of the Year Grant Williams just missed out on a double-double, recording 14 points on 6-of-10 shooting and hauling down nine boards. The Vols (26-8) held a 44-32 edge on the glass over WSU. Tennessee was also very active on the defensive end of the court, finishing with six blocks and six steals to hold the Raiders (25-10) to a season-low for scoring.

"I was really impressed with our team," Tennessee head coach Rick Barnes said. "Overall we've got a group of guys that have embraced that talent of working hard, and they've—we've tried to create our own standard, our own identity in terms of how hard we think we can play on defense and on offense when we stay together and execute."

Tennessee opened the second half on a 14-4 run to extend its lead to 21 points with less than 15 minutes to go in the game. After the Raiders pulled to within 15, UT went on a 9-0 run and never looked back, coasting to a 26-point victory.

After missing their first six attempts to open the game, the shots finally started falling for the Vols after being held scoreless for the first three minutes. Tennessee then knocked down five consecutive baskets to jump out to an 11-6 lead early on.

The Big Orange got hot after its slow start, using a 14-2 run to take a 21-8 lead at the 8:23 mark. UT ended the half shooting 42 percent from the field compared to Wright State's 32 percent shooting.

Schofield led the charge in the opening frame for the Vols, posting 10 points and six rebounds to lead all players. Tennessee took a 34-23 advantage into halftime.

"The biggest thing is we came out and did what we said we were going to do, try to run them out of their offense," Schofield said.

2018 South Region — Second Round

#11 Loyola-Chicago (29-5) 63
#3 Tennessee (26-8) 62

March 17, 2018 • American Airlines Center • Dallas, Texas

No. 3 seed Tennessee's season came to an end on Saturday night, as the Vols suffered a heartbreaking loss to 11th-seeded Loyola-Chicago, 63-62, in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

The Vols (26-9) made one last push at the end of the game, using an 8-0 run to take a 62-61 lead with 20 seconds remaining in the game, capped off by a three-point play from SEC Player of the Year Grant Williams.

But Loyola's Clayton Custer knocked down a 10-foot jumper with 3.6 seconds left on the clock to regain the lead. With no timeouts remaining, UT point guard Jordan Bone caught the ball near midcourt, sprinted to the 3-point arc and launched a contested three in heavy traffic that bounced off the rim as time expired.

The Big Orange had four players score in double-digits, as All-SEC wing Admiral Schofield led the way with 14 points on 5-of-10 shooting. Williams finished with 14 points, while Bone chipped in 13 and SEC Co-Sixth Man of the Year Lamonté Turner finished with 10.

"Congratulations to Loyola," Tennessee head coach Rick Barnes said. "They've got a really nice basketball team. But I am proud of our guys. They kept fighting today, found a way to stay in it, and put themselves in a position to have a chance to win it. That was obviously a tough way to lose it, but again, congratulations to Loyola.And we've got a lot to build on going forward."

Tennessee was hot out of the gates, opening the game on a 15-6 run that was capped off by a steal from Schofield, who took it the length of the court for a dunk. He had 11 of the points during the early run that concluded at the 15:37 mark as the Ramblers were forced to call a timeout.

Loyola-Chicago responded with a 23-10 swing after that timeout to take a 29-25 lead into halftime. UT struggled to connect on the offensive end of the floor during the opening 20 minutes, hitting only four of its final 18 shots in the half.

Schofield was forced to sit out a significant portion of the first half after picking up two fouls early in the frame and was unable to be a factor during Loyola's run.

Tennessee was unable to consistently stop the Ramblers (30-5) on the offensive end of the floor, as LUC shot 50 percent (22-of-44) from the field in the game.

NOTES: Loyola-Chicago lost to No. 3-seeded Michigan 69-57 in the Final Four.

2019 South Region — First Round

#15 Colgate (24-10) 70
#2 Tennessee (29-5) 77

March 22, 2019 • Nationwide Arena • Columbus, Ohio

No. 2 seed Tennessee outlasted a second-half rally by 15th-seeded Colgate at Nationwide Arena to advance past the first round in the South Region of the NCAA Tournament.

After the Raiders (24-11) stormed back from a 12-point deficit at halftime, the Vols (30-5) stepped up in the final minutes to put the game away. Tennessee hit four of its final five shots, all of which came from beyond the arc. The last three makes came off the right hand of All-SEC wing Admiral Schofield. The final dagger dropped through the nets with 45 seconds left to make it 73-64.

Schofield finished with a team-high 19 points, including 11 points in the second half to fuel Tennessee's offense. Point guard Jordan Bone added 16 points, five rebounds and three assists. Jordan Bowden chipped in 14 points and two steals off the bench, while Lamonté Turner added 13 points, six assists and three steals.

The Vols found success in the paint, outscoring the Raiders, 38-20, and recording five blocks. UT also had seven steals and forced 13 turnovers that led to 16 points.

Jordan Burns went off for Colgate, dropping 32 points, including eight of the Raiders' 15 total 3-pointers. He scored 20 points in the second half to keep CU in the game.

Colgate rallied back after halftime, using a 19-6 run to take its first lead of the game at the 12:09 mark. During that stretch, the Raiders caught fire from beyond the arc, knocking down five 3-pointers. On the other end of the floor, Tennessee began the half by shooting just 2-of-12 from the field.

The Big Orange responded with a 6-0 run of its own to regain the lead and never looked back, preventing any chance of the Raiders rallying to pull the upset.

Tennessee opened the game on a 9-0 run to take the early lead. The Raiders, who knocked down six 3-pointers in the frame, fought back to make it a one-possession game, but the Vols rattled off a 16-2 run to take a double-digit lead into halftime, 42-30.

Turner was active on both ends of the floor in the first half, dropping 10 points behind two 3-pointers and recording three steals on the defensive end of the floor. Bowden also chipped in 10 points on a pair of threes.

2019 South Region — Second Round

#10 Iowa (23-11) 70
#2 Tennessee (30-5) OT 77

March 24, 2019 • Nationwide Arena • Columbus, Ohio

For the sixth time since 2000, the Tennessee Volunteers are headed to the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament, following an 83-77 victory in overtime against Iowa at Nationwide Arena.

It's the first time since 2014 that Tennessee has reached the Sweet Sixteen, and head coach Rick Barnes is just the 12th head coach to lead a third Division I program to the Sweet Sixteen.

With 31 victories, Tennessee tied the program record for wins in a single season (2007-08). During the game, the Big Orange also broke the program record for assists in a single season (645), surpassing the previous mark of 637 during the 2007-08 campaign.

Admiral Schofield and Grant Williams led all scorers with 19 points each. Williams finished with seven rebounds, five assists, four steals and three blocks to fuel UT on both ends of the floor. His four steals matched the UT record for steals in an NCAA Tournament game.

Lamonté Turner totaled 15 points, six rebounds and three assists. However, the junior's presence was felt the most on the defensive end, where he helped the Vols slow down Iowa's 3-point shooting.

With the momentum in Iowa's favor, Tennessee found its rhythm again in overtime, scoring the first seven points to take a 78-71 lead. All-SEC point guard Jordan Bone finished with 14 points and beat the shot-clock buzzer with a key 3-pointer in overtime.

The Vols jumped out to an early 20-9 lead in the first six minutes, forcing Iowa to call a timeout. Schofield sparked the run by knocking down back-to-back threes to start the game.

Tennessee kept the pressure on the Hawkeyes the entire half, using an 18-3 run to make it a 40-17 game with six minutes left in the period. The Big Orange shot 51 percent from the floor and held a 24-8 advantage in the paint to take a commanding 49-28 lead into halftime. The 21-point lead was the largest halftime lead ever for the Vols in an NCAA Tournament game.

Iowa stormed back after halftime, outscoring Tennessee 30-12 during the first 13 minutes of the second half to make it a one-possession game. The Vols shot just 33 percent from the field in the second half and turned the ball over 10 times, which directly led to 17 points for the Hawkeyes.

Down two with 20 seconds left in regulation, Iowa's Joe Wieskamp drew a foul and knocked down both free throws to tie the game. Bone got an open look from three but just missed it, sending the game to overtime tied 71-71.

#3	Purdue (25-9)		99
#2	Tennessee (31-5)	OT	94

March 28, 2019 • KFC Yum! Center • Louisville, Ky.

Tennessee's impressive season came to an end as the Vols fell in the Sweet Sixteen to Purdue in overtime, 99-94, at the KFC Yum! Center.

After facing an 18-point deficit at the 16:19 mark and with all the momentum in Purdue's favor, the Vols stormed back with a 19-2 run to take their first lead since opening minutes of the game. A deep 3-pointer from All-SEC wing Admiral Schofield made it a 70-67 game and capped the run.

With five minutes left in regulation, both teams were knotted at 70-70. With the game swinging in Tennessee's favor, Ryan Cline erupted for the Boilermakers, knocking down four 3-pointers to keep Purdue in the game.

On the other end of the court, Grant Williams had two dunks in the final minute to keep the Vols ahead, including a putback with eight seconds left to give UT an 82-80 lead. Purdue's Carsen Edwards then drove to the basket to try and tie the game, but Williams blocked the shot out of bounds.

On the ensuing in-bounds play, Edwards caught the ball in the corner and got fouled on a 3-point attempt. He missed the first attempt but sank the final two to send the game to overtime, 82-82.

In the extra frame, the Boilermakers pulled ahead early to make it a two-possession game. The Vols couldn't convert on the offensive end and were forced to foul. Purdue iced the game by going 11-of-18 from the charity stripe in the final five minutes.

The All-SEC duo of Williams and Schofield led the Vols (31-6) in scoring, dropping 21 points each. Jordan Bowden finished with 16 points behind four 3-pointers, while Turner posted 15 points on 6-of-10 shooting. All-SEC point guard Jordan Bone rounded out UT's double-digit scorers, as he finished with 10 points.

Edwards led all scorers with 29 points, and Cline had 27 points on 10-of-13 shooting, including seven 3-pointers.

The Boilermakers shot a blazing 55 percent in the first half and knocked down seven 3-pointers. Edwards led all scorers in the period with 15 points while hitting four threes. Purdue also doubled UT's efforts in the paint, 16-8, to help take a 40-28 lead into halftime.

NOTES: Purdue lost to No. 1-seeded Virginia, 80-75, in the Elite Eight.

2021 Midwest Region — First Round

#12	Oregon State (17-12)		70
#5	Tennessee (18-8)		56

March 19, 2021 • Bankers Life Fieldhouse • Indianapolis, Ind.

Offensive struggles in the opening half plagued the Tennessee basketball team, as it fell to Oregon State, 70-56, at Bankers Life Fieldhouse in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

The loss ended the Volunteers' season, while Oregon State (18-12) advanced to face Oklahoma State in the second round.

Tennessee (18-9) was led in scoring by freshman Keon Johnson who totaled 14 points. Johnson also finished the day with six rebounds, three steals and a pair of assists.

Fellow freshman Jaden Springer and sophomore Santiago Vescovi also scored in double figures, adding 12 and 11 points, respectively.

Sophomore guard Josiah-Jordan James, added five points and was a beast on the boards, pulling in 13 rebounds, with four coming on the offensive glass.

His performance tied for the fifth-most rebounds ever by a Vol in the NCAA Tournament, tying Jarnell Stokes, who reeled in 13 in Tennessee's First Four victory over Iowa on March 19, 2014.

Oregon State dealt the game's opening strikes with multiple buckets from 3-point range and a stifling defensive effort that gave the Beavers an 18-7 lead midway through the first half.

The Beavers continued to put it on the Vols, extending their lead to as many as 19, but a 3-pointer from Victor Bailey Jr. and a transition layup from Johnson at the buzzer sent the Vols into the locker room with some momentum, despite trailing 33-19.

Out of the break, Oregon State remained in control, never letting its lead dip below double-digits across the first 10 minutes of the second half.

In the contest's final stages, the Beavers held off Tennessee's late flurry to cement the contest's final score.

Roman Silva led all scorer with 16 for Oregon State. Ethan Thompson had a 13-point, 10-rebound double-double for the Beavers.

NOTES: Oregon State lost to No. 2-seeded Houston, 67-61, in the Elite Eight.

#14 Longwood (26-7) 56
#3 Tennessee (27-7) 88

March 17, 2022 • Gainbridge Fieldhouse • Indianapolis, Ind.

Using hot shooting from start to finish, No. 3 seed Tennessee cruised by No. 14 seed Longwood Thursday at Gainbridge Fieldhouse, 88-56, to advance to the NCAA Tournament Round of 32.

Tennessee shot a season-high 60 percent from the field on Thursday (33-for-55), including 58 percent on 3-pointers (14-for-24). The performance set a program record for field-goal percentage in an NCAA Tournament game.

Santiago Vescovi was one of five double-figure scorers for Tennessee, pouring in a team-high 18 points on 6-for-8 shooting from 3-point range. Vescovi also had a team-high seven assists and a team-high-tying four steals.

Vescovi's six made 3-pointers tied for the most ever by a Vol in an NCAA Tournament game. He also set the Tennessee program record for best 3-point percentage in an NCAA Tournament game (.750).

Josiah-Jordan James scored 17 points on 6-for-9 shooting—including 15 in the first half—and grabbed nine rebounds. John Fulkerson had his highest scoring total since December with 15 points on 7-for-8 shooting, scoring 11 of Tennessee's first 17 points Thursday.

Kennedy Chandler had an impactful all-around performance with 13 points, five rebounds, five assists and four steals. Zakai Zeigler scored 10 points and had six assists.

Justin Hill and DeShaun Wade were the only Longwood players to score in double figures, logging 13 and 10 points, respectively.

After Longwood kept pace in the opening minutes, Tennessee took control of the game. Holding just a one point lead at 16-15 nearly nine minutes into the game, the Vols strung together a quick 13-2 run to take control—building a lead that would never be less than 10 for the remainder of the game.

Tennessee took a 54-29 lead into halftime, setting a season-high for first-half scoring. The Vols shot 67 percent from the field (20-for-30) before the break. Tennessee had 18 assists on those 20 made field goals in the first half.

2022 South Region — Second Round

#11 Michigan (19-14) 76
#3 Tennessee (27-8) 68

March 19, 2022 • Gainbridge Fieldhouse • Indianapolis, Ind.

Tennessee's season came to a close in Indianapolis for the second consecutive year, as the Vols dropped a back-and-forth affair to Michigan in the NCAA Tournament Round of 32, 76-68.

Tennessee finished the 2021-22 season with a final record of 27-8—marking the fourth-most wins in a season in program history.

Freshman guard Kennedy Chandler led the Vols with 19 points and nine assists. Josiah-Jordan James was Tennessee's other double figure scorer with 13 points. Junior forward Uros Plavsic finished with nine points and nine rebounds.

After a tightly-contested second half, Tennessee took a 60-54 lead on a free throw from James at the 8:27 mark—the Vols' largest lead of the game. However, the Wolverines responded with a 14-4 run down the stretch and took control of the game in the final minutes.

With 1:32 remaining and Michigan leading 68-64 with possession of the ball, Tennessee forced a Wolverine turnover and got a driving layup from Santiago Vescovi that cut the lead to two points at 68-66.

On the ensuing possession, Michigan's Eli Brooks converted a hook shot to push the Wolverines' lead back to four points with 53 seconds left. Zakai Zeigler missed a 3-pointer on the other end for the Vols, and Michigan was able to close out the game by going 6-for-6 at the free-throw line in the final 36 seconds.

Over the last nine minutes of game time, the Vols made just four of their final 17 field-goal attempts.

In the first half, Michigan led for more than 15 minutes of game time, but Tennessee took a 37-32 lead into the halftime break, as the Vols closed the opening period on a 13-2 run.

The Wolverines raced out to a 10-2 lead in the opening three minutes of the game, but never extended the lead to more than eight points.

Dickinson finished with game-highs in points (27) and rebounds (11) to lead the Wolverines, while UM guard Eli Brooks scored 18 of his 23 points in the second half.

NOTES: Michigan lost to No. 2-seeded Villanova, 63-55, in the Sweet Sixteen.

#13 Louisiana (26-8) 55
#4 Tennessee (24-10) 58

March 16, 2023 • Amway Center • Orlando, Fla.

Fourth-seeded Tennessee fended off a late rally by No. 13 seed Louisiana and is on to the NCAA Tournament round of 32 after securing a 58-55 win Thursday at the Amway Center.

The Vols are set to face off with fifth-seeded Duke Saturday with a trip to the Sweet Sixteen on the line.

Graduate Tyreke Key, playing in his first career NCAA Tournament game, led the Vols with 12 points in 31 minutes—tied for his most minutes played since December. Jahmai Mashack was the only other Vol in double figures, scoring 11 points on 4-of-6 shooting, dishing three assists and grabbing two steals.

Uros Plavsic started and scored nine points on 4-of-5 shooting.

After closing the first half on an 11-0 run and then outscoring Louisiana 13-6 in the opening 6:06 of the second half, Tennessee extended its lead to as many as 18 points.

The Vols held an 18-point lead on three separate occasions in a two-minute span eight before a 13-0 Louisiana run cut the Tennessee lead down to just five points on a 3-pointer from Kobe Julien with 7:29 remaining, 48-43.

Coming out of a timeout, Tennessee answered with a 6-2 spurt—with four points coming by Mashack—to pull back in front by nine points by the under-four minute media timeout.

With just over a minute to go and Tennessee leading by eight, Louisiana staged one final comeback attempt—scoring five straight points and cutting Tennessee's lead to 56-53 with 23 seconds to play. James and Julian Phillips each went 1-for-2 at the free-throw line in the final 20 seconds to secure the win for the Vols.

In the first half, UT turned the ball over 12 times, but closed the period on an 11-0 run and took a 30-19 lead into the halftime break.

The Vols led by as many as eight points in the opening 10 minutes of the game at 19-11 before Louisiana scored eight straight to tie the game up at 19 with 4:43 to go in the first half.

Of Louisiana's 19 first-half points, 12 came from Jordan Brown—who was 5-for-8 from the field in the opening period. No other Ragin' Cajun made more than one field goal in the first half.

Brown and Kobe Julien lead Louisiana with 16 and 15 points, respectively.

2023 East Region — Second Round

#5 Duke (27-9) 52
#4 Tennessee (25-10) 65

March 18, 2023 • Amway Center • Orlando, Fla.

A career-high-tying 27 points from Olivier Nkamhoua and a suffocating defensive performance led fourth-seeded Tennessee Saturday, as the Vols clinched the ninth Sweet Sixteen appearance in program history with a 65-52 win over No. 5 seed Duke.

Nkamhoua's 27 points—23 of which came in the second half—tied his career-high set on Jan. 28 against Texas and came on 10-of-13 shooting from the field, including 3-of-4 from 3-point range. From the 8:43 mark to the 4:16 mark of the second half, Nkamhoua scored 13 straight points for the Vols. He scored 17 of UT's final 19 points.

All-SEC guard Santiago Vescovi was Tennessee's second-most productive scorer, pouring in 14 points with four made 3-pointers and also racking up five assists and five rebounds.

Durham, North Carolina, native Jonas Aidoo also made an impact with an all-around performance for the Vols—notching eight points, five rebounds and three blocks.

Tennessee's smothering defensive performance was evident on the scoreboard, as Duke's 52 points were not only a season-low for the Blue Devils, but tied for the fewest in an NCAA Tournament game in the program's storied history. The Vols forced Duke to commit 15 turnovers.

After holding a six-point lead at halftime, Tennessee extended its lead to nine points early in the second half thanks to a pair of 3-pointers from Josiah-Jordan James and Nkamhoua, but Duke was quick to battle back—cutting the Vols' lead down to just two points with 15:40 to go after a quick 7-0 run.

For the first of several times in the second half, the Vols responded with a quick spurt of their own to maintain distance from the Blue Devils—outscoring Duke 11-4 over the next four minutes to pull back in front by nine with 11:54 remaining, 44-35.

Immediately following Tennessee's run, Duke responded with a run of its own—cutting UT's lead to just four with 9:10 to go, 46-42.

Then entered Nkamhoua, who during a 13-6 Tennessee run scored all 13 of the Vols' points to put Tennessee in control for good—up 11 with 4:16 to go.

Following a tightly-contested opening seven minutes, Duke created some separation with a 9-0 run to pull in front by six at 19-13 with 8:05 to go in the first half.

Tennessee, however, responded to its largest deficit of the half by closing the opening period on a 14-2 run over the final 7:49.

#9	Florida Atlantic (34-3)	62

Tennessee's 2022-23 season came to a close Thursday at Madison Square Garden, as the Volunteers fell to Florida Atlantic in the Sweet Sixteen, 62-55.

Tennessee finishes its memorable campaign with a 25-11 overall record, having reached the ninth Sweet Sixteen in program history.

Sophomore Jonas Aidoo tallied 10 points and seven rebounds, while senior Josiah-Jordan James added 10 points and six rebounds. All-SEC senior Santiago Vescovi had nine points, seven rebounds and four assists.

The Vols shot just 33 percent from the field in the loss.

Tennessee controlled the first half and the opening eight minutes of the second half, but with the Vols leading 39-33 with just over 12 minutes to play, Florida Atlantic exploded for an 18-2 run to pull in front 51-41 by the 6:47 mark.

"They made shots at the right time," Tennessee head coach Rick Barnes said. "I thought they came up with some really big offensive rebounds at a time when we really needed to finish our defensive possession."

The Vols were able to cut the Owls' lead back down to five points after a quick 7-2 spurt capped off by a three from James that made it 55-50 with 3:37 to go, but Florida Atlantic then outscored Tennessee 4-0 over the next two minutes of game time to regain control.

FAU out-rebounded the bigger Vols, 40-36. The Owls converted their 12 offensive boards into 14 second-chance points and extended multiple key late-game possessions by hitting the offensive glass.

Tennessee held a steady lead for most of the first half but was unable to pull away, taking a 27-22 lead into the halftime break. Florida Atlantic's 22 points marked their fewest in any half this season.

The Vols led by as many as nine points on three different occasions during the opening period but were held scoreless for the final 3:17 of the half. Tennessee shot just 31.3 percent from the field during the first half, while Florida Atlantic out-rebounded the Vols 22-17 in the opening stanza.

Tennessee's most consistent source of offense in the first half came from senior 7-footer Uros Plavsic, who had eight points.

NOTES: FAU lost to No. 5 seed San Diego State in the Final Four.

VOLMANAC

By Ben Byrd

"Intercollegiate basketball will make its initial appearance in Knoxville tonight when in the YMCA gymnasium at the University of Tennessee, the Volunteers will meet the five hailing from the Central University of Kentucky at Danville."

— The Knoxville Journal and Tribune
Thursday, Dec. 16, 1909

It had taken the new game invented by Dr. James Naismith 18 years to arrive on campus, but UT students were ready for it. A capacity crowd of 200 crammed into the box-like YMCA gym atop "The Hill" that night to watch the beginning of a new chapter in the school's athletics history. They came away excited and pleased, for the Vols won that historic game, 33-31, with an assist from a slow train from Kentucky. The Central Kentucky team was more than one hour late arriving at the gym. During the wait the fans were entertained, if one can call it that, by a skirmish between the UT women's team and the Central High girls, which was won by the Lady Bobcats 21-1.

The starting lineup for that first Tennessee team was composed of Howard Sandberg and DeWitt Welcker at forwards, Jasper Ring at center, and Captain Solon Kipp and Earl Ketchen at guards. Sandberg, who stood all of 5-9 at his forward position, led the scoring with 13 points. The Vols were off and running.

The first two Tennessee teams did not have a coach, but in the program's third season, 1910-11, football coach Andrew A. Stone donned a second hat and served in that capacity. After that season the Vols moved their home court to the Downtown YMCA gym at the corner of Commerce and Vine, where both playing and practice conditions were better than those afforded by the little gym on The Hill. The early Vol teams were neither especially good nor particularly bad, generally hovering around the .500 mark against a mixed schedule of college and YMCA foes. But the 1913-14 team broke that pattern by recording a 15-2 won-lost record and the reason was the appearance on the scene of Tennessee's first genuine superstar cager.

Lum Reeder, the son of a Knox County sheriff, had honed his skills shooting at a basket that had been hung up for him at the county jail. Two-hand shots were the standard in those days, but young Lum broke with tradition and learned to unload deadly one-hand shots while on the move. He made his UT debut by scoring 27 points in his first game as a freshman forward, this in an era when entire teams averaged little more than 20 points per game. A few games later in that campaign he rang up 41 points in a 49-16 victory over Maryville College, a UT scoring record that stayed on the books until Carl Widseth scored 47 in a game against Auburn in 1956. Unfortunately for UT, his career was interrupted twice, once when he transferred to the University of Delaware where he made the All-Eastern team in 1916, and later by World War I.

Early Tennessee basketball teams played a game that would scarcely be recognizable to today's fans. The ball was returned to center court after each score for a center jump, thus interrupting the flow of play. The small gyms of the time often featured overhanging balconies which forced a lower trajectory on shots from the corner, and the home floor advantage was a tangible reality and not just a psychological factor. Home teams furnished the referees in most instances, often from the ranks of their own former players. Reeder once protested a call in a game at Virginia and woke up a few minutes later stretched out on the floor. The referee also was the host school's heavyweight boxing champion!

There were no basketball scholarships then, and local youths made up a large percentage of the Vol squads. Reeder, Vic Klein, Lloyd Wolfe and Frank Callaway, all later Knoxville business or civic leaders, were among the outstanding cagers of the teens. Basketball was the only UT sport to stay at it through the WWI years, although many of the better players, including Reeder, were away in service. The 1917-18 team played a nine-game schedule, winning two, losing six, and tying one. The deadlock came about when the Maryville College team, enraged by a call that had enabled the Vols to tie the game at the end, walked off the floor and refused to return for an overtime period.

1920s: Ups And Downs

The basketball team finally had an on-campus home of its own when Jefferson Hall was built at the site of the old Waite Field at the corner of Cumberland Avenue and Fifteenth Street in time for the opening of the 1922-23 season. The cage program appeared to have gotten an immediate lift from the new arena as the '23 team went 15-2, led by such stalwarts as David Beane, Roe Campbell and Earl Keister. That team was perhaps the best-equipped to make a run at the Southern Conference championship of any of the 1920s Volunteer teams, but its best player, Beane, was declared academically ineligible shortly before the conference tournament, and the Vols lost in the first round to the University of Georgia Bulldogs.

Head football coaches had continued to serve as head basketball coaches through the teens and early 1920s, but Robert R. Neyland put a stop to that practice when he succeeded M.B. Banks as the head grid coach in 1926. Neyland put the basketball job off on his end coach and good friend, Bill Britton. The Britton era of UT basketball was largely a win-some, lose-some operation except for the memorable season of 1927-28, which produced the only winless varsity team in UT history. The Vols of that infamous campaign finished 0-12, despite boasting one of the South's finest players in center Elvin Butcher. With Butcher playing brilliantly, the Vols had a narrow escape in their season-finale with Vanderbilt at Jefferson Hall, leading most of the game before Vandy pulled out a 28-26 decision at the end.

Stars from the great football teams of the late 1920s and early 1930s, Bobby Dodd, Buddy Hackman, Beattie Feathers and Hugh Faust were among the grid standouts who doubled as cagers in the winter. But the teams remained rather ordinary, for the most part, and when the Southeastern Conference was formed in 1933, the UT program was no better than middle-of-the-pack in this new league.

Clevenger Leads Vols to First Winning Season and an Undefeated Campaign

World War I didn't give college students much to cheer about, as all collegiate sports on the University of Tennessee campus came to a halt - all of them except basketball. Many college athletes left the athletic scene to turn their focus on fighting for the United States. During that same time, Tennessee basketball produced some of its finest years as a young program in search of success.

After struggling through the pioneer years of Tennessee basketball, the Vols finally broke through during the 1913-14 season, finishing with a 15-2 record under coach Zora G. Clevenger. The Vols cruised past several area colleges, including Maryville, Carson-Newman and Chattanooga, as well as future conference foe Alabama. Two YMCA teams were on the schedule, and even a Feb. 3 contest with Knoxville High School created interest. The game, however, was less than a showdown as the Vols crushed KHS 52-18.

The only losses of the 1913-14 season were consecutive setbacks to Kentucky on back-to-back days. In the middle of a road trip in which Tennessee played six games in six days, Kentucky defeated the Vols by scores of 20-14 and 20-18. Still, the Volunteer basketball program was enjoying its first taste of success.

The following season was another respectable campaign for Tennessee, as Clevenger's troops went 9-2 on the season. Over one-third of the schedule was spent playing the Vols' new rival, Kentucky. The Vols split a four-game series with Kentucky, winning both games in Knoxville while losing both in Lexington.

Perhaps the pinnacle of the early years of Tennessee basketball came during the 1915-16 season, Clevenger's final season as the Vols' coach. But it was one to remember, as the nine players on the squad put Tennessee basketball on the map. UT finished the season with a perfect 12-0 record and was recognized as the best team in the South. It still stands as Tennessee's only basketball season without a loss.

During the perfect season, the Vols won by an average of more than 15 points per game. They capped off the year with a five-day, five-game road trip through Kentucky. The trip was started with a 63-33 victory over Cumberland College, the Vols' largest margin of victory, and finished with a two-point win over Transylvania, UT's smallest margin of victory. The road trip included a 28-17 win over Kentucky, the only meeting between the schools that season.

In a three-season span, Tennessee produced a 36-4 record. All four losses came at the hands of basketball powerhouse Kentucky. Other than the men in blue, the Vols swept through the rest of the South. Those three seasons were just what the Vols needed to jump-start memorable years to come for Tennessee basketball.

First All-American Brings First SEC Crown

A number of events took place in the mid-1930s that combined to move Tennessee into the front ranks of college basketball. First, Neyland took a year's leave from UT to rejoin the Army for duty in Panama. That moved Britton into the head football coaching position for the season of 1935 and prompted the school, for the first time, to hire a full-time basketball coach in Blair Gullion (pronounced: GULL-yin), a former Purdue player. When Gullion reported for preseason practice in the fall of 1935, he was greeted by perhaps the three best players ever to adorn a Volunteers roster at the same time: senior center Harry Anderson, junior forward Floyd "Biggy" Marshall and junior guard Gene Johnson.

Responding positively to the new coach's strict discipline and emphasis on the basics, the 1935-36 Vols posted a 12-6 regular-season record that included the Vols' first-ever win over an Adolph Rupp-coached Kentucky team. Here another happenstance entered into the picture. UT was now playing its home games at the Alumni Memorial Gymnasium just north of the football stadium, Jefferson Hall having burned down a couple of years earlier. By good fortune the SEC postseason championship tournament was held at Alumni Gym in March of 1936, giving Gullion's troops the home floor advantage to go along with their considerable playing skills. The time had arrived for the basketball Vols to step forward.

They did. After blowing past Auburn in the first test, the Vols ousted pre-tourney favorite Kentucky in the semi-finals, 39-28, the same score by which they had beaten the Wildcats in regular-season play. In the championship game with Alabama, they fell behind badly with just two minutes left in the first half, trailing by the rather embarrassing score of 13-4. This was the last season that college basketball was played under the old center-jump rule, and it was the agile Anderson's ability at winning the tip that enabled the Vols to rally. With the captain controlling the tip on every possession, the Vols reeled off seven straight points to cut the halftime lead to 13-11. Tennessee then took command in the second half to win 29-25 and bring the school its first SEC championship; in no other season and in no other sport had Tennessee won an SEC title until March 2, 1936.

The triumph established basketball as a major sport on campus. Anderson became UT's first All American and he, Marshall and Johnson were elevated to hero status formerly reserved for football stars. All over Knoxville backyard baskets sprang up, and for the first time Dr. Naismith's crazy game had become a local craze.

But the man who had put UT on the college cage map didn't stay around to build on his success. After three seasons at the Vol helm, Gullion abruptly resigned a few weeks before the 1938-39 season to take a similar position at Cornell. He was succeeded by a proven veteran who had previously enjoyed successful tenures at Kentucky and Miami of Ohio, John Mauer.

Anderson is UT's First All-American

When Harry Anderson walked out of Alumni Gym on March 2, 1936, he left the building a winner. Wearing an orange jersey with "Vols" scripted across his chest for the last time, Anderson had just led Tennessee to its first SEC championship.

While Anderson played before Tennessee's modern records, he remains one of the greatest players ever to suit up for Tennessee. And he was Tennessee's first All-American honoree.

Anderson, who was a 6-foot-3 center, was joined by teammates Floyd "Biggy" Marshall and Gene Johnson as perhaps the best trio of UT basketball players to ever hit the hardwood in one season. Although Anderson's size was short compared to today's standards for big men, Anderson could dominate a game due to his outstanding leaping ability. His bread and butter, though, was his uncanny pursuit of jump balls at mid-court.

"No one who played in the SEC in our time had as much leaping ability as Harry," Marshall once said of his former teammate.

During Anderson's playing days, each time a team scored a basket, the ball was reset at half court and a jump ball was conducted. Anderson's control of jump balls was the key to UT's run through the 1936 SEC Tournament.

The Vols had beaten Auburn and Kentucky to get to the finals against Alabama. Tennessee trailed 13-4 with two minutes remaining in the first half before Anderson brought the Vols back into the game. He controlled every tip for the remainder of the half, allowing UT to cut the deficit to 13-11. The Vols went on to win the game 29-25 and claim their first SEC championship in any sport.

Anderson's dominating performance in the SEC Championship and his regular-season success opened eyes and earned him a spot on the Converse All-American team. It was the first time a UT basketball player had earned such an honor.

Also a track star, Anderson was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame in 1999.

1940s:
Mauer Leads Vols to Two SEC Titles

The momentum that Gullion had established didn't miss a beat under Mauer. The new coach found the nucleus of a future championship team already on hand in sophomore guard Gilbert Huffman, sophomore center Frank Thomas and freshman forward Bernie Mehen. Two seasons later that trio led the Vols to the 1941 SEC championship with a 36-33 win over top-seeded Kentucky in the finals of the conference tourney at Louisville, Ky. Mehen, called "Houdini" because of his ball-handling wizardry, became the school's second All-American and Huffman the third.

Mauer then chalked up a second SEC title two years later, when his 1942-43 team, led by center Dick Mehen, Bernie's younger brother, handed Kentucky another stunning upset loss in the tourney finals at Louisville, 33-30, with Dick Mehen scoring 18 points.

The Mauer years were a time of plenty for UT basketball. In addition to the two conference titles, the big, jovial coach authored one of the great Vol cage victories of all time when his '41-42 team put an end to then-No. 1-ranked Long Island University's 23-game win streak, 36-33, in the Sugar Bowl Tournament. When he left to take the Army coaching job after the 1946-47 season, Mauer departed with an eight-season record of 127 wins and only 41 losses for a .756 winning percentage, highest ever by a Vol coach.

Emmett Lowery, another former Purdue star, succeeded Mauer in 1947 and brought a new dimension to Tennessee basketball. An acknowledged master of the fast-break offense, Lowery soon had the Vols racing up and down the floor at full steam. Led by a holdover standout from the Mauer regime, forward Paul (Lefty) Walther, the new coach's first two Vol teams posted records of 20-5 and 19-7 and drew capacity crowds at Alumni Gym with their entertaining style of play. Walther, who had joined the growing list of All-Americans, was part clown at heart, and his pre-game passing and dribbling antics often brought down the house.

Alumni Gymnasium Gives Vols The Best Homecourt In The Region

It was Dec. 17, 1932, and the season-opener was minutes away. Fans walked through the five arched doorways decorated with streetlights and tiny windows above. Inside, protected from the cold, nearly 400 spectators occupied the 3,200 wooden seats, most of which were lofted in the balcony more than 10 feet above the floor.

Although the crowd was somewhat small for Tennessee's first basketball game at the new Alumni Memorial Gymnasium, the Vols didn't hesitate to put on a show, pounding Lincoln Memorial University 41-18. The victory was the first of many at the new gym on The Hill, rated the best facility in the South in 1932.

Located on the south side of The Hill adjacent to the football field, Alumni Gym was built in 1931 to be the new basketball home of the Vols. UT alumni had wanted to build a memorial to those graduates who had lost their lives in World War I and the Spanish-American War. Thus, Alumni Memorial Auditorium-Gymnasium was built to take the place of Jefferson Hall as the campus' primary multi-purpose facility. Along with basketball, the gym was used for indoor physical education and auditorium events since the three-story facility was one of the largest buildings on campus at the time.

The interior of the facility fit the mold of a 1930s basketball gym. The basketball court was the centerpiece surrounded by three walls of seats and a stage serving as the fourth wall. A handful of rows were tucked below the balcony to provide courtside seating, while the majority of the seats were located on the steep overhang above the floor. The stage, however, provided the opportunity to use the facility as an auditorium with a seating capacity of 3,800. Surrounding the gym were wings used for physical education. Each wing contained an auxiliary gymnasium suitable for handball and other intramural sports. But it's the basketball memories that keep the gym alive today.

1950s: Stars Widseth and Tormohlen Set Scoring and Rebounding Records

The Emmett Lowery era reached an early peak in January 1950 when his third Vol team put an end to Kentucky's five-year, 67-game winning streak within the Southeastern Conference, 66-53. Captain Art Burris outdueled his opposite center, the Wildcats' seven-foot Bill Spivey, with a 28-point performance as the Vols led from buzzer to buzzer. After the game, the overflow crowd stormed onto the court to lift Burris and the other Vol players for a victory ride to the dressing room in one of the wildest scenes UT basketball has ever produced.

The gentlemanly Lowery stayed on for 12 seasons, fashioning a solid winning record of 169-110 and developing such headline players as scoring champion Carl Widseth and his mid-1950s sidekick Ed Wiener, Herman Thompson, big Gene Tormohlen, the Vols' all-time rebound leader, and Dalen Showalter. His successor, longtime assistant John Sines, fared less well, and after his third season, 1961-62, ended in a 4-19 disaster, UT basketball underwent a historic coaching change.

Tormohlen: Chairman of the Boards

One thing about Tennessee basketball in the 1950s was that if a shot went up and didn't go in, Gene Tormohlen was almost a sure bet to bring down the rock. Grabbing a school-record 1,113 career rebounds will make you "Chairman of the Boards."

"Bumper," as he was referred to due to his physical play, was a master at rebounding. He helped turn rebounding into an art form during his college playing days. And although the post play was as physical as it gets, Tormohlen says it was his finesse that helped him own the boards.

"Rebounding is hard work," said Tormohlen, who is considered Tennessee's first accomplished big man. "There are certain ingredients you look for in rebounding, but the key is to go after every rebound as if it were yours."

From 1956-59, the 6-foot-8 Tormohlen owned the middle of the paint for the Vols. His art of rebounding became a trademark of sorts, making him a regular vacuum cleaner around the rim, as well as a two-time All-SEC performer. But what may be most impressive about his longstanding rebounding records at Tennessee is that Tormohlen accomplished all his feats in a three-year career with the Vols. In his playing days, freshmen were limited to the freshman squad and only upperclassmen were welcome on the varsity.

Still, only three years of playing time didn't limit Tormohlen's potential or achievements. During the 1957-58 season, Tormohlen's junior year, he pulled down 384 boards for the season, a Tennessee record. His 372 rebounds his senior season ranks second on the school list. His name is on the list one more time for his sophomore campaign, when he grabbed 357, good enough for fourth. Sixteen times during his career he had at least 22 rebounds in a game. One time, while playing with a cut that required eight stitches on a shooting-hand finger, he scored 15 points and gathered 17 rebounds.

"I'm proud of the fact that I hold some of those rebounding records," Tormohlen said. "But I'll be honest, we didn't make many shots."

No matter how many shots Tennessee missed, "Bumper" was reliable enough to clean up the garbage under the rim. Tormohlen, who is a member of the Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame for having led tiny Holland High School to its first sectional championship as a sophomore in 1953.

He amazingly averaged 16.9 rebounds in his career with the Vols, another rebounding record. On the season average list, Tormohlen's senior year saw him grab an average of 17.7 boards per game for a UT record. He also earned Converse All-America honors that year for his accomplishments on the hardwood. His junior year he averaged 16.7, and his sophomore year he averaged 16.2 to sweep the top three spots on the season rebounding average list.

One rebounding record that Tormohlen does not hold at Tennessee is most rebounds in a single game. Herb Neff holds that honor for having grabbed 36 against Georgia Tech in 1952. However, Tormohlen ranks second with 31, third with 28 and fourth with 27. His name appears 16 times among the top-23 performances on the list.

"Rebounding is one thing in basketball that you can go after and it's not a selfish thing," he said. "It's hard work that benefits the team. We all played rough, but I always felt I could play against anybody."

Former Knoxville Journal writer Ben Byrd perhaps paid best tribute to Tormohlen in 1959 when he penned: "There will be others just as big, maybe bigger. Some will shoot better, some will play defense better, some run more gracefully. But when there is elbow-flying, rib-thumping, eyeball-scratching action under the boards, you can lay long odds that there won't be another like Gene Tormohlen. Not for a long, long time."

Following his successful career at Tennessee, the Holland, Ind., native was a second-round selection of the Syracuse Nationals in the 1959 NBA Draft. He went on to a nine-year professional career that included a six-year stint with the NBA's St. Louis and Atlanta Hawks.

After his playing career was over, he moved to the bench where he was an NBA assistant coach for 12 years. Twice he served as an interim head coach in the NBA. After his time coaching, Tormohlen also served as a collegiate scout for several years.

Gene Tormohlen (pronounced: tohr-MO-lin) still ranks as the greatest rebounder in Tennessee basketball history.

Enter Ray Mears; Vols Become SEC Champions

The new man's name was Ray Mears. A Miami (Ohio) graduate, he was fresh off winning the NCAA small college championship at Wittenberg University. His style featured a deliberate offense, a zone defense, a heavy dose of discipline for his players and a bagful of sideshow tricks for the paying customers. He introduced the practice of a pep band blaring out at the court level, and his players executed fancy pregame drills and, later on, even had one of his athletes riding around the court on a unicycle to help get the home crowd excited.

Behind that carnival-show exterior was a shrewd tactician and strategist. Mears' teams played basketball in much the way Gen. Robert R. Neyland's teams had played football. They didn't beat themselves.

The new coach was fortunate in inheriting a rich stockpile of good young talent from the Sines era, most notably sophomore forward A.W. Davis and junior point guard Danny Schultz. Although both would have flourished as high scorers in a higher-powered system of offense, Davis and Schultz gladly accepted the deliberate pace of the new coach's game and led the way to a quick resurgence in Tennessee basketball fortunes. The 1962-63 team posted a 13-11 worksheet, which included a pair of upset wins over mighty Kentucky, and the 1963-64 team climbed to 16-8. In Mears' third season, when Davis was the captain and heartbeat of the team, the Vols reached the 20-win level for the first time in 17 years and finished second in the Southeastern Conference race. The 1966 Vols provided a harbinger of things to come by closing out the season with a 69-62 victory over Kentucky, which came to Knoxville with a 23-0 mark.

UT basketball had been moved into a new home, the Armory-Fieldhouse, in 1959, but the interest stirred by Mears's success soon rendered the 7,500-seat facility obsolete. Thanks to a generous gift by industrialist William B. Stokely, Jr., the old fieldhouse was remodeled and enlarged into a 12,700-seat arena, Stokely Center. The timing was perfect. The Vols were about to unveil their first SEC championship team in 24 years.

The 1966-67 team was short on experience and depth as it set out on what promised to be an uphill journey. But somehow the chemistry turned out just right for a lineup composed of senior Ron Widby and junior Tom Hendrix at forwards, junior Tom Boerwinkle at center and sophomores Billy Justus and Billy Hann in the backcourt. The two guards had never played a minute of varsity action, and Boerwinkle, UT's first seven-footer, had played very sparingly. But the Fearless Five, as they came to be known, overturned the odds with three magnificent road wins against the other contenders.

First they knocked off Florida, the eventual runner-up, with an almost perfectly played game at Gainesville, 66-53. Then they outlasted Kentucky, 52-50, in a tense overtime duel at Lexington. But those two were just warmups for the stormy season-finale at Mississippi State.

The Vols had to win that game to take the SEC title, and they couldn't have picked a tougher foe. With Tennessee's Widby and State's David Williams swapping dead-eye jumpers from the perimeter, the two teams wound up all even at 64-64 after regulation time. A cautious first overtime ended 66-66. After Justus missed a pair of free throws with four seconds left, the second overtime also wound up in a tie. But in the third extra period, with players and fans alike near exhaustion, Justus got one last chance. With the count tied at 76, he once again went to the stripe with four seconds remaining. This time he made them both, and the Vols held on to win what many longtime observers believe was the greatest game in UT basketball history.

That not only earned the Vols the SEC crown; it also won them the school's first-ever berth in the NCAA Tournament. This time, the cat jumped the other way. In another tense battle at Evanston, Ill., the Fearless Five was ousted in its first test by Dayton, 53-52, as Widby's last-second shot caromed off the rim.

Vols Celebrate First Season in Stokely with SEC Championship

The first Tennessee basketball game in the Armory-Fieldhouse was nothing but a glimpse of the future. The 72-71 victory over Wyoming gave the idea that basketball in the new arena would be a successful era. And the temporary wall that stood on the east side of the arena was a hint that expansion was on the way.

To kick off the 1958-59 season, the University of Tennessee had erected a new facility for basketball. Replacing Alumni Gym was a difficult thing to do, but the state-of-the-art arena would quickly remind the team and fans that the new facility was worth the $1.5 million.

Equipped with huge steel trusses that lined the walls and roof, the gigantic new arena could seat 7,000 people in its opening years. The west end of the arena had two levels of permanent seats while temporary bleachers lined the baselines. On the east end, more temporary bleachers rose from the floor to the temporary wall. Along each baseline was a row of folding chairs, primarily for the teams to sit. Other than basketball, the Armory-Fieldhouse was home to supply rooms for Army and Air Force ROTC, offices and classrooms.

The temporary wall was the key to the Armory-Fieldhouse. In 1965, a $500,000 gift from William B. Stokely Jr. jump-started a $3 million expansion on the facility - an expansion that had been designed in the original blueprints of the facility. By the 1966-67 season, the Armory-Fieldhouse was doubled in size and seating capacity rose to 12,700 just in time for the SEC championship season. Stokely had died before the completion of the expansion project, and the Armory-Fieldhouse became William B. Stokely Athletics Center.

Stokely Athletics Center was a special home to Tennessee basketball. It housed more fans than ever before. It featured a newly designed Tartan rubber playing surface after the expansion to the arena. But more importantly, it featured great teams. Tennessee teams were extremely successful in the arena, compiling a 321-69 record at Stokely and winning four SEC championships.

Stokely was vacted during the winter of 2012-13, as the university has plans to raze the facility and repurpose the land it occupies.

Ray Mears Brings Showmanship And Championships

Ray Mears was hired as head basketball coach in 1962 after he had just won the NCAA small college championship the previous year as coach at Wittenberg University. But this was Division I, and Mears was brought in to revitalize a struggling Tennessee basketball program. The Vols were coming off back-to-back losing seasons and were caught in a decade and a half of finishing no higher than fourth in the SEC.

All that changed when Mears took over. His first year saw the Vols finish with a 13-11 record, including a season sweep over archrival Kentucky. In fact, Adolph Rupp's Kentucky teams grew to be Mears' top foe, despite the fact that Mears and Rupp were friends away from the court.

"Beating Adolph Rupp was my favorite," Mears admitted. "We ended up tying Kentucky, but seven of them were against Joe Hall so I can't claim I beat Rupp every time. We had the best record against Kentucky and the best record against Rupp."

In Mears' second season at Tennessee, the Vols were 16-8 and finished second in the conference. Then there was a 20-5 year, an 18-8 year, a 21-7 SEC title year and so on. Mears had sent a breath of fresh air through the Tennessee basketball program.

Not only did the legendary coach bring success to the hardwood, he brought entertainment to the fans. Mears instructed the pep band to play in the stands of Stokely Athletics Center during games - a first for its time. With the pep band blasting traditional fight songs, Mears' squad would perform dazzling tricks during pre-game warm-ups. From fancy passes to mind-boggling dribbling skills, the Vols looked more like the Harlem Globetrotters as they prepared for their opponent. It's said Mears even went to the extent of having one of his players ride around the court on a unicycle to fire up a sleepy crowd at Stokely.

"We brought the pep band and marched the band around the floor and all that kind of stuff," Mears said. "We had a guy that juggled basketballs and we had warm-up drills. We did a lot of things like that. We were trying to get people interested in basketball. I tried to get the crowd excited. We got people coming at 7:00 for a 7:30 game."

People flocked to campus to see the newest attraction - the Tennessee basketball team. But they also enjoyed the side antics as well. Record numbers came to Stokely Athletics Center, eventually forcing the expansion of the facility in 1966 to twice its original size.

On the sidelines, Mears was a basketball mastermind. His slow, deliberate offense gelled with his zone defense. His strict and disciplined basketball style carried the Vols to an SEC championship in the 1966-67 season and the school's first NCAA Tournament appearance.

Success was common during the Mears era. During his 15 years (1963-77) as head coach of the Vols, Mears collected 278 wins against 112 losses for a .713 winning percentage. Tennessee won three conference titles under Mears - 1966-67, 1971-72 and 1976-77. And during his tenure, only twice did UT finish lower than third in the SEC. He was hired to turn the program around. He did his job and then some.

Ray Mears took Tennessee basketball to a level it had never been before. His actions on the court made him a legendary coach. His knack for entertainment made him legendary with the fans. Both make Mears a legendary man.

On March 1, 2006, a banner with Mears' name on it was unveiled in the rafters over the student section of Thompson-Boling Arena.

Ray Mears passed away on June 11, 2007.

Texas Western Wasn't the First to Challenge Rupp's Runts

On the evening of March 5, 1966, the Tennessee Volunteers had nothing to do but finish a decent basketball season. The Vols were 17-8 and 9-6 in the SEC heading into their final game of the season, and the NCAA Tournament only took conference champions at the time. On the other side of the court, the No. 1-ranked Kentucky Wildcats were planning their run at a national championship. They had played 23 games and won every one of them.

Labeled Rupp's Runts, coach Adolph Rupp's squad was loaded with talent but short on size. The tallest players on the team, center Thad Jaracz and guard Tommy Kron stood at 6-foot-5. Forwards Larry Conley and Pat Riley stood 6-4, and the other guard, Louie Dampier, was 6-0.

Probabilities said the Vols were going to get whipped by the 'Cats. A week earlier, Tennessee had gotten beat in Lexington by top-ranked Kentucky, 78-64. But this time, probabilities were wrong. UT captains Larry McIntosh and Howard Bayne helped push the overmatched Vols past Kentucky 69-62 to give the Wildcats their first loss of the season.

Tennessee closed the season at 18-8 and finished tied for third in the SEC. Kentucky, however, went all the way to the NCAA finals where they faced Texas Western (now UTEP). In one of the most memorable and influential finals in NCAA history, Texas Western shocked the Wildcats with a 72-65 upset to win the NCAA championship. Texas Western became the first school to win the title with five black starters when they beat an all-white Kentucky team, which paved the way for cultural diversity in college basketball.

An unbeatable Kentucky team rolled into Knoxville in 1966 but left with a loss. The win for UT paved the way for a successful 1966-67 campaign in which the Vols won the SEC.

1970s:
Success Continues Under Mears; Grunfeld/King Combo Propels Vols

Consistent excellence was the trademark of the program under Mears. Twenty-win seasons became the rule rather than the exception, and the Vols became contenders in the SEC title race on a yearly basis. It took Mears five seasons to win his second conference title, and that one had a rather sour taste to it.

The 1971-72 team, built around the sharp shooting of guard Mike Edwards and 6-11 center Len Kosmalski, came into the season-ending game with Kentucky at Stokely Center one game ahead of Rupp's Wildcats. With five seconds left in a hard-fought battle, UK held a 67-66 lead. But Tennessee got one last chance when Edwards was fouled as he started into his shooting mode. Referee Bobby Hartsfield called it a non-shooting foul, and the usually unflappable guard missed the free throw. Kentucky rebounded to gain a tie for the title, and because they had swept the season's series with Tennessee, the Wildcats also won the SEC's berth in the NCAA Tournament. The Vols were so downcast by the loss that they voted not to accept a bid to the NIT, where they had reached the semifinals in 1969 and 1971.

The 1971-72 season also marked a new chapter in Volunteer cage history when Larry Robinson, a 6-5 high-post player out of Ferrum (Va.) Junior College became the school's first black player. A tireless worker and the ultimate team player, Robinson made a big hit with the fans and teammates alike, and as evidence of the respect they felt for him, his mates elected him captain of the 1972-73 team despite the fact that he had played only one season of varsity basketball with them.

Mears had stuck with his deliberate offense through his first decade at UT, but the appearance of two remarkable offensive performers in the mid-1970s prompted him to speed up his attack. Assistant coach Stu Aberdeen, who had strong recruiting contacts in the New York City area, hit the jackpot two years in succession when he signed Ernie Grunfeld of Forest Hills in 1973 and Bernard King of Brooklyn in 1974. Never before or since has UT basketball boasted two such enormous talents on the same team.

Grunfeld, a 6-6 wing who could move into the post when needed, broke Widseth's all-time Volunteers scoring record during his four-year career with 2,249 points, for an average of 22.3 per game. King, a brilliant post player, who played only three seasons before turning to the professional ranks, posted a new career average record of 25.8 points per game. Known as the "Ernie and Bernie Show," the two great players led the Vols to a record of 61-20 during their three seasons together, 1974-75, 1975-76 and 1976-77. During that run, the Volunteers made two NCAA Tournament appearances and won one SEC championship in 1977. Wherever they played they drew standing-room-only crowds; Sports Illustrated even featured them on its cover ("Double Trouble from Tennessee"), and for the first time in its cage history, Tennessee had become a household word in the world of college basketball.

The one thing that even King and Grunfeld couldn't do was to bring their coach an NCAA Tournament victory. In 1976 the Vols fell out in first-round play at Charlotte, losing to darkhorse VMI in a game that King had to sit out because of a hand injury suffered in practice a few days earlier. And then, in the biggest disappointment of all, the 1977 team went down in overtime to the Orangemen from Syracuse University (93-88) in a game played in Baton Rouge, La., as both King and Grunfeld fouled out during second-half action.

Mears soon followed his two great stars in farewell. A longtime sufferer from depression, the Vols coach could not answer the bell for the 1977-78 season, and assistant coach Cliff Wettig led the team through a tough rebuilding phase that produced the school's first losing campaign in 16 years. When it became clear that Mears could not return to his post, UT hired a new head coach, Don DeVoe, in the spring of 1978.

Mears left an enviable record behind him. In 15 seasons, his teams had won 278 games against only 112 losses for a .713 winning percentage, had captured three SEC championships and had played old rival Kentucky to a dead heat with 15 wins in 30 meetings. His acts of psychological warfare, such as the long walks at Nashville that brought the Vanderbilt crowds to a boil, had won him more than his share of detractors, but underneath all the boos, there was a grudging respect for one of the best coaches of his time.

John Ward and The Vol Network

John Ward sat atop Mississippi State Gymnasium on March 8, 1967, peering down on the Vols as time expired on the clock. Mississippi State had just taken Tennessee into overtime in the season-finale for both teams. The Vols were in a battle in Starkville, Miss., but they were in a three-way war for the SEC championship, along with Florida and Vanderbilt.

Ward, thanks to the Vols playing in the Central Time Zone, already knew both Florida and Vanderbilt had finished at 14-4. Should the Vols win, they would finish at 15-3 and win their first SEC title in more than 20 years. And it all came down to overtime. Then a second overtime. Then a third.

By then, Ward's voice was getting rougher and rougher. He, along with color analyst Lowell Blanchard, were located high atop the gym to get a bird's eye view of the game.

"When I do broadcasts, I prefer to be working upstairs because I can see the game unfold better," Ward said. "We were upstairs near the top of the gym and against the wall. Well, with a window behind us, a draft kept blowing onto my neck and it was cold. By the second overtime, I just looked at Lowell - just a wonderful man - and said, 'I can't finish the game.'"

Ward's throat was getting tight due to the cold air on his neck and he was losing his voice. Quick to aid Ward, Blanchard retrieved a towel from the Tennessee bench at courtside and Ward wrapped it around his neck. The treatment warmed and opened Ward's throat, and he was able to finish broadcasting the Vols' 78-76 triple-overtime win over the Bulldogs. A 1967 SEC Championship and Tennessee's first trip to the NCAA Tournament came courtesy of the win.

Of course, the towel became a trademark of Ward's during his 35-year run as "Voice of the Vols." But according to Ward, it was always used for medical purposes.

"I always wore it to protect my voice and throat," he insisted after he recalled his most memorable UT basketball game. "Never was it intended to be a trademark."

There are other games that stick out in Ward's mind - especially the Kentucky games. Games like the one in 1976 when Tennessee rallied from 14 points down to beat the Wildcats in overtime in Memorial Coliseum. Or the game that very next year when Tennessee beat Kentucky in its first trip to the new Rupp Arena. Then there's Tennessee's 1979 SEC Championship.

"Tennessee won the SEC championship in '79 and they beat who? Kentucky," Ward said. "You've got to understand, Kentucky didn't lose back then. They just didn't."

For those fans not able to attend the games in person, they depended on Ward to paint the picture over radio broadcasts. He never failed.

"Prior to around 1980, there were no TV games," Ward said. "So obviously, radio broadcasts became the dominant medium to follow those games."

Through the late 1950s and early 1960s, UT basketball games were not heard over the radio on a regular basis. Only big games, like Kentucky and Vanderbilt, made the airwaves. But in 1966, athletics director Bob Woodruff, with the assistance of Bill Petty, Ward and basketball coach Ray Mears, began the groundwork for a Vol Basketball Network. The Vol Network already covered football games, and now it was time for basketball coverage.

The 1966-67 season was the first full season of basketball broadcasts for Ward and the Vol Network, and it could be heard on one station. But thanks to the marketing mindset of Mears and the successful teams he put on the floor, Tennessee basketball was exploding in popularity.

"Nothing defined the ascendancy of basketball on the UT scene more clearly than the game's identity with John Ward's broadcasting style," said Haywood Harris, UT's long-time sports information director. "The presence of Ward at UT games was as much a part of the basketball presentation as Mears' pre-game warm-ups and Roger Peltz' unicycle act."

In the following years, Ward began to work more closely with the network, and the program increased the number of stations that carried the broadcasts to around 15 throughout the state.

The unique aspect of the Vol Network was that small, community-based radio stations carried the broadcasts. Instead of relying on larger radio stations in Nashville to broadcast the games to larger areas, the Vol Network targeted the small stations in Tennessee and created a down-home atmosphere for listeners.

"My primary goal was to involve the local stations throughout the state," Ward said. "Our philosophy was that it's not the number of stations but amount of coverage in the state. We wanted to touch every county in Tennessee."

The Vol Network came pretty close to doing that. By choosing to reach the small-town audiences through smaller stations, the network expanded and eventually had more than 50 stations carrying the sports broadcasts. Now, the Vol Network is one of the largest radio networks in the nation with affiliates in four surrounding states. The Vol Network also can be heard in 28 states after dark and worldwide on the Internet. Bob Kesling inherited the title "Voice of the Vols" in 1999 and currently pairs with former Vol basketball player Bert Bertelkamp to bring Tennessee basketball to life on the radio.

"To grow from one station to more than 50 stations was a great accomplishment," said Ward, who retired after the 1998-99 basketball season. "But the key to that was the sponsors, not me. I was only a broadcaster."

John Ward was never only a broadcaster. He was music to Vol fans' ears.

Dec. 15, 1973: UT, Temple Combine for 17 Points

It was Dec. 15, and it was the championship game of the 1973 Volunteer Classic at Stokely Athletics Center. Tennessee's high-powered offense was looking to dispose quickly of Temple to win yet another Classic title on its own floor.

Tennessee put points on the board at will. They scored 80 points in a season-opening victory in 1973 over North Texas State and 65 in a loss to Marquette. But in the two games leading up to the clash with Temple, the Vols had scored 117 and 96 points, respectively. Needless to say, fans were expecting a show.

If anything, a show was not what the fans got. Temple coach Don Casey had instructed his squad to merely pass the ball back and forth to keep the rock away from the Vols. That's exactly what they did. And with Mears' strict discipline, Tennessee wasn't about to stray from their traditional zone defense. Neither team would budge. But the fans did. They booed and complained throughout the chess match between the Vols and Owls.

When the buzzer sounded, the crowd had something to cheer about. Tennessee came away victorious 11-6. That's right, 11-6. Temple had effectively taken the ball out of Tennessee's hands, yet the Vols also had proven a point that they were sticking to their game plan.

Throughout the rest of the season, Tennessee was content at scoring in the 60s, 70s and 80s, even topping the 100-point mark against LSU to finish 17-9. But the UT-Temple fiasco will live in the record books forever. The game holds the NCAA record for fewest points scored by both teams - something that may never be broken with today's fast-paced game. The NCAA record for fewest points allowed since 1938 also goes to Tennessee (tie) for holding the Owls to a mere six points.

Vols Enjoy NCAA Success; Thompson-Boling Arena Opens

Just as Mears had done a decade and a half earlier, Don DeVoe put his stamp on Tennessee basketball in quick order. Inheriting a team built around All-America Reggie Johnson in the post and Terry Crosby and freshman Gary Carter at the wings, the 37-year-old former Ohio State player soon put whatever doubts there may have been about his appointment to rest. In that first season of 1978-79, DeVoe achieved a number of "firsts" for a Tennessee cage coach.

That first DeVoe team posted an overall record of 21-12 and a regular-season SEC mark of 12-6, good for the runner-up spot. That happened to be the season when the postseason conference tournament was revived after a 27-year hiatus, and when the Vols beat Kentucky 75-69 in the finals, it was the first conference tourney title for Tennessee since 1943. And since his team had swept the Wildcats in regular-season play, DeVoe became the first Vol skipper ever to beat the Wildcats three times in one campaign. The tourney championship also put the team in the NCAA playoffs, and when the Vols dusted off Eastern Kentucky 97-81 in the first round of play in Murfreesboro, Tenn., he became the first UT coach ever to record an NCAA Tournament victory. The Vols then lost in the second round to Notre Dame, but it had been a storybook maiden season for the tall man from the Buckeye state.

A three-time selection as the Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year, Don DeVoe led the Vols to nine postseason appearances in his 11 seasons in Knoxville.

The good times rolled on. With such standout performers as Carter, Howard Wood and All-American forward Dale Ellis leading the attack, DeVoe's first five teams all participated in NCAA tourney play, all of them winning first-round games before being later eliminated. The 1981 team advanced to the NCAA Tournament's Sweet Sixteen before being eliminated 62-48 by Virginia and college player of the year Ralph Sampson. The best of the lot, 1981-82, won the school's seventh SEC title and posted a 20-10 record. That team fell just shy of upsetting powerful Virginia, led by Sampson, in an NCAA second-round game at Indianapolis, Ind., losing 54-51.

The 1983-84 team went 21-14 overall and went three rounds deep into NIT tournament play, and the 1984-85 team went 22-15 and reached the NIT's semifinals before losing to Indiana at Madison Square Garden. But after seven postseason tourney appearances in as many seasons, the DeVoe program suddenly made a sharp downward turn with two consecutive losing seasons in 1985-86 and 1986-87. But there were still bright spots. Guard Tony White scored 51 points in a game against Auburn in 1987, bettering by one point an old school single-game scoring record set by Ron Widby against LSU 20 years earlier.

The 1987-88 team turned things around with a 16-13 record and an NIT appearance, and when the 1988-89 team went 19-11 to get the Volunteers back into the NCAA Tournament, the program seemed to be moving in the right direction. But an 84-68 loss to West Virginia at Greensboro, N.C., in the first round of play sealed DeVoe's doom. After an 11-year tenure that had produced a 204-137 record, one SEC championship, one SEC tourney title, six NCAA playoff appearances and three trips to the NIT, DeVoe resigned.

In a way, DeVoe was a victim of his own accomplishments. The rousing successes of his early years, combined with Mears' long run, had raised expectations among Tennessee basketball fans. Overflow crowds at Stokely Center had sparked a drive for a new facility, and in the 1987-88 season the Vols moved into one of the most palatial college basketball homes in the country. The $30 million, 24,535-seat Thompson-Boling Arena and Assembly Center. It was named after philanthropist B. Ray Thompson and then-UT president Ed Boling, and it signaled the school's commitment to competitive excellence.

Vols Open New Arena on River

No one ever thought the Tennessee Volunteers would outgrow Stokely Athletics Center. The 12,700-seat arena was gigantic compared to the previous basketball arenas that the Vols called home. But with a winning basketball team and loads of excitement surrounding the program, a new basketball arena was inevitable.

Work began to raise money for a new and larger basketball facility. There was one goal for the new arena - make it larger than any arena in the SEC. In the early 1980s, Kentucky's Rupp Arena was tops in the SEC with its 23,000 seats. The big question was if an arena of that size would be large enough for the Vols. The demand for Tennessee basketball tickets was outrageous, and school officials were concerned.

The spark for the fire was an anonymous gift of $5 million. That was followed by $5 million in private UT donations, a $7 million pledge from the state of Tennessee, $10 million from Knox County and $3 million in ticket and parking revenue. The ball was officially rolling.

Everything, however, came to a screeching halt after work on the arena had already begun. The Kansas contractor, who had obtained the contract with a bid of $23 million, pulled out after multiple delays had pushed the completion date back several times. A Nashville contractor took over the responsibilities, and the new 24,535-seat arena was completed for the 1987-88 season.

It was discovered that B. Ray Thompson was the man responsible for the original donation for construction, and he was convinced to have his name attached to the new arena. However, the only way he would comply was if then-UT President Edward J. Boling's name was attached also. So, on Sept. 25, 1987, the new basketball facility was officially named the Thompson-Boling Assembly Center and Arena.

The largest on-campus basketball-only facility in the nation, Thompson-Boling Arena opened its doors to the Vols in good fashion when Tennessee beat Marquette 82-56 before 25,272 people. An arena-record crowd of 25,610 showed up Jan. 21, 1989, when UT hosted Kentucky.

1990s:
Houston Sets UT Scoring Mark; Vols Return to NCAA Tournament

Ironically, UT's hoops fortunes slumped badly in these luxurious new surroundings. DeVoe's successor, Wade Houston, was never able to get the program rolling. Houston, an Alcoa, Tenn., native who had played at Louisville and served as an assistant coach there, was warmly welcomed in his pioneer role as UT's first black head coach. He was enormously popular on the personal level, but he was able to post only two winning records in five seasons, and after a 5-22 campaign in 1993-94, he was replaced by Kevin O'Neill.

Even so, the name Houston still stands tall in UT history. The coach's son, Allan Houston, rewrote the Volunteer scoring record book during his four years under his father's tutelage, 1989-93. A velvet-match guard, he zoomed past Grunfeld to set the school career mark with 2,801 points and also set records in single-season scoring, field goals and 3-point goals. The younger Houston led his dad's teams to NIT appearances in 1990 and 1992, both ventures ending in second-round losses.

Houston's successor, O'Neill, was a much fiercer sideline coach than his laid-back predecessor. O'Neill had enjoyed great success at Marquette, where he had won a reputation as a standout recruiter and defensive specialist. He took over the Vols program when its stock was at a very low ebb, and was not able to turn the program around in regard to wins and losses. Of his three Volunteer teams, only one, 1995-96, managed to break even during the regular season, 14-14, before suffering an NIT opening-round loss to the College of Charleston at Thompson-Boling Arena on a bitterly-cold March evening. But he did make headway in recruiting, and when he departed to take the head coaching job at Northwestern after the 1996-97 season, he left behind a healthy crop of young players.

Jerry Green's initial season of 20-9 in 1997-98 was the best for a first-year Volunteer cage coach since Emmett Lowery's 20-5 record in 1947-48. And it ended on a high note when the Vols won their way into the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1989. Even an overtime loss to Illinois State at the Arco Arena in Sacramento, Calif., in the opening round could not rub the shine off Tennessee's best season in a decade. A South Carolina native who had a successful tenure as the head coach at Oregon and as Roy Williams' top assistant at Kansas, Green seemed to strike the right chord among players and fans alike with his down-home style. And his first-year success didn't end with the season. His signing of Cleveland, Tenn., high school superstar Vincent Yarbrough was perhaps Tennessee's greatest recruiting coup since Grunfeld and King.

Under Green's direction, Tennessee continued to achieve milestones for the program during the 1998-99 season in which the Vols went 21-9. The Vols returned to the NCAA Tournament, giving UT its first back-to-back bids since 1982-83, and won their first NCAA tourney game since 1983. The Vols won their last six SEC games, including a season-ending showdown with Kentucky to win their first SEC Eastern Division crown since divisional play started in 1992. UT's 21 wins were the most for the Vols since 1985 and just one short of the school's single-season record. Tennessee's season sweep of arch-rivals Kentucky and Vanderbilt also were cause for celebration. The Vols' win at Lexington was the first at Rupp Arena in 20 years.

Vols Run for 1991 SEC Tournament Title

After enjoying peaks of success in the 1970s and '80s, the Tennessee Volunteers hit a treacherous valley in the early1990s. Despite a tremendous scoring threat in Allan Houston (23.7 points) and a sharp-shooter in Lang Wiseman (13.2 points), the Vols fell on hard times during the 1990-91 season.

Tennessee began the season red-hot, winning five of its first six games. However, the Vols would only win four more games the rest of the season. Losing streaks highlighted the schedule, as the Vols saw consecutive streaks hit three, four and five games, as well as a seven-game losing streak to end the regular season. Tennessee won four straight during the first six games but never could win back-to-back games again. Wins over Florida, No. 19 LSU and Vanderbilt gave the Vols a 3-15 record in the SEC and placed them in a tie for eighth heading into the SEC Tournament in Nashville.

In the first round, Tennessee avenged two close losses to Mississippi with a 94-85 win over the Rebels. It was an upset, but no one was searching for a Cinderella slipper until the Vols upset No. 18 Mississippi State 87-70 in the second round. An underrated Tennessee team was having its way with the conference's best teams, and the magic ride continued with an 85-65 thrashing of Georgia in the semifinals.

The same Tennessee team that had won only three conference games in the regular season had just won three consecutive conference games in three straight days. They were the talk of the tournament, and they were looking to write a happy ending to the fairy tale. The underdog Volunteers met No. 24 Alabama in the finals of the SEC Tournament, and the Crimson Tide washed away Tennessee's hopes of completing the dream with an 88-69 victory.

Tennessee ended the season with a 12-22 record in 1991. There wasn't much to cheer about other than an appearance in the conference tournament finals. But for three consecutive nights, the Vols were the Cinderella of the SEC Tournament, dreaming of an invitation to "The Big Dance."

2000s:
Vols Start New Millenium with Regular Postseason Apperances

UT continued its return to the national spotlight with the dawn of the new century. The Vols began the new millennium as a consistent name in national polls and with a pair of trips to the NCAA Tournament.

The 2000 season was one of the most successful in school history, with the Vols winning a school-record 26 games and advancing to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. UT won a share of its eighth SEC title and its second straight SEC Eastern Division crown. Not only did the Vols win 20 games for the third consecutive season, but they did so faster (23 games) than any other team in school history. They spent the entire season ranked in the top 25, reaching as high as No. 5, and finished the season ranked 11th in the final Associated Press poll.

The 2001 season saw the Vols ranked No. 9 in the Associated Press preseason poll, and they climbed as high as No. 4 during the year. The No. 4 ranking tied for the highest in school history. For the fourth straight year, the Vols won 20 games, finishing the season with a 22-11 record. At the end of the regular season, UT made its fourth trip to the NCAA Tournament in as many years, bowing to Charlotte in the first round.

Buzz Peterson was named the 16th head coach in school history on April 4, 2001, following the resignation of Jerry Green after the season. Peterson, who attended UT football games while growing up in Asheville, N.C., came to Knoxville after leading Tulsa to a 26-11 record and the NIT championship.

In his four seasons in Knoxville, Peterson led the Vols to a 61-59 overall record and appearances in the National Invitation Tournament in 2003 and 2004.

Ron Slay, who missed the second half of his junior season with a knee injury, returned to the Vol lineup in 2003 to lead the Southeastern Conference in scoring with 21.2 points per game and was named the league's Player of the Year.

In 2005, freshman guard Chris Lofton took the league by storm by making 93 3-pointers, the most-ever by a freshman in the Southeastern Conference. His 46.5 shooting from behind the 3-point arc led the SEC and ranked fourth nationally.

On March 28, 2005, Bruce Pearl took over the reins of the Tennessee program just days after leading UW-Milwaukee to the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament.

Pearl made his presence felt in his first season in Knoxville, leading the Vols to the 2006 SEC Eastern Division championship with a 12-4 league record and a 22-8 overall mark. The Vols received a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament, the highest seeding in school history.

After the season, the honors came rolling in. Pearl was named the Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year and also was a finalist for the Naismith Trophy Men's College Coach of the Year in addition to earning national coach of the year honors from The Sporting News and CBS Sportsline.com.

Lofton rewrote Tennessee's single-season record books in 2005-06 with his 3-point shooting on his way to earning consensus first-team All-SEC honors and several All-American awards. The sophomore broke school records for 3-pointers made (114), 3-pointers attempted (261) and 3-pointers per game (3.80 3pg). His 114 3-pointers in 2005-06 were the second-most in Southeastern Conference history.

Tennessee's second season under Pearl's guidance produced the second-most wins in school history and one of the most memorable NCAA Tournament runs in school history. The Vols completed the 2006-07 campaign with a 24-11 overall record, and their 10-6 SEC mark was tied for the second-best in the league. In the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the Vols tied a school scoring record in defeating Long Beach State 121-86. UT held on for a 77-74 win over Virginia in the second round before falling to eventual national runner-up Ohio State in the Sweet Sixteen.

Lofton was named the 2007 Associated Press SEC Player of the Year and was a consensus second-team All-America selection after leading the conference with 20.8 points and 3.42 3-pointers per game.team.

Pearl's third season in Knoxville produced a school-record for wins with a 31-5 overall mark, and the Vols won their first outright SEC title since 1967 with a 14-2 league record. Tennessee spent most of the season ranked in the top 10 and achieved the program's first No. 1 ranking after a 66-62 win at then-No. 1 Memphis in late February.

Tennessee advanced to the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive year with wins over American and Butler before falling to Louisville in the Regional Semifinals.

Lofton earned second-team All-American honors for the third time in his career. He finished his career with 2,131 points, and his 431 3-pointers were the most in SEC history and ranked third all-time in the NCAA. Tyler Smith joined Lofton in garnering first-team All-SEC honors, and JaJuan Smith was a second-team pick. Bruce Pearl was named SEC Coach of the Year and was honored as national coach of the year by the Adolph Rupp Cup.

In 2008-09, Pearl again led the Vols to an SEC Eastern Division title, a 20-win season and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. The Big Orange finished the year 21-13 (10-6 SEC) and became the first program in SEC history to finish ahead of Kentucky in the league standings for four straight seasons.

Chris Lofton Wins His Biggest Battle

Chris Lofton beat everything thrown his way during his four-year career at Tennessee, and he often did it with people lining up to tell him he couldn't.

But the toughest battle he faced at Tennessee was not resurrecting the basketball program or quieting the doubters who thought he couldn't be a producer on a major Division I basketball team.

It was something much worse, much more vicious and much more devastating than any challenge the simple game of basketball can provide.

It was cancer.

And in true Lofton fashion, he beat it.

It was already a bad night when Lofton and his parents were taken into a San Antonio hotel room mere hours after the Vols had fallen to Ohio State in the Sweet 16 in 2007. In the room, Lofton was told that one of the randomly-administered NCAA drug tests had come back positive.

The test had come back showing high levels of beta hCG. It could mean Lofton was using steroids, or it could be an early warning sign of cancer.

It was the latter, and six days after the Ohio State game, Lofton had surgery to remove a cancerous tumor.

He began radiation treatments on April 25, 2007, that left him cancer-free, but they also drained 15 pounds of muscle off his body and put him far behind the curve in getting ready for his senior season.

Lofton was not going to let cancer stand in the way of his senior year, a season that was predicted to be one the best in school history as he turned down an opportunity to redshirt.

The season turned out to be everything hoped for. UT achieved its first No. 1 ranking in history, had a school-record 31 wins and won the SEC title.

But the face of the team was not producing on the levels people had expected. Lofton's face had adorned the cover of Sports Illustrated, but he was not putting up numbers to match his junior campaign, during which he was named SEC Player of the Year after averaging 20.8 ppg.

Lofton started the season shooting just 34 percent from the field and had everyone questioning if something was wrong with him.

It turns out the only thing that matched Lofton's work ethic was his ability to keep a secret. The select group of people who knew about his cancer didn't include any teammates.

"I wanted to deal with it on my terms," Lofton said. "I didn't want it to be a distraction for our team. I knew if it came out, everything would change. I didn't want it that way."

So Lofton quietly led his team, with a 15.9-point average, to another Sweet Sixteen appearance. In doing so, he shot 49 percent from 3-point range the rest of the regular season, returning to the Lofton every SEC opponent had feared from previous encounters.

He finished his career with an SEC-record 431 3-pointers made and was fourth on UT's all-time scoring list with 2,131 career points. But he will forever mean more to UT than simply numbers.

"You look at what he has gone through ..." head coach Bruce Pearl said. "He's still going to be remembered as one of the best players to wear orange.

"I was privileged to coach him."

2010s:
Transition on Rocky Top; Pearl, Martin, Tyndall Precede Barnes

In terms of NCAA Tournament success, the 2009-10 season was the best in Tennessee's storied history, as the Volunteers fell just one point shy of the Final Four.

After coach Bruce Pearl led the Vols to an 11-5 conference record and a third-place finish in the SEC Eastern Division, Tennessee began its NCAA Tournament journey in Providence, R.I. Led by seniors Wayne Chism, Bobby Maze, J.P. Prince and Brian Williams, the sixth-seeded Vols defeated San Diego State and then Ohio University to advance to the Sweet Sixteen for the third time in the Pearl era.

The Edward Jones Dome in Kansas City, Mo., was UT's next tournament stop. And a 76-73 come-from-behind victory over No. 2-seeded Ohio State and National Player of the Year Evan Turner lifted Tennessee into the Elite Eight for the first time in school history.

Two days later, the Midwest Regional Final saw UT tip off against fifth-seeded Michigan State. After surviving a 14-1 Spartans run and charging back from an eight-point deficit in the second half, Tennessee forged a 69-69 tie with 11 seconds left. But MSU's Raymar Morgan made the game-winning free throw to end the Vols' season at 28-9.

Pearl Era Ends After Six Seasons

The 2010-11 season saw Tennessee make its sixth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance, but the entire year was clouded by an ongoing NCAA investigation.

Head coach Bruce Pearl had provided the NCAA with "false and misleading information" in the course of its official inquiry prior to the season, and Southeastern Conference commissioner Mike Slive had suspended Pearl for Tennessee's first eight regular-season SEC games (associate head coach Tony Jones led the Vols to a 5-3 mark during that span).

After a disappointing and lopsided loss to Michigan in the NCAA Tournament's round of 64, UT athletics director Mike Hamilton relieved Pearl and his staff of their duties on March 21, 2011.

Pearl was later given a three-year "show cause" penalty by the NCAA, while each of his full-time assistant coaches received a one-year penalty.

Tennessee under Pearl averaged more than 24 wins per season, earned the nation's No. 1 ranking for the first time in program history, boasted an average year-end RPI of 17.2 and never failed to make the NCAA Tournament — tying a school-record with six consecutive berths in the Big Dance.

Martin Maintains UT's Winning Ways

On March 28, 2011, Tennessee named Cuonzo Martin the 18th head coach in program history.

The East St. Louis, Ill., native starred at Purdue under legendary coach Gene Keady before being selected in the 1995 NBA Draft.

Martin's arrival at UT was preceded by three successful seasons as head coach at Missouri State (2009-11).

In his first year with the Vols, the Big Orange were picked in the preseason to finish 11th in the then-12-team SEC. But Martin led Tennessee to a 10-6 conference record and a second-place SEC finish.

The 2012-13 season saw Martin lead Tennessee to 20 wins, as well as victories in each of the team's final nine regular-season games (for the second straight year).

Martin also joined Jerry Green and Bruce Pearl as the only UT head coaches to lead the Vols to victories over at least three AP Top-25 teams in each of their first two seasons on Rocky Top. Those triumphs included wins over Wichita State, eighth-ranked Florida and a 30-point victory over Kentucky that marked UT's largest-ever margin of victory against the Wildcats.

In Martin's third and final season at Tennessee, the Vols totaled 24 wins, earned the program's first NCAA Tournament berth since 2011 and advanced all the way from the "First Four" in Dayton to the Sweet Sixteen.

That team was led by seniors Jeronne Maymon, Jordan McRae and Antonio Barton as well as junior Jarnell Stokes. McRae and Stokes both were selected in the 2014 NBA Draft after the season, while Maymon and Barton each signed professional basketball contracts overseas.

Martin accepted the head coaching position at Cal in April 2014 and was replaced at Tennessee by Southern Miss head coach Donnie Tyndall later that month.

It was UT's fifth all-time victory over an opponent ranked No. 1 in the AP poll.

Tyndall's Short Stay Sets Stage for Barnes Era

Tyndall's 2014-15 Tennessee squad was among the youngest and least experienced in the nation—boasting only four returning scholarship players and just one player who had ever scored in double figures in an SEC game. Due to injuries, the Vols entered SEC play with just nine healthy scholarship players.

Despite its challenges, that team finished 16-16 overall, and its 10th place SEC finish was three spots better than where the team was picked to finish in the preseason. Senior guard Josh Richardson earned first-team All-SEC honors from both the Associated Press and the league's head coaches before being drafted 40th overall by the Miami Heat.

After just one season, Tennessee terminated Tyndall's contract due to indiscretions he committed at his previous institution, Southern Miss.

Barnes Takes Tennessee to Higher Level

Following Tyndall's departure, Tennessee Director of Athletics Dave Hart and his top aide, Jon Gilbert, wasted no time in reaching out to Final Four head coach Rick Barnes, whose job security at Texas was surprisingly tenuous after 17 highly successful seasons leading the Longhorns to never-before-seen heights.

The Tennessee job was vacant for only three full days before Hart introduced Barnes as the Volunteers' 20th head coach on March 31, 2015.

Barnes and his staff led the Big Orange to a 31-35 record over his first two seasons, but the culture they sought to establish was developing steadily. Tennessee's 2016-17 freshmen became highest-scoring freshman class in school history (1,140 points) and accounted for close to half of the team's statistical production.

The following season, which was preceded by a summer exhibition tour of Spain and France—boosting both chemistry and culture—Barnes guided Tennessee to the fourth-most wins in program history, as the team finished 26-9. Picked in the preseason to finish 13th in the SEC, the Vols shocked all outsiders by winning the regular-season SEC Championship, advancing to the SEC Tournament Championship Game and earning a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament. Tennessee spent 14 consecutive weeks ranked in the AP top 25, climbing as high as No. 13. Barnes was named SEC Coach of the Year, sophomore forward Grant Williams was the SEC Player of the Year, junior wing Admiral Schofield was a second-team All-SEC selection and also made the SEC All-Tournament Team, and sophomore guard Lamonté Turner earned SEC Co-Sixth Man of the Year honors.

The 2018-19 Volunteers went down as one of the most beloved teams in program history, authoring one of UT's greatest seasons as the Big Orange tied the school record for wins, finishing 31-6 (15-3 SEC). National Coach of the Year Rick Barnes guided Tennessee to a school-record 19-game win streak, a perfect 18-0 record at Thompson-Boling Arena and a program-record-tying three wins over teams with a top-five ranking. The Vols also spent the entire season—wire-to-wire—ranked in the top 10, including four weeks atop both major polls. Williams earned consensus first-team All-America acclaim and was the first SEC player since 1996 to be named SEC Player of the Year in back-to-back seasons. Schofield was a first-team All-SEC performer, and junior point guard Jordan Bone was a second-team honoree. The Vols earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament and reached the Sweet Sixteen, where they suffered an overtime loss to Purdue.

Williams, Schofield and Bone all were selected in the 2019 NBA Draft after leading Tennessee to 57 wins over their final two seasons on Rocky Top. The trio said goodbye to Knoxville with Tennessee in possession of a 26-game home winning streak and laid a foundation that set the program on an exciting upward trajectory.

Tennessee a Regular Member of NCAA Tournament Field Under Barnes

The 2019-20 season was marked by an unprecedented ending, as the 2020 SEC Tournament (along with most other conference tournaments) and all subsequent 2020 postseason events were canceled due to the coronavirus (COVID-19) global health crisis.

In a season heavily altered by COVID-19, Tennessee made its third straight NCAA Tournament following the 2020-21 campaign. Despite the constant risk of cancellations, the Vols managed to play 27 total games, finishing with an 18-9 record. Capacity at Thompson-Boling Arena was limited to 4,191 due to health and safety guidelines. Tennessee was led offensively by the SEC All-Freshman duo of Keon Johnson and Jaden Springer, who were both selected in the first round of the 2021 NBA Draft.

As arenas returned to full capacity in 2021-22, Tennessee captured its first SEC Tournament championship in 43 years to secure the fifth SEC Tournament title in program history. Racking up 27 total wins on the season—the fourth-most in a single season in program history—the Vols also navigated their way to a perfect 16-0 record at Thompson-Boling Arena, notched four wins over top-10 teams and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament in the program's fourth straight appearance. Tennessee spent the entirety of the 2021-22 season ranked in the AP top 25—achieving a season-high No. 5 ranking in the final poll.

Santiago Vescovi and Kennedy Chandler earned All-SEC first- and second-team honors, respectively, and Chandler also earned SEC Tournament MVP acclaim. Super senior John Fulkerson concluded his six-year career with an SEC record 165 games played.

Tennessee spent the entire 2022-23 season ranked in the AP Top 25, ascending to a high of No. 2, and won at least 25 games for the fourth time under Barnes. The Big Orange owned the nation's top-rated defense for 15 straight weeks and held opponents to an average of just 57.9 ppg. That resulted in the program's ninth-ever Sweet Sixteen appearance. Senior guard Santiago Vescovi repeated as a first-team All-SEC selection, while sophomore guard Zakai Zeigler made a repeat appearance on the SEC All-Defensive Team in addition to earning second-team All-SEC acclaim. Julian Phillips gave Tennessee its fifth SEC All-Freshman Team selection in three years.

HEAD COACHING HISTORY

Andrew A. Stone
1910-11

College coaches wore many hats in the early 20th century, as exemplified by Andrew A. Stone. In addition to coaching the Tennessee men's basketball team to a 7-9 record during the 1910-11 season, Stone bookended his one-year hoops tenure by coaching the football team in the fall of 1910 and the baseball team in the spring of 1911.

Zora Clevenger

A football coach by trade, Zora Clevenger was one of the first coaches in school history to simultaneously hold the head coaching jobs for the basketball and football teams. In five seasons as the basketball coach, he led the Vols to a 50-14 record. The 1904 Indiana University graduate's winning percentage of .781 still rates as the best in Tennessee history. On the gridiron, he recorded a 26-15 record in five seasons and led the Vols to the 1914 SIAA championship.

The Muncie, Ind., native got his coaching start at his alma mater in 1905 with a 5-12 record. A year later he led the Hoosier cagers to a 7-9 mark. Later, Clevenger coached four seasons (1917-20) at Kansas State Agricultural College, where he posted a 54-16 record on the hardwood. Following administrative positions at the University of Missouri and Nebraska Wesleyan, Clevenger returned to Indiana where he was named the director of athletics. In 1968 he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame as a halfback.

Blair Gullion

Considered one of the nation's top basketball tacticians, Blair Gullion (pronounced: GULL-yin) took over the Vols before the 1935-36 season and promptly won the school's first SEC championship in any sport. The first full-time basketball coach in school history, Gullion posted a 47-19 (.712) record in his three seasons in Knoxville.

A precise tactician who had written numerous textbooks on the game, Gullion ran a tightly patterned, multiple-screening offense that caused defenses to get lost. Described by one of his star players, Floyd "Biggy" Marshall, as a person who "lived, dreamed, ate and slept basketball," Gullion gave the Vols their first glimpse of national basketball prominence. Two times he led the Vols to the SEC championship game, winning it in 1936. Under his tutelage, Harry Anderson became the school's first All-American in 1936.

Just weeks prior to the 1938-39 season, Gullion abruptly left for Cornell where he stayed for several years. He also coached at Washington University at St. Louis and the University of Connecticut before retiring.

John Mauer
1938-47

After Blair Gullion departed with such short notice before the 1938-39 season, John Mauer was tabbed by Major Robert Neyland as the man to take over for the popular Gullion.

Prior to coming to Tennessee, the Aurora, Ill., native proved himself as an athlete when he was named the Outstanding Athlete and olar in the Big Ten Conference while competing for Illinois. A college roommate of Harold "Red" Grange, Mauer was one of the first college basketball players to use the "one-hand" shot.

After college, he began his coaching career at Kentucky, where he preceded Adolph Rupp, and posted a 40-14 record in three years. In the early 1930s, he moved to Miami of Ohio, where he coached with Paul Brown and Weeb Ewbank on the gridiron and directed the Miami cagers for eight seasons.

After a shaky start in his first season, Mauer cemented his place in the hearts of Tennessee fans with a 30-29 win over Kentucky in Lexington. The Vols went on to a 14-7 overall record and a 6-5 mark in the SEC in 1939. Two years later, Mauer led UT to the first of two SEC championships over a three-year period with a 36-33 win over Kentucky in the SEC championship game.

In his eight seasons at Tennessee, Mauer recorded a 127-41 record. In addition to his duties with the Vol cagers, Mauer also served as an assistant football coach to Neyland and was the head baseball coach. On the gridiron, he helped lead the Vols to three SEC titles and the 1940 national championship.

Emmett Lowery
1947-59

An All-American guard as a player for coach Ward Lambert at Purdue in the early 1930s, Emmett Lowery brought that same success to Tennessee. A college teammate of John Wooden, Lowery brought a tightly-patterned, fast-break offense and man-to-man defense to Knoxville. In fact, he could often be heard yelling "Pass and cut, pass and cut," from the sidelines.

Other coaches in the Southeastern Conference took notice of Lowery's mastery of the fast-breaking offense. "The Tennessee fast break under Lowery was the best I've ever seen," famed Auburn mentor Joel Eaves said. "It was beautifully patterned, beautifully executed."

In his first season at Tennessee, the gentlemanly Lowery brought the Vols their first 20-win season in school history when UT posted a 20-5 overall mark. Over a 12-year career at Tennessee, Lowery was 169-110 before leaving to pursue business opportunities in Florida. On Jan. 14, 1950, he directed the Vols to a stunning 66-53 win over Kentucky, ending the Wildcats' 44-game conference winning streak that stretched more than five-years.

In a time when many SEC schools were building newer and bigger arenas, Lowery saw Tennessee take the first steps towards building a new facility. In Lowery's final season, Tennessee moved out of the smaller Alumni Memorial Gymnasium and into the 7,500-seat Armory-Fieldhouse. Opening night in the new facility went down to the wire, with Vols guard Kenny Coulter hitting a last-second shot to defeat a strong Wyoming team 72-71.

John Sines
1959-62

After eight years on the bench as an assistant coach to Emmett Lowery, John Sines became the first, and still the only, assistant to be promoted to head coach at Tennessee.

Like his predecessor on the UT bench, Sines was a product of Ward Lambert's Purdue teams from the 1930s. A captain of the Boilermakers' 1938 Big Ten championship team, Sines went on to play in the National Basketball League. A forward for the Indianapolis franchise, Sines was named to the 1940 NBL All-Star Team.

His first Tennessee squad returned only Dalen Showalter from the previous year's starting lineup but finished the season 12-11. That first season was capped off with a 65-63 win at Kentucky, the Vols' first win in Lexington since 1939.

His second season was marred by eight losses by five points or less as the Vols dropped to a 10-15 record. Sines, whose Vols were rocked by scandal following the 1961 season, resigned one year later after posting a 4-19 record in 1961-62.

Although the finish of Sines' career at UT may have been disappointing, he left the school with one of best recruiting classes in its history. A.W. Davis and Bobby Hogsett spent the 1961-62 season on a freshman team that regularly defeated the varsity in practice.

Ray Mears
1962-77

A showman comparable to the legendary P.T. Barnum, Ray Mears was also one of the top college basketball coaches in his era.

Mears came to Tennessee in the spring of 1962 following a successful stint at Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio, where he had a 114-22 record and won the 1961 NCAA college division championship.

Mears took just one season to reverse Tennessee's fortunes. Inheriting a team that won just four games the previous year, the Vols won 13 Mears' first year and were recording 20-win seasons within three years.

His 21-year career record of 399-135 (.747) ranked second in the nation among active coaches at the time of his retirement. In his 15 seasons at Tennessee, Mears recorded a 278-112 (.713) record. During his time in Knoxville, the Vols won 20 or more games seven times, finished third or better in the SEC in 13 of his 15 seasons and won three SEC championships (1967, 1972 and 1977).

Under Mears' direction, Tennessee made seven postseason appearances. The Vols made three NCAA Tournament appearances, two National Invitation Tournament showings and participated in the now-discontinued Collegiate Commissioners Association meet.

Nine of his players went on to earn All-American honors, including three-time first-team All-American Bernard King and two-time first-team pick Ernie Grunfeld, perhaps the most famous duo in Tennessee history. The two-time Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year (1967 and 1977) saw one of his pupils named the SEC Player of the Year four times.

Mears was the ultimate showman. Not only did his teams provide plenty of excitement on the court, but there also was plenty of excitement around the game. Just before tipoff of games, he would have his team run through a giant wooden "T" onto the court. When the starting lineups were introduced, Tennessee was one of the first schools to have the lights in the arena dimmed and a spotlight placed on the Vol player. The pregame warmups featured Harlem Globetrotter hi-jinks, including an orange and white ball during passing drills. Additionally, Mears had a student dressed in a bear costume ride a unicycle and perform a pregame act to help create a festive atmosphere at the games.

A disciplinarian and stern taskmasker who also was the consummate entertainer, Mears was a study in contrasts. While he studied statistics, poring over diagrams while plotting strategy like a military general planning an attack, Mears also created an exciting environment at games that left Tennessee fans thirsting for more.

Mears was sidelined for the 1977-78 season and decided to retire from active coaching. During his absence, assistant coach Cliff Wettig stepped up as acting head coach for that season.

Mears passed away on June 11, 2007.

Don DeVoe
1978-89

When Tennessee began its search for a replacement for Ray Mears, Don DeVoe's name was one of the first to be mentioned.

A successful mentor at Virginia Tech, where he won an NIT championship, and at Wyoming where he quickly turned the Cowboys into one of the top Western Athletic Conference teams, DeVoe was given the task of keeping Tennessee as one of the top teams in the Southeastern Conference.

A 1964 graduate of Ohio State, DeVoe was a member of OSU's 1962 squad that featured Jerry Lucas and John Havlicek and finished runner-up in the NCAA Tournament. He later served as an assistant coach to Bobby Knight at Army. It was there that DeVoe learned the nuances of the sticky man-to-man defense that he became known for throughout his career.

DeVoe's first season at Tennessee was met with instant success. Taking a team that had struggled to an 11-16 record in 1977-78, he directed the Vols to a 21-12 record, an SEC Tournament championship and an appearance in the Sweet Sixteen in the NCAA Tournament.

Behind SEC Player of the Year Dale Ellis, DeVoe's 1981-82 squad was one of his best in Knoxville. The Vols tied with Kentucky for the SEC championship on their way to a 20-10 record and yet another NCAA Tournament appearance.

A three-time selection as the Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year, DeVoe led the Vols to nine postseason appearances in his 11 seasons in Knoxville. UT's streak of five consecutive NCAA Tournaments (1979-83) was tied for the best in school history at that time. The second-winningest coach in UT history, DeVoe's 204-137 record trails only Ray Mears' 278 wins.

DeVoe left Tennessee following the 1988-89 season and spent the next campaign as an interim coach at Florida. There, he led the Gators to a 7-21 record. After taking over the helm of Navy's basketball program in 1992, DeVoe won his 500th career game during the 2002-03 season.

He retired from coaching following the 2003-04 campaign.

Wade Houston
1989-94

Denny Crum's top assistant coach at Louisville for 13 seasons, Wade Houston was named the 13th coach in Tennessee history prior to the 1989-90 campaign.

Houston, who grew up in Alcoa, Tenn., just 14 miles south of the Tennessee campus, helped Crum direct Louisville to 11 NCAA Tournaments, four Final Fours and two (1980 and 1986) national championships.

Houston's first season at Tennessee presented the challenge of replacing all five starters from a team that had gone 19-11 and received an invitation to the NCAA Tournament. In that rookie campaign, the Vols fashioned an impressive 16-14 record and appeared in the National Invitation Tournament.

In 1991, the Vols struggled to a 12-22 record but made an improbable run through the Southeastern Conference Tournament in Nashville. Drawing the ninth seed in the tournament, the Vols defeated Mississippi in the first round before upsetting top-seeded Mississippi State in the second round. After beating Georgia in the semifinals, an exhausted UT squad fell to Alabama in the championship game.

The 1992 season saw the Vols rebound to go 19-15, finish third in the Southeastern Conference and advance to the National Invitation Tournament. The next season, Houston's son, Allan, became the school's all-time leading scorer with 2,801 career points and was the 11th overall pick in the NBA Draft by the Detroit Pistons.

In his five seasons at Tennessee, Houston recorded a 65-90 record while leading the Vols to two appearances in postseason tournaments. He resigned his position late in the 1994 season.

On March 1, 2019, Tennessee head coach Rick Barnes announced the creation of the Wade Houston Leadership Award, presented annually after the season to to the team member who best exemplified leadership, a team-first approach and exemplary work ethic.

Kevin O'Neill
1994-97

Tennessee basketball fans got a preview of the 14th coach in school history when Kevin O'Neill brought his Marquette squad to Knoxville to battle Duke in the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament. After leading at halftime, Marquette fell to the eventual national runner-up, but made a lasting impression on Vol fans.

The high-energy O'Neill, whose wit, candor and basketball insight captivated fans around the Southeast, was charged with restoring the Vols to national prominence. With a legendary work ethic, O'Neill hit the recruiting trail to fill the Vols' roster with top players. One of his first recruiting scores came when Nashville's Brandon Wharton turned down several football scholarship offers to ink with the Vols prior to the 1995-96 season. Then, during the summer of 1995, McDonald's All-American Charles Hathaway committed to play for O'Neill's Vols. That commitment laid the groundwork for another prep All-American, C.J. Black, and eventually Isiah Victor.

On the court, O'Neill's Vols used a stifling defense to frustrate opponents. In his three seasons at Tennessee, O'Neill recorded a 36-47 record and directed the Vols to an appearance in the 1996 National Invitation Tournament. Although he didn't get to enjoy the full fruits of his recruiting success before bolting to take a job at Northwestern following the 1996-97 season, O'Neill laid the groundwork to return Tennessee to the national power it was two decades earlier under Ray Mears.

After three seasons at Northwestern, O'Neill spent time as an NBA assistant coach. His post-Northwestern head-coaching stints included tenures with the NBA's Toronto Raptors (2003-04), the University of Arizona (interim coach in 2007-08) and University of Southern California (2009-13).

Jerry Green
1997-2001

Jerry Green came to Tennessee prior to the 1997-98 season fresh from resurrecting a floundering Oregon program and taking the Ducks to NCAA and NIT tournament berths. In his four seasons in Knoxville, he achieved the same level of success, and then some, with the Vols.

Green's first Tennessee squad in 1997-98 achieved the 20-victory plateau, his second won the Eastern Division championship of the Southeastern Conference and his third earned a share of the regular-season SEC crown.

His fourth year at Tennessee saw the Vols win 20 games for the fourth consecutive season and advance to the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time in as many years.

In four seasons at the helm of the Tennessee program, the former University of Kansas assistant coach directed the Vols to an 89-36 (.712) overall record and a 41-23 (.641) mark in SEC games. While Tennessee's school record for most wins in a season when he came to Knoxville was 22 (1985 and 1977), Green averaged 22.3 wins per year at UT.

For his efforts in guiding Tennessee to the most wins (26) in school history in 2000 and gaining a share of the SEC title for the first time since 1982, Green was named National Coach of the Year by CBS.Sportsline.com. He also was named the District VII Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches.

Green's memorable achievements during his reign at UT include leading the Vols to their third-ever Sweet Sixteen appearance, guiding his teams to two straight SEC Eastern Division titles, back-to-back 12-win SEC campaigns, a school-record six-game SEC road winning streak, four consecutive 20-win seasons and four straight NCAA Tournament bids.

Buzz Peterson
2001-05

A native of Asheville, N.C., whose father was a graduate of the University of Tennessee, Buzz Peterson grew up attending Vols athletic events.

Selected the North Carolina high school player of the year over Michael Jordan, he later teamed with Jordan to help lead North Carolina to the 1982 NCAA championship.

After learning the game under coaching legends such as Dean Smith, Bill Guthridge, Eddie Fogler and Roy Williams, Peterson embarked on a successful coaching career that included stops at Appalachian State, East Tennessee State, NC State and Vanderbilt before landing his first head-coaching gig at Appalachian State. After leading the Mountaineers to three Southern Conference division championships in four seasons, he moved to Tulsa where he directed the Golden Hurricane to the 2001 National Invitation Tournament title.

In four seasons at Tennessee, Peterson led the Vols to postseason appearances in 2003 and 2004 while posting a 61-59 record. In 2003 he directed the Vols to their first win over an opponent ranked in the top five in more than a decade when UT defeated fourth-ranked Florida 66-59. Several of his players earned regional and national honors under his tutelage. Ron Slay was named the SEC Player of the Year in 2003 after leading the league with 21.2 points per game. Two Vols were selected in the 2002 NBA Draft, including lottery pick Marcus Haislip.

Peterson went on to serve as head coach at Coastal Carolina (2005-07), Appalachian State (2009-10) and UNC Wilmington (2010-14).

Bruce Pearl
2005-11

Having arrived on Rocky Top following successful head coaching stints at Division II Southern Indiana (1992-2001) and Wisconsin-Milwaukee (2001-05), Bruce Pearl presided over the most successful six-year period in the storied history of Tennessee basketball.

With the longtime Dr. Tom Davis pupil patrolling the bench, the Volunteers pushed aside perennial powerhouses Kentucky and Florida while asserting themselves as the SEC's winningest program during his tenure.

Tennessee under Pearl averaged more than 24 wins per season, earned the nation's No. 1 ranking for the first time in program history, boasted an average year-end RPI of 17.2 and never failed to make the NCAA Tournament—tying a school-record with six consecutive berths in the Big Dance.

In SEC annals, Pearl's 145 victories rank 31st all-time, while his .704 win percentage stands as the ninth-best in league history. Such dominant success within one of the nation's premier college basketball conference also yielded three SEC Eastern Division titles and the 2008 regular-season SEC championship.

With Pearl at the helm, Tennessee had a record of .500 or better against 10 of its 11 SEC rivals, and UT's 65 regular-season SEC wins from 2006-11 led the league.

Tennessee ranked in the top five nationally in average home attendance in each of Pearl's six seasons, and he also lured a pair of top-10 recruiting classes to UT.

The Vols under Pearl sought out non-conference matchups with the most prominent teams and players on the collegiate landscape. During his time in Knoxville, the Vols defeated Kevin Durant and Texas, Derrick Rose and Memphis, Greg Monroe and Georgetown, Matt Bouldin and Gonzaga, Sherron Collins and Luke Aldrich of Kansas and Ohio State with National Player of the Year Evan Turner. That's in addition to logging SEC wins against future NBA standouts such as John Wall, Ronnie Brewer, Glen Davis, Al Horford and Rajon Rondo.

Twice in the Sharon, Mass., native's last four years as coach, UT landed in the top 10 in the final national rankings, with a high of No. 5 after logging a school-record 31 wins in 2007-08.

Pearl took over as Auburn's head coach prior to the 2014-15 season.

Cuonzo Martin
2011-14

Cuonzo Martin (pronounced: KAHN-zo) led the Volunteers to a 63-41 record during his three years guiding the UT program.

The East St. Louis, Ill., native starred at Purdue under legendary coach Gene Keady before being selected in the 1995 NBA Draft.

Martin's arrival at UT was preceded by three successful seasons as head coach at Missouri State (2009-11).

In his first year with the Vols, the Big Orange were picked in the preseason to finish 11th in the then-12-team SEC. But Martin led Tennessee to a 10-6 conference record and a second-place SEC finish.

The 2012-13 season saw Martin lead Tennessee to 20 wins, as well as victories in each of the team's final nine regular-season games (for the second straight year).

Martin also joined Jerry Green and Bruce Pearl as the only UT head coaches to lead the Vols to victories over at least three AP Top-25 teams in each of their first two seasons on Rocky Top. Those triumphs included wins over Wichita State, eighth-ranked Florida and a 30-point victory over Kentucky that marked UT's largest-ever margin of victory against the Wildcats.

In Martin's third and final season at Tennessee, the Volunteers totaled 24 wins, earned the program's first NCAA Tournament berth since 2011 and advanced all the way from the "First Four" in Dayton to the Sweet Sixteen.

He accepted the head coaching position at Cal in April 2014. After three seasons with the Golden Bears, he was named head coach at Missouri in March 2017.

Donnie Tyndall
2014-15

After averaging more than 21 wins during his eight-year head coaching career—including an unprecedented 56-17, championship-winning two-year run at Southern Miss—Donnie Tyndall was tabbed to lead the Tennessee program on April 22, 2014.

Tyndall's lone Tennessee squad was among the youngest and least experienced in the nation—boasting only four returning scholarship players and just one player who had ever scored in double figures in an SEC game. Due to injuries, the Vols entered SEC play with just nine healthy scholarship players.

Despite its challenges, that 2014-15 Tennessee team finished 16-16 overall, and its 10th place SEC finish was three spots better than where the team was picked to finish in the preseason. The Vols defeated a pair of top-20 opponents in No. 15 Butler and No. 19 Arkansas, and senior point guard Josh Richardson earned first-team All-SEC honors from both the Associated Press and the league's head coaches and was selected 40th overall by the Miami Heat in the 2015 NBA Draft.

Tyndall was later an assistant coach with Raptors 905 and the Grand Rapids Drive of the NBA G League before being named head coach of the Drive in July of 2019.

Rick Barnes
2015-Present

Rick Barnes, the most decorated and accomplished head coach in school history, was handed the reins to the men's basketball program on March 31, 2015.

Barnes' first Tennessee squad featured a roster with an average height of 6-4, and the Vols lost their leading scorer, senior point guard Kevin Punter Jr., to injury in mid-February. Despite those challenges, Barnes guided the 2015-16 Volunteers to 15 wins and impressive victories over rivals Florida, Kentucky and Vanderbilt.

In 2016-17, Barnes took another undersized roster that featured only three upperclassmen and exceeded preseason expectations, as well as the previous year's overall and SEC win totals.

He led the Vols to an SEC Championship in just his third year at the helm. Tennessee was picked to finish 13th in the 14-team SEC prior to the 2017-18 campaign, but Barnes and his staff not only guided the Big Orange to the conference crown, but also to the title game of the SEC Tournament, a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament and a 26-9 record (third-most wins in program history). Barnes was named the 2018 SEC Coach of the Year and was runner-up for Naismith College Coach of the Year.

Barnes finally captured that Naismith College Coach of the Year Award after guiding Tennessee to a school-record-tying 31 wins and a Sweet Sixteen appearance in 2018-19. The Vols also authored a program-record 19-game win streak, logged three wins over top-five opponents and spent a month ranked atop both major Top 25 polls.

Tennessee spent the entire 2018-19 season ranked in the top 10 and earned a year-end ranking of No. 5 in the coaches' poll. That team set single-season school records for assists and blocks and was the first UT team to score more than 3,000 points.

Barnes coached power forward Grant Williams to unanimous consensus first-team All-America honors in 2019 and became the first player since 1995 to be named SEC Player of the Year in back-to-back seasons.

During the 2019-20 season, Barnes reached a pair of individual milestones. He logged his 700th career head coaching win—making him the 22nd coach ever to log 700 Division I victories—as well as his 100th triumph as Tennessee's head coach.

Barnes added a 25th career NCAA Tournament appearance and two more first-round NBA Draft picks to his resume during the 2020-21 season, as Keon Johnson and Jaden Springer were selected No. 21 and No. 28, respectively.

The highlight of Barnes' seventh season at UT—which was capped by a fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance—was the Vols' three straight victories in Tampa, Florida, to capture the program's first SEC Tournament championship in 43 years. Tennessee spent that entire 2021-22 campaign ranked in the top 25, defeated four top-10 opponents and finished with a 27-8 record.

Barnes led Tennessee to the program's ninth NCAA Sweet Sixteen appearance in 2022-23. It was the program's second Round of 16 appearance in the last four NCAA Tournaments. Tennessee spent the entire season ranked in the AP Top 25, ascending to a high of No. 2, and won at least 25 games for the fourth time under Barnes. The Big Orange owned the nation's top-rated defense for 15 straight weeks and held opponents to an average of just 57.9 ppg. Senior guard Santiago Vescovi repeated as a first-team All-SEC selection, while sophomore guard Zakai Zeigler made a repeat appearance on the SEC All-Defensive Team in addition to earning second-team All-SEC acclaim. And wing Julian Phillips gave Tennessee its fifth SEC All-Freshman Team selection in three years.

Bill Gibbs
Assistant Coach, 1962-64

When Ray Mears was named the head coach at Tennessee in the spring of 1962, he quickly tabbed Bill Gibbs, who was then coaching at Fairborn (Ohio) High School, as his assistant coach.

Early in their first season at UT, when Mears fell ill with physical and emotional exhaustion, it was Gibbs whom acting athletic director Bowden Wyatt asked to fill in.

After starting league play with two losses in their first three SEC games, things were not looking good for the Vols, as they had to travel to league-power Kentucky. Behind All-American Cotton Nash, the Wildcats raced to a 15-point lead, but the Vols rallied behind Tommy Wilson's 28 points for a 78-69 upset.

The Vols struggled for consistency during the 1962-63 season but managed some big wins under Gibbs. UT also knocked off league-leader and ninth-ranked Auburn, and then completed the season sweep of Kentucky with a 63-55 win in Knoxville.

Mears returned for the 1963-64 season, and Gibbs went back to his role as assistant after building a reputation as one of the bright young coaches in the field.

Gibbs, in his second season at Tennessee, had just finished giving the scouting report for the Vols' game at Florida on the morning of Feb. 3, 1964, when he boarded a plane for another scouting assignment against Auburn. The small commuter plane bound for Jacksonville, Fla., crashed shortly after takeoff, killing Gibbs and the eight others aboard.

His name lived on for several decades at the University of Tennessee, where one of the dormitories that was used by several student-athletes, Gibbs Hall, bore his name. The building was finally razed in 2014 to make room for a new, more modern facility (Stokely Hall opened in Jan. 2017).

The 1924-25 Tennessee Volunteers

1903

Basketball first appeared on campus when students organized the first class teams and battled for the school championship.

1907-08

Nathan Dougherty captained a squad composed of Howard Sandberg, L.W. McCowan, M.G. Smith, Solon Kipp, Benton White and manager Clarence Daniels in its first varsity basketball game, a 10-20 loss at the Asheville YMCA on Jan. 22, 1908. Five days later, UT earned its first victory, a 55-16 win over TSD.

1909-10

The first varsity basketball game was played at Knoxville when the Vols hosted Central University of Kentucky at Danville at the University YMCA on Dec. 16, 1909.

1913-14

Lum Reeder, considered to be the first star player at Tennessee, scored 41 points in a 49-16 win over Maryville College on Jan. 17, 1914. Reeder, who was one of the first players to use a one-handed jump shot, scored 27 points in his first game at UT as a freshman in 1913-14.

1920-21

In February of 1921, Tennessee joined the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference as a charter member.

1922-23

Tennessee got its first on-campus facility when Jefferson Hall was built at the corner of Cumberland and 15th.

1929-30

Maurice Corbitt and Bobby Dodd became Tennessee's first all-conference selections when they were named to the first and second team All-Southern Conference Tournament squads, respectively.

1932-33

In December 1932, 13 members of the Southern Conference joined to form the Southeastern Conference. The Vols also got new digs when Alumni Memorial Gym opened on the southern slopes of The Hill, just north of the football stadium.

1935-36

With wins over Auburn and Kentucky in the first two rounds, Harry Anderson led the Vols to a 29-25 win over Alabama in the championship game of the SEC Tournament to give the Vols their first conference championship. Anderson became UT's first All-America selection when Converse made him a second-team pick.

1939-40

Bernie Mehen became the first Vol to earn first-team All-America honors.

1941-42

On its way to its second SEC championship, Tennessee defeated top-ranked Long Island University, 36-33, at the Sugar Bowl Classic in New Orleans. The win ended LIU's 23-game winning streak.

1942-43

John Mauer's Vols won their second SEC championship in three seasons with a 33-30 win over Kentucky in the conference tournament's championship game.

1942-43

Due to World War II, Tennessee did not sponsor a team in 1942-43.

1944-45

Seventeen-year-old freshman Paul Walther earned first team All-America honors thanks, in part, to a 21- point performance against New York University at Madison Square Garden. The Vols appeared in the NIT, bowing to Rhode Island 44-51.

1947-48

In his first season at the helm of the program, Emmett Lowery led the Vols to a 20-5 record, the first 20-win season in school history.

1949-50

Tennessee upset second-ranked Kentucky and ended the Wildcats' 67-game conference winning streak with a 66-53 win at Alumni Memorial Gym.

1951-52
Herb Neff pulled down a school-record 36 rebounds against Georgia Tech, a mark that still stands as the most in UT and SEC history.

1954-55
Ed Weiner became just the third player to score 1,000 or more career points and earned first team All-America honors.

1955-56
Carl Widseth set a then-school record with 47 points in a late-season game against Auburn.

1956-57
The Vols opened the season with a 114-106 win at Furman, setting a then-school record for points in a game.

1958-59
Tennessee opened Armory-Fieldhouse with a 72-71 win over Wyoming on a late jumper by Kenny Coulter. Gene Tormohlen was named first team All-America after finishing his three-year career with 1,113 rebounds.

1959-60
John Sines, who spent eight years as an assistant to Emmett Lowery, became the first assistant in UT history to be promoted to head coach. Sines led the Vols to their first win over Kentucky in Lexington since 1939 with a 65-63 victory to end the season.

1962-63
Ray Mears was named head coach, ushering in one of the most successful eras in school history.

1963-64
Danny Schultz earned first-team All-America honors.

1964-65
A.W. Davis, whose nickname was "The Man With The Golden Arm," earned first-team All-America honors.

1965-66
Austin "Red" Robbins earned first-team All-America honors.

1966-67
The Vols moved into Stokely Athletics Center, their sixth home floor since 1909. The Fearless Five (Ron Widby, Tom Hendrix, Tom Boerwinkle, Bill Justus and Billy Hann) led the Vols to a 21-7 record and the SEC championship. Multi-sport star Widby earned first team All-America honors and was named SEC Player of the Year. Widby set a then-school record that stood for 20 years with 50 points against LSU. Ray Mears became the first UT coach to earn SEC Coach of the Year. The Vols won the inaugural Volunteer Classic with victories over Auburn and Clemson and also received their first invitation to the NCAA Tournament.

1967-68
Tom Boerwinkle earned first-team All-America honors while leading UT to a second-place finish in the SEC with a 20-6 overall mark and a 13-5 record in league play.

1968-69
Bill Justus led the nation with his 90.5 free-throw percentage and earned first-team All-America honors. The Vols became the first SEC team to qualify for the National Invitation Tournament since the early 1950s.

1969-70
The Vols opened the season with a 55-54 win over No. 1-ranked South Carolina in Columbia.

1970-71
Jimmy England earned first-team All-America honors while leading the Vols to their second NIT appearance in three seasons.

1971-72
The Vols won their second SEC championship under the direction of Ray Mears with a 19-6 overall and 14-4 SEC record. Mike Edwards was named SEC Player of the Year after averaging 19.4 points per game. Larry Robinson became the first African-American player to play for Tennessee.

1972-73
Tennessee finished in a three-way tie for second place in the SEC after falling 81-86 at Kentucky in the season finale. The Vols, who finished just one game behind the Wildcats, voted not to accept an invitation to the NIT soon after the loss in Lexington.

1973-74
Freshman forward Ernie Grunfeld burst onto the scene to lead the Vols with 17.4 points per game, earning first-team all-conference honors. UT received an invitation to the new Conference Commissioners Association Tournament, where it fell to 10th-ranked Indiana, 71-73. In early April, David Moss, a promising freshman on the junior varsity and occasionally on the varsity, underwent surgery to amputate his left leg after cancer had been discovered. After a quick recovery, Moss returned as a student assistant coach.

1974-75
Freshman Bernard King joined with Ernie Grunfeld to form the "Ernie & Bernie Show." King, who earned first-team All-America honors and was the SEC Player of the Year, scored 42 points in his first career game at Tennessee and went on to average 26.4 points, a school record that still stands. An 18-8 record secured a bid to the National Commissioners Invitational Tournament.

1975-76
The "Ernie & Bernie Show" brought Ray Mears his second NCAA Tournament appearance, while both players netted first-team All-America honors. For the second year in a row, King was named SEC Player of the Year, while Grunfeld's 25.3 points led the league.

1976-77
The Vols won their third Southeastern Conference championship under Ray Mears as the Ernie & Bernie era came to an end. Both players earned first-team All-America acclaim while sharing SEC Player of the Year honors. Mears was named the SEC Coach of the Year for the second time in his career. The Vols made their third NCAA Tournament appearance but lost to 10th-ranked Syracuse in the first round.

1977-78
Cliff Wettig served as acting coach for Ray Mears, who was unable to coach because of nervous exhaustion. The losses of Bernard King, Ernie Grunfeld and Mike Jackson helped contribute to Tennessee's first losing season since 1961-62.

1978-79
In Don DeVoe's first season at the helm of the Tennessee program, the surprising Vols rebounded from their first losing season since the early 1960s to post a 21-12 record and win the SEC Tournament championship with a 75-69 overtime win over Kentucky. First-team All-American Reggie Johnson led the Vols to the NCAA Tournament, where they fell to top-seeded Notre Dame in the second round.

1979-80
Reggie Johnson became the third Vol to win first-team All-America honors more than once in his career. The Vols made another appearance in the NCAA Tournament following an 18-11 year.

1980-81
Don DeVoe earned SEC Coach of the Year honors after directing the Vols to a 21-8 record and the Regional Semifinals of the NCAA Tournament. During the season, the Vols won the Sugar Bowl Classic with wins over Arizona State and Duke.

1981-82

The Vols set a school record with their 54.2 field goal percentage en route to making their fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance. Tennessee's 20-10 overall record and 13-5 SEC mark brought the school its seventh SEC championship. Junior Dale Ellis earned first-team All-America honors and was the SEC Player of the Year after ranking second in the nation in field-goal percentage with a 65.4 accuracy rate.

1982-83

Tennessee made its school-record fifth NCAA Tournament appearance in a row, advancing to the second round before being eliminated by the No. 1 seed for the third consecutive year. Dale Ellis earned first-team All-America honors and was the SEC Player of the Year for the second year in a row. Ellis became just the third Vol to reach the 2,000-point plateau.

1983-84

The Vols won the 1,000th game in school history with an 83-59 win over Ole Miss. Tennessee appeared in the NIT, advancing to the quarterfinals.

1984-85

The Vols posted a 22-15 record that was highlighted by a 12-game home winning streak. Tennessee appeared in the NIT, its seventh straight postseason tournament appearance.

1985-86

Tony White led the SEC in scoring with 22.2 points per game while earning first-team all-conference honors. Rob Jones set a school record for games played at 130.

1986-87

Tony White was named SEC Player of the Year while leading the SEC in scoring with 24.5 points per game. He set Tennessee's single-game scoring record when he dropped 51 points in a win over Auburn on Feb. 14, 1987.

1987-88

Tennessee opened Thompson-Boling Arena with an impressive 82-56 win over Marquette. UT ranked third nationally in attendance, averaging more than 20,000 fans per game. The Vols returned to postseason action with an appearance in the NIT. For the third year in a row, a Vol led the SEC in scoring when Dyron Nix averaged 22.2 points per game.

1988-89

Honorable mention All-America selection Dyron Nix averaged 21.6 points in leading the Vols back to the NCAA Tournament.

1989-90

Wade Houston was named the 13th head coach in Tennessee history—also becoming the first black head coach in SEC basketball history—and promptly led a team that featured seven freshmen and no returning starters to the NIT.

1990-91

Entering the SEC Tournament with just nine regular-season wins, the Vols won three games in as many days at the league tournament before falling to Alabama in the championship game. Allan Houston, the SEC Tournament MVP, earned honorable mention All-America honors.

1991-92

The Vols received their 15th postseason invite in 19 years when the NIT extended an invitation.

1992-93

Allan Houston became Tennessee's all-time leading scorer with 2,801 career points. Lang Wiseman was named the SEC's male student-athlete of the year.

1994-95

In his first season as UT's head coach, Kevin O'Neill more than doubled the wins from the previous season.

1995-96

Playing one of the nation's toughest schedules, UT returned to postseason play with an appearance in the NIT. Steve Hamer set an SEC Tournament record with a 31-point, 21-rebound performance against Alabama.

1997-98

The Vols returned to the NCAA Tournament in Jerry Green's first season as head coach.

1998-99

Tennessee won its first SEC Eastern Division title since divisional play began in 1992. UT went 14-1 at Thompson-Boling Arena, the best home record in arena history at that time.

1999-2000

One of the most successful seasons in school history, the Vols won a then-school-record 26 games and advanced to the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament after winning a share of the overall SEC title. UT finished the season ranked 11th by the Associated Press.

2000-01

The Vols tied the highest ranking in school history (to that point) when the Associated Press listed them fourth. Tennessee won the Rainbow Classic and advanced to its fourth NCAA Tournament in a row.

2001-02

Buzz Peterson was named the 16th head coach in Tennessee history on April 4, 2001. Vincent Yarbrough finished a close second in the SEC scoring race with 18.1 points per game. Choosing to turn professional after his junior season, Marcus Haislip was the 13th overall pick in the NBA Draft.

2002-03

Tennessee returned to the postseason with an appearance in the National Invitation Tournament. Ron Slay led the SEC in scoring with 21.2 points and was named the SEC Player of the Year while earning third-team All-America honors.

2003-04

Scooter McFadgon broke a 35-year-old school record with his 91.2-percent free throw shooting while ranking fifth in the nation. The Vols made their second NIT appearance in a row.

2005-06

Wisconsin-Milwaukee head coach Bruce Pearl was introduced as Tennessee's 17th head coach on March 28, 2005. Pearl guided the Volunteers to the 2006 SEC Eastern Division Championship with a 12-4 league record and a 22-8 overall mark. The Vols' No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament was the best in program history. Pearl earned SEC Coach of the Year acclaim and was tabbed as National Coach of the Year by The Sporting News and CBSSportsline.com. Sophomore shooting guard Chris Lofton broke school records that season for 3-pointers made (114), 3-pointers attempted (261) and 3-pointers made per game (3.80). Lofton was a consensus All-SEC first-teamer and Sporting News second-team All-American.

2006-07

Chris Lofton captured SEC Player of the Year and consensus second-team All-America recognition after leading the conference with 20.8 points and 3.42 3-pointers made per game. He helped propel the Volunteers to the Sweet Sixteen round of the NCAA Tournament and a final record of 24-11.

2007-08

Tennessee went 31-5, setting a program record for wins and capturing its first outright SEC Championship since 1967 with a 14-2 league mark. A monumental win at top-ranked Memphis in late-February propelled UT to its first-ever No. 1 national ranking, and the Vols went on to reach the Sweet Sixteen round of the NCAA Tournament, where they fell to Louisville. Chris Lofton was a second-team All-American and finished his illustrious career as the SEC's all-time 3-point king with 431 makes. Bruce Pearl was named SEC Coach of the Year and was the Adolph Rupp Cup National Coach of the Year as well.

2008-09
Tennessee won the SEC Eastern Division title with a 10-6 conference record, becoming the first program in SEC history to finish ahead of Kentucky in the league standings for four straight seasons. The Vols also returned to the NCAA Tournament and finished the year 21-13. In a home victory over UNC Asheville on Dec. 3, 2008, forward Tyler Smith posted the first triple-double in Tennessee history, finishing with 12 points, 10 rebounds and 10 assists.

2009-10
The Volunteers made their deepest-ever run in the NCAA Tournament, charging all the way to the Elite Eight and coming up one-point shy of the Final Four. Michigan State's 70-69 victory at the Edward Jones Dome in St. Louis ended UT's season at 28-9 (11-5 SEC). Senior forward Wayne Chism ended his Big Orange career having appeared in a school-record 142 games.

2010-11
Tennessee earned its sixth consecutive NCAA Tournament berth, tying a school record. But an NCAA investigation clouded the season, and head coach Bruce Pearl was suspended by SEC Commissioner Mike Slive for UT's first eight conference games (associate head coach Tony Jones led the Vols to a 5-3 record as "acting head coach"). Pearl was dismissed after Tennessee's opening round NCAA Tournament loss to Michigan. Forward Tobias Harris became the program's first-ever Freshman All-American selection, and he became the program's first "one-and-done" player when he was selected 19th overall in the 2011 NBA Draft.

2011-12
Cuonzo Martin was named the 18th head coach in program history on March 28, 2011, after three successful seasons as the head coach at Missouri State. His first Tennessee team was picked 11th in the conference but finished in a tie for second with a 19-15 (10-6 SEC) record and advanced to the second round of the NIT.

2013-14
For the first time since 2011, Tennessee returned to the NCAA Tournament. The Vols advanced all the way from the "First Four" in Dayton to the Sweet Sixteen, defeating Iowa, Mercer and UMass along the way. Tennessee came up one possession short of the Elite Eight, falling to Michigan by a score of 73-71 in Indianapolis. Senior guard Jordan McRae and junior forward Jarnell Stokes each were selected in the second round of the 2014 NBA Draft.

2014-15
Cuonzo Martin accepted the head coaching job at Cal following the 2013-14 campaign, and Tennessee tabbed Donnie Tyndall—previously at Southern Miss—as its 19th head coach on April 22, 2014. He lasted just one season, as his contract was terminated on March 27, 2015, due to alleged NCAA improprieties during his tenure at Southern Miss. The Vols went 16-16 (7-11 SEC) in his lone season. All-SEC wing Josh Richardson was selected by the Miami Heat in the second round of the 2015 NBA Draft, giving the Vols three draft picks in a two-year span.

2015-16
Following an impressive 17-year tenure at Texas, Rick Barnes was introduced as Tennessee's 20th all-time head coach on March 31, 2015. His first Tennessee team, which was inexperienced and undersized, finished 15-19 (6-12 SEC).

2017-18
In his third season with the Volunteers, Rick Barnes guided Tennessee to the fourth-most wins in program history, as the team finished 26-9. The Vols won the regular-season SEC Championship, advanced to the SEC Tournament Championship Game and earned a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament. Tennessee spent 14 consecutive weeks ranked in the AP top 25, climbing as high as No. 13. Sophomore forward Grant Williams was named the SEC Player of the Year, and sophomore guard Lamonté Turner earned SEC co-Sixth Man of the Year honors. Barnes collected several Coach of the Year accolades, including SEC Coach of the Year from both the Associated Press and the league's head coaches.

2018-19
One of the most beloved teams in program history authored one of the greatest seasons in program history as the Volunteers tied the school record for wins, finishing 31-6 (15-3 SEC). National Coach of the Year Rick Barnes guided Tennessee to a school-record 19-game win streak, a perfect 18-0 record at Thompson-Boling Arena and a program-record-tying three wins over teams with a top-five ranking. The Vols also spent the entire season—wire-to-wire—ranked in the top 10, including four weeks atop both major polls. Leading scorer Grant Williams earned consensus first-team All-America acclaim and was the first SEC player since 1996 to be named SEC Player of the Year in back-to-back seasons. Senior wing Admiral Schofield was a first-team All-SEC performer, and junior point guard Jordan Bone was a second-team honoree. The Vols earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament and reached the Sweet Sixteen, where they suffered an overtime loss to Purdue.

2019-20
Junior forward Yves Pons totaled 73 blocks, tying Tennessee's single-season school record. The 2020 SEC Tournament and all subsequent 2020 postseason tournaments were canceled due to the global coronavirus (COVID-19) public health crisis.

2020-21
The fact that a college basketball season took place was a major accomplishment in itself, as health and safety protocols and venue capacity restrictions related to the COVID-19 pandemic made 2020-21 a season unlike any other. Tennessee managed to play 24 regular-season games, including 17 SEC matchups. Senior Yves Pons earned his second straight SEC All-Defensive Team selection, and backed it up by blocking a school-record nine shots in Tennessee's first SEC Tournament game. The SEC All-Freshman Team duo of Jaden Springer and Keon Johnson led the Vols in scoring. Tennessee finished the year making a third straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament. The capacity at Thompson-Boling Arena was limited to 4,191 all season (down from 21,678).

2021-22
After 43 years, Tennessee ended its SEC Tournament championship drought, winning three games in three days as the No. 2 seed to capture the program's fifth SEC Tournament crown. And for the second time under head coach Rick Barnes, the Volunteers made their fourth straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament and spent the entire season ranked in the AP Top 25—ascending to a season-high of No. 5 in the final poll.

2022-23
An historically stingy defense took center stage for Tennessee throughout the 2022-23 season, as the Vols owned the nation's best defensive efficiency for 15 straight weeks and finished the season with Division I's best 3-point percentage defense (.265), third-best field-goal percentage defense (.373) and third-best scoring defense (57.9). Tennessee spent the entire season ranked in the AP Top 25, ascending as high as No. 2 in late January. The Vols defeated Kansas to win the Battle 4 Atlantis championship in November and also logged memorable wins over top-ranked Alabama, 10th-ranked Texas and 12th-ranked Duke to advance to the ninth Sweet Sixteen in program history and second since 2019.

HISTORICAL HOME VENUES

The game of basketball was a dozen years old before UT students organized their first class teams in 1903; and Naismith's brainchild was almost 20 years old when the first UT varsity five went into action.

The first UT players soon discovered that the YMCA gym was woefully lacking as a place for the fast-paced game of basketball. The court in the tiny arena was wall-to-wall. Spectators hung from an encircling balcony, built to accommodate a track. So, after two seasons of cramped activities, the Vols made their first of several moves to larger and better arenas.

In 1988, the Vols opened the 24,535-seat Thompson-Boling Assembly Center and Arena. Oddly enough, the new arena could hold all of the seats in the previous gyms; and, in inflated dollars, it cost five times as much as all the others combined.

Through nearly 100 years of Volunteer basketball, these previous local arenas provided a decisive home-court advantage. The home-game record from 1909 to 1987 stood at 677-172, a winning edge of .800.

JEFFERSON HALL

UT YMCA Gymnasium 1909-12 12-6 (.666)

The UT YMCA Gymnasium served as the Vols' home from 1909-12. The building, which was built at a cost of $18,000, gave the school its first adequate central heating system and bathtub while also providing a gym, bowling alley, ball cage, reading room, assembly hall and a few dormitory rooms. The Vols won their first home game, a 55-16 decision over TSD on Jan. 29, 1909. Probably the most exciting game in the facility was its final game, when "Skeet" Klein hit a shot at the buzzer to give the Vols a 36-35 win over the Knoxville YMCA Tigers in front of a packed house of 200 fans.

Knoxville YMCA Gymnasium 1913-22 53-9-1 (.856)

As the need for more seating grew, officials made arrangements to practice and play games at the downtown YMCA. Because the Vols shared the facility with their rivals, the Knoxville YMCA Tigers, Tennessee was only able to practice on the court three days a week. When not able to practice downtown, the Vols were forced back to the UT YMCA Gym. However, the downtown facility allowed more than double the seating capacity than the campus building. The Vols were 53-9-1 in 10 years downtown.

Jefferson Hall 1923-32 72-27 (.727)

Built in early 1922 at a cost of $19,095.01, Jefferson Hall was a multi-purpose facility that allowed the Vols to move back on campus in time for the 1922-23 season. Collapsible bleachers from Shields-Watkins Field were brought into the building after football season to allow seating for 1,500 fans. An improvement over past arenas, Jefferson Hall created problems with a stage and a court in the facility and heating being a difficult matter. Tennessee capped off a decade of play in the building, which looked like a wooden barn, with a 27-22 win over Vanderbilt on Feb. 19, 1932. After being converted to a National Guard Armory, the wooden building caught fire on Dec. 20, 1934, providing a spectacular fireworks display from the National Guard's ammunition supply.

Alumni Memorial Auditorium-Gymnasium 1933-58 231-61 (.823)

Alumni Memorial Auditorium-Gymnasium was built in 1932 to recognize alumni who lost their lives in World War I and the Spanish-American War. Almost the size of a football field, it was one of the largest buildings on campus. Upon its completion, UT's games were moved to the arena, and the athletic department offices were moved from Carrick Hall. A multi-purpose facility that served the needs of the academic, athletic and entertainment departments of the University, the building held 3,200 fans for basketball games and 3,800 for stage performances. The grand opening of the arena saw the Vols defeat Lincoln Memorial University 41-18 on Dec. 17, 1932, just one week after the formation of the Southeastern Conference. In 1936, UT stars Harry Anderson and Biggy Marshall brought the school its first SEC championship when the Vols won the SEC Tournament in the building. Regarded as one of the best facilities in the entire South, Alumni Gym served as the host of the SEC Tournament four times (1936, 1937, 1939 and 1940). But as the popularity of basketball grew with Tennessee's 26-game home winning streak in the early 1940s, the Vols soon began to outgrow the building.

Armory-Fieldhouse/ Stokely Athletics Center 1959-87 321-69 (.823)

Initially built to accommodate up to 7,000 fans, Armory-Fieldhouse was designed so the arena could eventually be doubled in size. The $1.5 million structure used steel trusses that were 208 feet long and weighed 66 tons to support the roof. The building was used for several other university functions in addition to basketball games, such as commencements, occasional concerts and a speaking engagement by vice president Hubert Humphrey. The Volunteers opened the facility with a 72-71 win over Wyoming on Dec. 2, 1958.

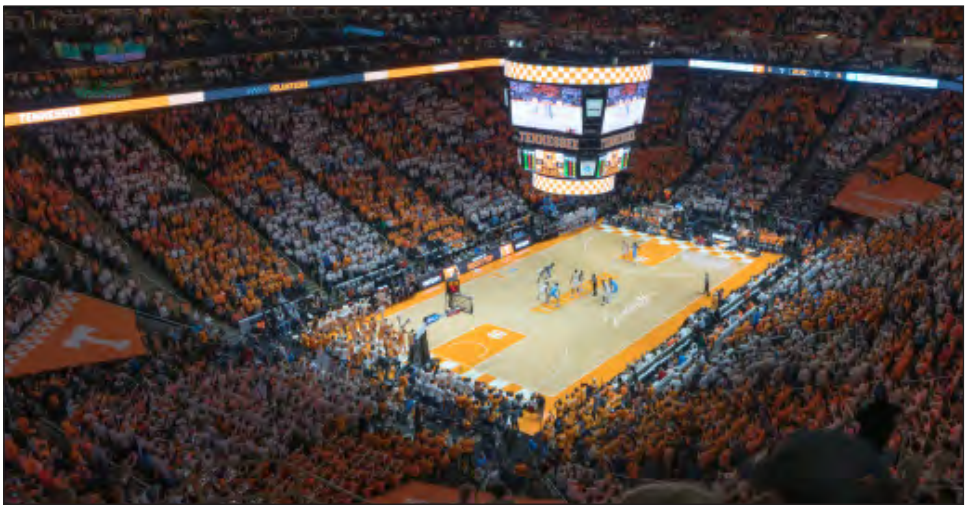
Armory-Fieldhouse was expanded thanks in large part to a $500,000 gift from William B. Stokely, chairman of Stokely-Van Camp, Inc., of Indianapolis, that helped offset the $3 million expansion costs. Work on the expansion began in early 1966, and the larger arena was ready in time for the 1966-67 season. In the first game of the expanded facility, the Vols upset three-time defending Big Ten Conference champion Michigan 72-54 on Dec. 1, 1966. That was a sign of things to come for Ray Mears' squad, as the Vols went on to win their first 23 games in the arena, including a 14-0 home record in 1966-67.

Stokely Athletics Center served as the home for the Vols for 29 years and presided over some of the most successful teams in school history. When Thompson-Boling Arena was completed before the 1987-88 season, the Vols had an impressive 321-69 record at Stokely. After Thompson-Boling Arena became the new home of Tennessee basketball, several athletic offices were still housed in Stokely, along with ROTC offices and classrooms.

Stokely was vacated during the winter of 2012-13, and the facility was razed in the summer of 2014 to repurpose the land it occupied.

STOKELY ATHLETICS CENTER

THOMPSON-BOLING ARENA AT FOOD CITY CENTER



The third-largest on-campus arena in the country, Thompson-Boling Arena at Food City Center is one of the nation's biggest and brightest stages for college basketball.

Named for the late B. Ray Thompson and former UT President Dr. Edward J. Boling, the venue regularly hosts Tennessee men's and women's basketball and volleyball matches as well as concerts, camps, conferences and other special events throughout the year.

Ticket facilities are conveniently located on the Phillip Fulmer Way level on the west end of the building. The Tennessee men's basketball staff, along with the women's hoops staff, occupy offices in the arena on the Phillip Fulmer Way level. The arena's dining center, also located on Phillip Fulmer Way and highlighted by a Which Wich, opened in 1989. It operates on a daily basis, catering to the university's staff.

Entrances to the building are located on the east and west ends, with protection from the elements provided by tucking the doors under the structure. There are a total of 132 entrance doors to the arena.

A continuous-ring concourse encircles the building permitting entrance to eight large restrooms, six concession areas and 32 portals leading to the arena. The playing floor level provides access to team dressing rooms, press work areas and storage rooms.

The distance from the playing floor to the roof is 120 feet, the equivalent of a 12-story building. The arena is 448 feet long and 310 feet wide. It contains more than 411,000 square feet of floor space and more than 17 million cubic feet of space. The structure's roof measures 142,000 square feet, which is approximately three-and-one-quarter acres. In the fall of 2008, the University of Tennessee Athletics Department unveiled Phase I of a two-phase renovation project for Thompson-Boling Assembly Center and Arena.

The $35 million project marked the first major renovation to Thompson-Boling Arena since it opened in 1987. In that time, more than 24 million patrons have attended thousands of arena events, including basketball games, concerts, graduations and other special events.

Phase I included new seats for the entire arena, a center-hung scoreboard and concourse refurbishments, such as graphics and other amenities.

Phase I also included new luxury suites and loge seating, which were a primary funding source for much of the renovations. The 32 luxury suites are located in the north balcony of Thompson-Boling Arena. The loge area features 166 side court seats, located directly below the luxury suites and includes private adjoining hospitality areas.

Phase II also included the construction of a bridge connecting the G-10 parking garage to the arena at concourse level, and a 360-degree LED ribbon board located between the upper and lower decks also was added.

Finally, the installation of state-of-the-art LED light fixtures-first put to use in February 2014-Thompson-Boling Arena became one of the first venues in the world to feature lights that are smaller, brighter, and up to 85 percent more efficient than conventional arena metal halide lights.

In 2018, an extensive facelift took place to the existing men's and women's basketball locker-room space along the arena's north corridor on event level. Both locker rooms were enlarged and modernized with state-of-the-art technological and aesthetic enhancements. In addition, an expanded and enhanced athletic training facility, featuring world-class hydrotherapy systems, was completed for use by both basketball programs.

That new "Larry Pratt Basketball Locker Room Complex" cost $5 million, funded entirely through private gifts. Lead donor Larry Pratt's commitment of $2 million during the Campaign for Comprehensive Excellence—coupled with other leadership gifts—enabled UT to fund the project.

Prior to the 2023-24 season, Tennessee announced a multi-year naming-rights agreement with longtime Tennessee Athletics corporate champion Food City that rebrands UT's on-campus arena as Thompson-Boling Arena at Food City Center.

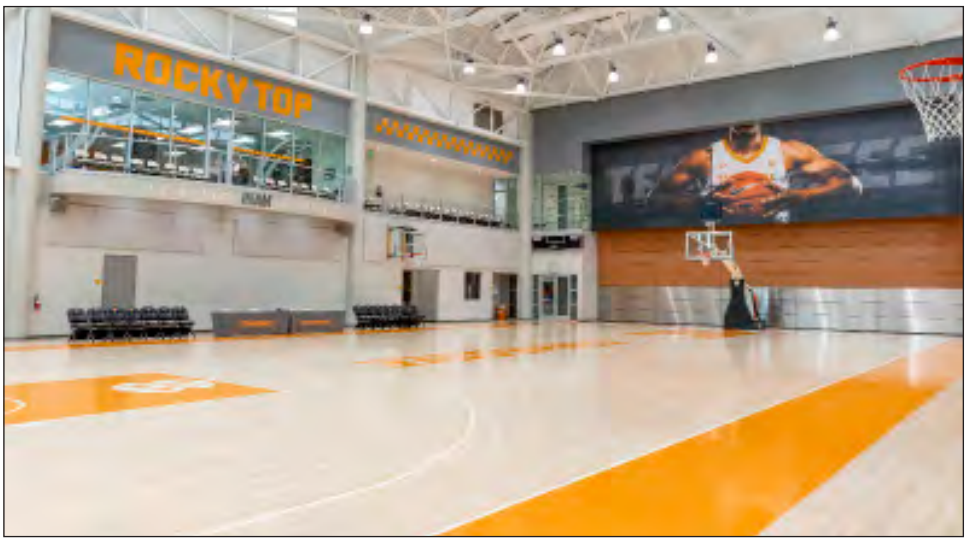
PRATT PAVILION



Pratt Pavilion is located adjacent to Food City Center and houses two full-size basketball courts, one for each of Tennessee's men's and women's teams, as well as an athletic training room, a weight room, a film-study room and recruiting lounges.

Directly connected to the arena, Pratt Pavilion features convenient, ground-level parking. The 70,000-square-foot structure boasts balconies at the south side of the building which overlook the practice courts. The west facade of the building is glassed from the first floor to the second floor, allowing visibility of gallery and display areas from the street. The building is a significant element to the picturesque south entrance to the University of Tennessee campus.

The facility is named after lead donor Larry Pratt, whose love for Tennessee athletics began at a young age, when his father, Floyd, brought him to various sporting events at Neyland Stadium, Alumni Gym and Stokely Athletics Center.

In the 1990s, Pratt honored his father by creating an endowed scholarship in his name as a member of the Nathan Dougherty Society. Larry Pratt also was recognized at the 2003 Tennessee-Georgia football game for a $1 million donation to the STEP-UP Campaign.

A native of Athens, Tennessee, Pratt currently resides in McLean, Virginia, He graduated from the University of Tennessee in 1972 with a degree from the College of Business and serves as president and CEO of First Savings Mortgage Corporation, the largest private mortgage banker in Washington, D.C.

Pratt's $5 million commitment in April 2006, along with 341 other individual contributors through the Campaign for Tennessee Basketball, made Pratt Pavilion possible.

The UT Athletic Department first broke ground on the Pratt Pavilion in August 2006, and teams began practicing in the new structure on Oct. 12, 2007.

Tennessee's newest world-class basketball facility was officially unveiled and dedicated on Saturday, Jan. 19, 2008.

Both courts were completely refinished after the 2014-15 season, and the weight room was renovated and expanded to 4,350 square feet in the summer of 2016.

Select areas within Pratt Pavilion have been named in honor of other donors whose support for UT also helped make the project a reality:

LEGEND OF THE VOLUNTEER

What's a Volunteer? Not your run of the mill school nickname, the proud legacy of the Volunteer calls Tennessee student-athletes to compete at an elevated standard when the stakes are highest. A Volunteer is the bravest breed of human from the boldest nation on Earth, fiercely proud to call Tennessee home whether the battle lies within its borders or in a land far away.

THE FIRST VOLUNTEERS

In the aftermath of the Declaration of Independence, Americans were determined to create a nation that was free of the evils that had required them to resort to revolution. Among these was the fear of a large standing army. Such a force could be used to impose the will of an evil monarch and was therefore a threat to individual liberties. Instead, they would rely upon a volunteer army, citizen soldiers who would be called into service at times of crisis to serve their country.

When the people who would later be known as Tennesseans were first asked to volunteer for such an army, they had been living along the upper tributaries of the Tennessee River, near modern day Elizabethton. The call went out for volunteers to gather at Sycamore Shoals in September 1780 and march across the Smoky Mountains to meet this British threat. When finally assembled, the volunteers totaled almost 1,000 men, virtually the entire fighting force of the settlements. These "Overmountain Men" defeated the British at King's Mountain to turn the tide of the war in favor of the fledgling nation.

The tradition of the Tennessee Volunteer was thus already initiated when, in the War of 1812, the nation once again went to war. As they had done over 30 years before, Tennesseans responded enthusiastically. Instead of the 3,500 troops requested, 25,000 Tennesseans joined, participating in battles from the Canadian border to the Gulf of Mexico.

ANDREW JACKSON

OLD HICKORY

Earlier in the War of 1812 the British torched Washington. The Tennessee Volunteers made sure New Orleans would suffer no such fate. Under future President Andrew "Old Hickory" Jackson at the Battle of New Orleans, Tennessee Volunteers took part in the greatest victory of the war when they helped to defeat an army of crack British regulars. Facing more than twice their number, the Tennessee Volunteers joined a New Orleans militia, a group of former Haitian slaves fighting as free men and a band of outlaws headed by the notorious pirate Jean Lafitte. Thanks in no small part to the deadly Volunteer riflemen of Tennessee, the U.S. took a lopsided victory where more than 2,000 British were killed or wounded compared to eight killed and 13 wounded on the American side.

Jacob Hartsell, a captain in the 2nd East Tennessee militia, was among the Tennesseans who took part in the battle. He was so inspired by his fellow Tennesseans that he wrote a heroic poem in their honor. Entitled "The Brave Volunteer," this poetic journal entry is the earliest known written reference to Tennesseans as Volunteers.

DAVY CROCKETT

VOLUNTEERS AT THE ALAMO

Two decades later, Tennesseans advanced their reputation as volunteers when, unsolicited, several hundred made the journey south to assist the Texans in their war for independence from Mexico. The best known of these was David Crockett. His already legendary status was only enhanced by his dramatic death at the Alamo in 1836.

But before the Alamo fell, 33 Tennesseans, the largest number of defenders provided by any state — nearly four times as many as from Texas — kept Mexican General Santa Anna's overwhelming army at bay for 13 days against unbelievable odds. On March 6, 1836, the brave Tennessee Volunteers and the other Alamo defenders were overrun and breathed their last.

However, the crucial days the Volunteers slowed down the Mexican army gave another Tennessean, Sam Houston, enough time to gallop through Texas raising an army to defend what would become the Lone Star State. This army defeated Santa Anna in no small part because of the contributions of Tennessee's Volunteers. There can be no doubt Texas owes a great debt of gratitude for its statehood to the fierce men from Tennessee.

TENNESSEE... THE VOLUNTEER STATE

But Tennessee's status as the "Volunteer State" was solidified 10 years later when the United States War Department called for volunteers in the War with Mexico. Moving quickly to meet their allotted quota of 2,800 recruits, state officials were overwhelmed by 30,000 volunteers.

It was during the Spanish-American War that the students of the University of Tennessee began to lay official claim to the Volunteer nickname for themselves. In 1897, the student yearbook was christened, The Volunteer.

In 1902, the Atlanta Constitution used the term "Volunteers" to describe the football team when recounting a game between UT and Georgia Tech. However, the university sports teams continued to operate without an official nickname until 1905. In March of that year an article in the Knoxville Journal announced a nickname had been chosen.

"One of the admirers of the old school has suggested 'the Volunteers'," the newspaper reported. In classic understatement the report concludes, "The name sounds good, and it is likely that it will stick."

THE VOLUNTEER SPIRIT

There have been other men who symbolized the indomitable Tennessee Volunteer spirit on and off the field of battle. One of the most famous proved to be Alvin York in World War I. York was drafted and nearly single-handedly captured 132 Germans, took out about 35 machine guns which had been decimating his battalion and killed no fewer than 25 of the enemy, according to officers' reports. Indeed, Marshall Ferdinand Foch said of York's heroism, "What you did was the greatest thing accomplished by any private soldier of all the armies of Europe."

Humbly, the reluctant hero returned home to Tennessee as the toast of the nation. Yet York wasn't interested in celebrity or cashing in on his fame, saying, "This uniform ain't for sale."

Tennessee Volunteers took part in every theater of World War II, whether helping secure the deadly beaches of Normandy to working in their own backyard in Oak Ridge on The Manhattan Project and the atomic bomb that brought an end to war in the Pacific.

Not every Volunteer story was forged in wartime. Part of the Volunteer legend deals with self-sacrifice for the good of others. Take Tennessee train engineer Casey Jones, for instance. Steaming full-bore in the early morning in Vaughan, Miss., in 1900, Jones saw boxcars in the distance on the tracks in front of him. When it became apparent the passenger train he was driving was destined for a catastrophic collision, Jones was faced with a desperate choice — he could jump out of the engine and save his life before the crash or he could stay in the engine and try to slow the train enough to save more passengers' lives. After ordering his fireman to jump from the racing locomotive and save himself, Jones died that day saving dozens of lives in an amazing display of self-sacrifice. But his story and heroism live in the ballad devoted to the Tennessean who saved so many lives that day in his casket of splintered wood and twisted steel.

The legend of the Tennessee Volunteer also applies to great minds who create items of great cultural value in interesting ways. The first constitution ever written by white men in America was drafted in 1772 by the Watauga Association near present day Elizabethton. Take the example of the Cherokee silversmith Sequoyah, the only known man in the history of the world to single-handedly create an alphabet, the first written language for a Native American people.

Similarly, Tennessean Alex Haley became one of America's most famous authors after recounting the experience of African-Americans in his highly-acclaimed "Roots." Haley chose to make his home in Norris, just a short drive from the University of Tennessee.

Every time since the nation's birth to this very day, when the U.S. needs an extraordinary effort to brush back the dark curtain of hopelessness, the Tennessee Volunteers are called. The bravery, heroism, wisdom and ferocity of the Volunteers place them on a pedestal of great American legends.

REAL-TIME UPDATES

By acceptance and use of a Tennessee media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions as established by UT and the Southeastern Conference: In-game blogging including periodic updates of scores, statistics or other brief descriptions of the competition (such as Tweets and social-networking status updates) throughout the event is acceptable provided that the bearer conforms to the blogging policies separately published by the SEC, as such policies may be revised from time to time. No bearer may produce or disseminate in any form a "real-time" description or transmission of the event in any manner that constitutes, or is intended to provide or is promoted or marketed as, a substitute for television or video coverage of the event. The bearer agrees that the determination of whether a blog is a real-time description or transmission shall be made by the SEC in its reasonable discretion. If the SEC reasonably determines that a bearer is producing a real-time description of the event, the SEC reserves the right to pursue all available remedies against the bearer and to revoke the credential.

INTERNET USE - VIDEO & AUDIO

Upon execution of a separate agreement with terms and conditions governing the use thereof, the bearer will be afforded access to video and audio of broadcast events for use on the bearer's official news website(s), at no premium or charge. Otherwise, except as specifically permitted (with respect to online, non-archived simulcasts), the bearer shall not post, place or distribute or make available video (or audio from broadcast feeds) of game action of any event (including bearer-generated video of game action of an event) on or through the Internet or any other new media distribution platform (any other platform than print media or a form of television not available or viewable over the Internet, except for non-archived simulcasts specifically permitted) including, without limitation, wireless handsets, podcasts, cell phones or PDAs.

PRACTICE COVERAGE GUIDELINES

NOTE: For the purposes of these guidelines, the term "practice" refers not only to standard on-court basketball practice sessions but also any other practice-related activities, including, but not limited to: conditioning, weights, film sessions and individual workouts.

MEDIA VIEWING AREAS

Food City Center: Media must observe practice from row six or above in sections 120, 121 or 122 on the south side of the court. Videographers and photographers will receive instructions regarding approved shooting locations from the UT Strategic Communications staff. Producers and announcers from the television network that is scheduled to air the next Tennessee game may observe from the television position on the south end of the arena (midcourt).

Pratt Pavilion: Media must observe practice from the balcony overlooking the court on the west side of the facility. Videographers and photographers may shoot from the section of balcony accessible via the Chris Lofton Room during designated footage windows communicated by the UT Strategic Communications staff. Shooting photos and/or video from the Pratt balcony during non-designated footage windows is prohibited at all times.

ITEMS OFF-LIMITS TO MEDIA

The publishing, posting or broadcasting of—either directly or via an intermediary—information specific to player personnel, lineups, an opponent or game-specific strategy gleaned from practice is prohibited. This also applies to message boards and all forms of social media. Any communication between Tennessee personnel and/or staff and players that is not intended to be made public is off limits. Media members may not talk to players during practice.

If a player is limited in practice or not participating—or if a player is injured during the course of practice—any reporting related to their status is prohibited until the coaching staff has had a chance to address it (every reasonable effort will be made for that to take place immediately after practice). Please respect that there may be instances in which the coaching staff asks media not to report on the situation at all.

RADIO OR ONLINE BROADCAST

Participating in a live radio or online broadcast, during which Tennessee Athletics is a topic of conversation, is prohibited while the participant is in view of practice or any practice-related activities. Any and all exceptions—such as live radio remotes during preseason media day—must be approved at least one day in advance by the UT Strategic Communications staff.

VIDEO

With the exception of videographers from network television affiliates (game crews), all media members wishing to shoot video at practice must receive prior approval from the UT Strategic Communications staff. And with the exception of pre- or post-practice interviews, all video content that is broadcast or posted online must be no more than three minutes in duration, per practice. Posting video that includes offensive audio content (such as cursing) or gameplan-specific audio is prohibited. The use of live video-streaming platforms (such as Facebook or Instagram Live) inside the practice site is prohibited at all times.

TENNESSEE ATHLETICS DEPARTMENT COMPLIANCE STATEMENT

Compliance with NCAA rules is one of the highest priorities for the University of Tennessee and our athletics department. As a member of the NCAA, the University of Tennessee is responsible for the actions of its boosters and fans. Even the best intentions may violate NCAA rules. We need your help in observing all SEC and NCAA regulations. Boosters and fans must be careful of their interaction with prospective and current student-athletes. Therefore, we encourage our boosters and fans to "Ask Before You Act" by contacting the Compliance Office at 865-974-3871.

REPRESENTATIVES OF ATHLETICS INTERESTS, "BOOSTERS"

There are many ways an individual can be classified as a representative of Tennessee's athletics interests. You are a "representative of the University of Tennessee's athletics interests," if you have been involved in a booster club, made financial contributions to the athletics program or booster organizations, provided benefits to an enrolled student-athlete, assisted in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes, or been involved in the promotion of UT athletics. Please note that once you have been identified as a representative of University of Tennessee athletics interests, you retain that identity indefinitely.

RECRUITING, EXTRA BENEFITS AND INDUCEMENTS

Only coaches and athletics department staff members can be involved in the recruiting process. All "athletics representatives" who are not employees of UT are prohibited from contacting a prospect by telephone, letter or in-person, on- or off-campus, for the purpose of encouraging participation in athletics at UT. It is not permissible for prospects, student-athletes or their relatives and friends to receive any extra benefits or special arrangements from a booster. Extra benefits include, but are not limited to: cash or loans in any amount; co-signing or arranging a loan; providing gifts of any kind (e.g. clothing, airline tickets, or holiday cards); providing special discounts for goods and services; use of an automobile.

If you are an established friend or neighbor of a prospect, you may have contact with the prospect provided you do not try to recruit the prospect on behalf of UT, and that such contacts are not made at the direction of UT's coaching staff. Please note that a prospect is a person who has started classes for the ninth grade.

EMPLOYMENT

The Compliance Office must keep written records verifying all student-athlete employment. NCAA rules stipulate that compensation may be paid to a student-athlete only for work actually performed and at a rate commensurate with the going rate in that locality for similar service. NCAA rules also prohibit employers from using the name or picture of a student-athlete to directly or indirectly advertise, recommend or promote the sale or use of a commercial product or service of any kind. Do not provide an honorarium to a student-athlete for a speaking engagement. Compensation may not include any remuneration for value or utility that the student-athlete may have for the employer because of publicity, reputation, fame or personal following that he or she has obtained because of athletics ability.
